Say, just poke them again but mind Pop you don't do it once too often, because there are things which are better left unsaid, especially family affairs. If one rebuff won't answer, another will come.

LAYTON.

Mrs. John Y Clack is reported as ill with appendicitis, and not physically strong enough to undergo an operation. Mrs. Clack is under treatment however, that it is hoped will restore her to health.

At the examination for teachers, last Friday, two applicants were caught coaching. They will have their certificates revoked, and be barred from teaching in this County.

The war news telephoned down the valley by the Gazette people would be much appreciated if it did not get so muddled up in transit, that it takes a Philadelphia lawyer to understand it. It is too much like Hobart (?) John; sort o' uncertain.

Andrew Morris is reported as in a critical condition since the operation for appendicitis, and that his case is not progressing as favorably as could be desired.

Last Sunday, numerous snowflakes fell here, and at night it froze ice. The leaves of grass, plants, and garden vegetables were frozen stiff, but the heavy fog melted the frost, and we rather think that not much damage was done, and that the fruit trees are all right yet.

The meeting of the Board of Assessors last Friday, and the crowd of teachers at the examination the same day made Newton a lively town. This week the town will have the Board of Freeholders in session two days, Tuesday and Wednesday.

A magic lantern exhibit with Klondike scenes as the subject, will show at the Centreville Church, now Saturday night Those, who intend going to the gold fields should not miss it

We feel much flattered to think that "E. P. U." missed us last week, and hope to not disappoint him again. Our letter went off on a tangent, and was perhaps captured by a Spanish spy; for we have not heard from it to this day. We congratulate "E. P. U." on being able to get rid of his "John." Our John loose himself occasionally, but like a bad penny always turns up again. They are a rare pair of twins, truly.

There is no mistake about it, that the Pike County Press, next to the city dailies, is the best read paper in the Township. It gains steadily on its subscription list, which is one of the best indications that it fills the bill, and why should it not, it is ably edited, clean, condensed, yet newsy. Who could ask for anything more.

Mrs. Madison Shay went to the Port Jervis Hospital to be treated for appendicitis last week. Reports are to the effect that she is doing nicely since the operation.

Jake Van Tassel while in Jersey last Friday, bought a fine team of Price Bros., and gave our ex-Freeholder a free ride behind them on his way home.

Young's rock crushing machinery is doing a nice job at Colonel E. L. Price's. Many visitors drop in, and all go away with the impression that crushed stone is the right material for roads, and that it does not cost so terribly to make them, if you only know how.

I wonder what ailed our ex-Freeholder last Friday. Funny wasn't it.

A Brilliant Wedding.

The Green Ridge Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing April 29th to witness the marriage of Dr. Edson M. Green and Miss Estalene Beaver Killam, the handsome and accomplished daughter of B. F. Killam, esq., of Scranton. Two hundred invitations were issued for admission to the church, but the many friends of the bride and groom that assembled at the edifice were more than double that number. The church was handsomely decorated with palms and potted plants, and presented a beautiful appearance.

At precisely 8 o'clock the wedding march began. A few minutes later the bridal party appeared, preceded by the ushers. The little flower girl, Miss Frances Killam, a sister of the bride, followed, carrying a large green and white bouquet, and was directly in front of the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. The groom met the bride at the alter, where Dr. Lansing pronounced the words that made them man and wife, the father giving the bride away.

The bride wore white satin and the customary bridal veil and carried a large white and green bouget. After the ceremony the bridal party and about 75 invited guests repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous repast had been prepared. The house was trimmed with evergreens, and plants in profusion were everywhere. There were many valuable and handsome presents, the principal one being a check of $100 from the groom's uncle, check for $50 from the bride's grandfather, a cut glass set of 120 pieces, several sets of silver knives forks, and spoons, a handsome mahogany cabinet, an oak side board, several handsome chairs, a set of china dishes, and many other handsome and valuable articles.

Dr. and Mrs. Green left for a 10 days' trip which will include New York, Albany, Boston, and other places. On their return they will reside at the corner of Delaware st. and Penn Ave. with the groom's parents.

In the matter of exceptions to the Auditor's report in the estate of J. C. Ottenheimer, dec'd., the Court referred the matter back to the Auditor with direction to find whether or not there are such disputed facts arising between the parties as would warrant the framing of an issue, and if there are no such disputed facts, then to report distribution with leave to claimants to give additional evidence, as to the merits of the case.

Sussex Assessors.

Our Layton correspondent furnishes a most excellent and comprehensive report of the proceedings of the board of assessors of Sussex Co., and there is much food for reflection in the action of that body. The member from Sandyston certainly deserves great credit for his efforts to place a fair share of the taxes where they belong. Such men are valuable public servants and they should receive the hearty support of every fair minded man irrespective of party considerations.

Its Tenth Anniversary.

As previously announced the Y. P. S. C. E held a very pleasant meeting last Friday evening, to celebrate its tenth anniversary. A number of friends assembled and the Endeavorers were out in full force. The exercises were commenced with a hymn by the choir which was followed by a well rendered song by Lulu and Jakie Schorr. Miss Bertha Williamson then read the Secretary's report which stated that three Active and four Associate members have been added during the past year and the society now has in all 21 Active and 20 Associate members. After a part song, by a choir of ladies, Rev. Thos. Nichols, the pastor, made a brief address and the exercises closed with the hymn, America. Refreshments were then served and an hour pleasantly spent in social converse.
