LAYTON.

A reunion of the 1st Regiment N. J. Cavalry will be held at the Van Houten Post rooms in Jersey City Oct. 15th.

It is said one wants to get away from home for news. In this connection the Lafayette correspondent of the Wantage Recorder announces the marriage of Frank Dupes, of Sandyston, now teaching school at Lafayette, to a Miss Rhodes, of Vernon, to take place Oct. 4.

Daniel B. Lattimore lately returned from a fortnight's visit among relatives in Penn's domain, spending a considerable portion of the time in the vicinity of Scranton.

A paper is in circulation for subscriptions to Pastor W. H. Darby's salary, and the list is said to be assuming generous proportions already. As it is more blessed to give than to receive, it is an open question as to who will revel in the greatest bliss, the brethren who are liberal, or the domineer who is the recipient.

At the Democratic primary last Saturday Hon. E. E. Smith was chosen as a delegate to the State Convention at Trenton Sept. 23, and John J. Van Sickle at Newton Oct. 6, the former to nominate a candidate for Governor, and the latter to nominate a candidate for Congress in the 4th Congressional District.

H. E. Montross and Jake Van Tassel thought they had a call to go to N. Y. last week. I wonder if they did? They went all the same.

The Boards of Registry and Elections, the candidates for office this fall, and the electors even, will find matter to interest them in an "Act to regulate elections, (Revision of 1895) Chapter 159 of the Pamphlet Laws of New Jersey. Also note the repealer contained in Chapter 149.

J. V. Major and H. E. Montross last week set the pace for the bass fishermen this month, by returning from the Delaware with a good square mess.

We learn that Dr. Alton Dillistin, the able correspondent and collector for the Gazette, reports collections especially good in Sandyston.

A potpie supper is to be held this Thursday evening in the Centerville church, presumably for the benefit of the Rev. W. H. Barley.

John J. Van Sickle is buying apples on a pretty large scale for an off year, having bought at least eight carloads up to this date. They will be shipped to such extent as may indicate, and as fast as the different varieties are in season.

At the hearing in the case of John Garis, of Hainesville, vs. Benj. Draks, of Layton, before Squire Fuller, at Hainesville, last Friday, the suit was dismissed. Much surprise is expressed, and there is quite a difference of opinion as to the correctness of the Squire's position. I do not presume to criticize the action of the Court, as it was not there, but if an important witness had honored his subpoena it might have put a different complexion on matters. There is evidently a colored gentleman in de woodpile somewhere.

Burton Dupes, of Hainesville, is coming to his vacation on Friday, and left for a term in a business college at Knoxville, Tenn.

Mrs. Richard Kent, who has been yielding the family of Harry Bessing during the last fortnight, for her health, returned to her home in Newark last Saturday, without the anticipated improvement.

Religious missionary work, and more particularly foreign missions, as fostered by the churches, and as a growth of a religious system based upon the Bible, will be given some attention as business cases relax, and the winter evenings give time for the necessary research. Few realize what a wealth of literature has been published, and is available to the student who desires to know the evidence on both sides of the case before rendering judgment.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. S. J. Van Gordon gave a seven o'clock tea at her home on Thursday evening. About 50 guests assembled at the appointed hour, after the usual exchange of greetings Mrs. Van Gordon told her friends the surprise for them. Everyone was on the "qui vive" wondering what was in store for them. She invited them to follow her, and she soon ushered them into Pitt's Hall a few doors from her house. On opening the doors of the Hall a pleasant surprise greeted them. Three tables were soon all decorated with flowers and lovely things to eat. The tables were loaded down with good things. It was a feast indeed. You seldom have the pleasure of sitting down to tables where there is such a variety. Mrs. Van Gordon was the caterer herself. Her friends enjoyed the lovely supper very much and in long years to come they will remember that feast at Pitt's Hall. Lovely peaches and cream were served with delicious cake. Every one voted Mrs. Van Gordon a splendid entertainer.

After supper the friends adjourned to Mrs. Van Gordons residence and spent the evening in a social manner. The parlors were decorated with beautiful bouquets of flowers, which made a very pleasing appearance. Games were indulged in, some very amusing ones enjoyed. Mrs. Van Gordon is to be congratulated upon her pleasant reception to her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carney, of Matamoras, entertained about twenty of their friends at their residence on Cumminham street, on Friday evening. Music, both vocal and instrumental, was enjoyed, and dancing was indulged in. Refreshments were served. The evening was spent in a very pleasant manner. Mr. and Mrs. Carney know just how to entertain their friends.

The services at Epworth Church on Tuesday evening were conducted by Mr. J. B. Wright, the Presiding Elder of the Jersey City District. The usual Wednesday evening prayer meeting was not held, as the services on Tuesday evening took their place to some extent. The Rev. Mr. Spencer introduced Mr. Wright to the audience. In his discourse Mr. Wright gave out some interesting ideas. He is always a welcome visitor at Epworth Church.

J. Wallace Van Gordon, who is a law student in New York City, spent Sunday with his parents.

A Dewey quilt was placed by Mrs. Irving Hunt and Jennie Lusk, both members of Epworth church, last week, and had it on exhibition at the Ladies' Harvest Home and supper, Thursday evening.

LEDGEDLE.

Miss Louisa Simons, of Salem, and A. W. and O. K. Simons, of Dunmore, were guests of their brother and sister, Friend and Etta Simons, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Kipp, of Greentown, spent Sunday with Mather Kreiger.

Lillian Frisbie, Gill's Hanyou, Mrs. Killam and Fred Killam attended the picnic raising at Simonsville last Saturday. Much credit is due Mrs. Hopps for the good work she is doing.

John Bald is improving from his sickness, and was down to dinner on Sunday.

Ledgedle S. S. closed $10 at the place held Sept. 2, which sum goes to the church fund.

Willie Walker, who has been working for Simons and Becker all Summer, left Saturday.

Quite a number of our young men are thinking of following suit.

T. N. Jones, of Maplewood, was present at the twentieth wedding anniversary of I. K. Killam and wife, Sept. 10, and took a group embracing 75. Any one wishing a pleasure can obtain one by calling on him or at the Ledgedle store.

Thomas Gillett and Charles Afford were in Elmhurst Sunday.

DINGMANS FERRY.

The fence club, after the scatter at the last meeting, had a hard time getting to gether again. The weather was fine, the buckwheat and corn ripe, and all were busy.

The first question argued after the members were called to order, the minutes read, was: "Does threshing buckwheat with a machine pay?" All except one agreed that it did, and he, who is a student of the law, and a member of the club, denied it, and handing a bill to the chairman, left in a hurry, lest he should be called back again. Here is the bill:

Two tons hauling	$ 6 00
3 extra hands, $ 75 each	2 25
14 meals, 25 each	3 50
Horse feed	1 00
Expense	$12 75
Pay for machine, 12 bu on 61 bu	3 50
Am't. grain at 50c. to pay ex.	25 00
Total	$41 25

That is, it cost forty-two bushels to thresh out sixty-seven.

The time for politics having arrived, the next question was, what are the prospects for our respective candidates for Sheriff? It was agreed that so far as the will of our people is concerned, our candidate, Joseph Brooks stands the best show, but Farmer Ledman said he had no chance because he was not a hustler at electioneering, and would not spend his money freely. Farmer Delaware retorted that Brooks was an everyday worker for his living, and too sensible to spend three or four hundred dollars for an office which would not bring that amount back, in fact, would hardly pay board and wash-bowls. That is, he means the office is for what there is honestly in it, and if elected would attend to the business capably and fairly for all parties concerned, as he has in his present position. There are good lent sentiments, but we fear the time is not ripe in Pike when men can be elected without being plucked like a spring chicken. However, I will keep a warm place for him at election.

The members were treated to a visit by Don Quete and Sencho Pansa, with the Equine Rosinante.

Pansa explained that his master was a great fool, and his occupation was fishing, and that the Americans having knocked the wind out of the Don, and the pigs having rosted up all their milk, they had emigrated to the desert of Sahara, where they chanced to meet that universal traveler, taking a siesta on an oasis, who told them about the United States, and particularly of Milford, so they came here, and finding no windmills to fight, concluded to go in the railroad business, and build the Delaware Valley road. The chairman inquired of Pansa whether his master was ever successful in overcoming the mill. He said no, but he thought he could do as well as those who have been working the enterprise and so road 79.

Members are kicking over the tobacco tax, and one will try to raise his own next year.

The older crop will be about this fall, and probably there will be less winter snow and less winter than usual on that account.

WANAMAKER EVADES A JOINT DEBATE.

He Declines to Meet Chairman Elkin on the Platform.

COL. STONE ANSWERS SWALLOW.

He Points Out What Should Occur to Any Sensible Man, That the Charges Proposed For Debate Charge Crimes and Misdemeanors Under the Laws of the Commonwealth, and That the Proper Place to Deal With Them is the Criminal Court, Where It is Swallow's Duty to Present Them.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—The two significant events of the week, politically, aside from the satisfactory consummation of the Republican harmony program in Philadelphia upon the lines predicted some weeks ago in this correspondence, were John Wanamaker's avoidance of a joint debate with State Chairman Elkin in Media on Saturday and Colonel Stone's crushing rejoinder to Swallow.

The crank candidate for governor issued a public challenge to the Republican candidate to hold several debates with him on a carefully prepared list of charges. In the main they are the same old charges which he published in his newspaper last week, for which publication he was convicted of criminal libel and is now awaiting sentence.

He was then unable to produce any evidence in support of them, even enough to acquit him of malicious intent in publishing them, and Colonel Stone promptly turned his letter over to the district attorney of Dauphin county, properly holding that if the charges were true the only effect of a public debate, with an exhibition of the testimony, would be to give warning to the defendants in advance of arrest and enable them to escape justice. Following is Colonel Stone's letter:

Philadelphia, Sept. 23, 1898.

Rev. S. C. Swallow:

My Dear Sir: My attention has been called to a published letter dated Sept. 21 and addressed to me in which you challenge joint discussion upon what you claim to be the issues in this campaign. I am not surprised that you have omitted to mention as an issue, but I am surprised that the Prohibition party which nominated you upon that issue should so soon forget the purposes and objects of their organization and follow you in a crusade which entirely ignores prohibition. You challenge me to discuss 12 declarations, or charges upon the stump. All of your 12 declarations charge crimes and misdemeanors which may be severely punished under the laws of the state.

You do not name the offenders nor the time when these crimes and misdemeanors were committed, but claim to have evidence to substantiate them. I have no such knowledge, except your unsupported statements which you have heretofore made, but have been unable to sustain in the courts. If you have such knowledge of crimes committed, and have such evidence, it is your duty, not only as a good citizen, but as a Christian minister, to lay the evidence before the grand jury of your county. The witnesses which you propose to call in joint debate will be sufficient to obtain an indictment if they are sufficient to convince an intelligent audience of the truth of your charges.

That is the proper tribunal to hear and determine the truth of these charges, and that is the proper course for you to pursue, instead of undertaking on the stump to prejudice the people against candidates whom you do not charge with committing the crimes or with knowledge of them. I have, therefore, taken the liberty to refer your letter to the district attorney of Dauphin county, where you reside, for such action as he may take in the matter, assuring you that if I am elected governor of Pennsylvania I will heartily co-operate in all cases to bring guilty parties to justice and punish all crimes against the state.

Truly yours,
WILLIAM A. STONE.

The care with which Mr. Wanamaker avoids public examination upon the reckless assertions he has been making since his nomination for State Senator, and the gubernatorial nomination is succinctly set forth in the following report of the committee which sought to arrange a joint debate on Saturday.

William L. Mathews, Esq., Chairman Republican Executive Committee of Delaware County, Media, Pa.

Dear Sir: At a meeting of your executive committee, held in the court house, Media, on the evening of the 1st inst., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of this committee that an independent meeting has been advertised to take place at the courthouse, Media, Pa., on Saturday evening, Sept. 24, at which the Hon. John Wanamaker has been invited to speak and discuss the issues of the campaign; and

"Whereas, There are questions at issue in this campaign in which all are interested; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the chairman appoint a committee of three (3) to confer with the committee in charge of said meeting, and also with the Hon. John Wanamaker and the Hon. John P. Elkin, chairman of the Republican state committee, and arrange, if possible, to have both gentlemen appear at said meeting and discuss the issues of the campaign in a joint debate, in order that the people may have an opportunity of hearing both sides."

The undersigned were appointed in pursuance of the above resolution as a committee to wait upon Mr. Wanamaker and Mr. Elkin and arrange for the joint discussion at the time stated. On Thursday morning, the 23d inst., your committee went to the city of Philadelphia and called at the office of Mr. Wanamaker. He was absent and it was reported that he could not see him until Friday morning. On Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, we again called on Mr. Wanamaker at his office. We found him in and made known to him the wishes of the Republicans of Delaware county in the matter of having a joint discussion. He then asked if the state chairman was willing. We informed him we would see. We immediately went over to the Republican headquarters and found the chairman at his desk. We made known to him our desire that he would meet Mr. Wanamaker in joint discussion at the courthouse in Media, as per the resolution. He promptly accepted the invitation and addressed the following letter to your committee: Gentlemen: I am in receipt of your invitation to meet the Hon. John Wanamaker in joint discussion of the political issues of the present campaign at the courthouse in Media on Saturday evening, the 24th of September. I have by accept the invitation. It would afford me much pleasure to meet Mr. Wanamaker at that time or any other time during the present campaign to refute the charges that he has been making against the Republican party of this state. Very respectfully yours,

JOHN P. ELKIN, Chairman.

Your committee then reported the acceptance of Chairman Elkin to Mr. Wanamaker at the office of the latter. Mr. Wanamaker replied that he would not enter into a discussion of this kind under the committee of his friends having expressed a hearty willingness to meet Mr. Wanamaker at Media as directed. We then called up by phone Captain Albert Maguin, of Darby, who was the committee appointed to make arrangements for the Wanamaker meeting. When told that Chairman Elkin had accepted the invitation to enter into the joint discussion with Mr. Wanamaker and that Mr. Wanamaker referred the matter to the Wanamaker meeting, when told that Chairman Elkin had accepted the invitation to enter into the joint discussion on the grounds that he had no authority to do so.

We have labored faithfully to carry out the instructions of your committee and arrange for a joint discussion of the issues involved between the parties above mentioned. It is due to State Chairman Elkin to say that from the first a hearty willingness to meet Mr. Wanamaker and discuss the Wanamaker meeting at Media, as well as Mr. Wanamaker himself, showed a disposition to evade the responsibility of a joint discussion at that time. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Committee—John L. Hawthorne, chairman; Edward S. Hickman, Charles M. Wagner.
