

Saved from the Surgeon's Knife

No organ is of greater importance to the human body than the kidneys. Their duty is to sift and strain the poisonous and waste matter from the blood, and if they fail to do this, the trouble shows in the nervous system, and even in the brain. Your life is at stake when there are pains in the small of your back—when you are compelled to get up at night to urinate—when the passing of water causes scalding pain—when there is a sediment in the urine in the vessel, or when it appears white or milky. When so afflicted, you can conquer the trouble with Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, the greatest medicine that civilization has ever known for curing Kidney, Bladder, Blood and Liver Diseases.

James Lettice, of Canajoharie, N. Y., tells of his wonderful cure: "Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and sides that were fearful. I could not control my kidneys, and what came from me was filled with mucus and blood. An Albany doctor was to perform an operation upon me, and said my home doctor could take care of me after. I saw an advertisement of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which seemed to fit my case, so I decided to try that before I submitted to the operation. I began its use. When I had taken about two bottles the flow from the bladder grew cleaner, and the pain stopped, and in a short time I was saved from the surgeon's knife, and am now well."

Favorite Remedy also cures Eczema, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Constipation. For Female Troubles it is unequalled. It is sold for $1.00 a bottle at all drug stores.

Sample Bottle Free! In order that sufferers may be convinced of the curative virtues of Favorite Remedy, a free sample bottle will be sent, prepaid, to those who send their full postoffice address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y. It is necessary to say that you saw the advertisement in this paper if you wish to take advantage of this genuine and liberal offer. Send today.

ELKIN FIRES ANOTHER GUN.

He Opens the State Campaign in Chester County.

REPLIES TO MR. WANAMAKER.

The Chairman Thoroughly Refutes the Charges Made.

SAYS THE PARTY IS ALL RIGHT.

Declares That the Millionaire Ex-Postmaster General is Betraying the Party Which Made Him Rich, and is Introducing or Attempting to Introduce Systematic Corruption in Politics to an Extent Never Before Heard of in Pennsylvania.

(Special Correspondence.)

West Chester, Oct. 3.—Before one of the most representative and attentive audiences ever gathered anywhere State Chairman John P. Elkin opened the Republican campaign in Chester county in a manner which will not soon be forgotten, and which met with the most ardent reception. He had previously accepted an invitation to meet Mr. Wanamaker in joint public debate, which the millionaire orator dodged, and naturally devoted much of his attention to the latter's latest public utterances.

In the course of his speech Chairman Elkin said: "Last week I received an invitation from the Republican executive committee of your neighboring county of Delaware to meet Mr. Wanamaker in joint discussion and debate before his face and in the presence of an intelligent assembly, the slanders he has been casting on our party and people. I promptly accepted this invitation. It was my earnest hope that Mr. Wanamaker would have the courage of his so-called convictions and meet me on the same platform to discuss these questions. For purposes of his own, however, and in my opinion, because he dared not have the fallacies and falsehoods of his statements exposed in public, he refused to accept that invitation."

For this reason, if for no other, I desire here and now to reply to Mr. Wanamaker in tone and language about which it will be possible to have any misunderstanding. The political disappointments suffered by Mr. Wanamaker have preyed upon his sensitive mind to such an extent that he has gone politically mad, and has made a submarine fleet of the little filibustering squadron, led by Mr. Wanamaker in the rear, and seeking to disguise its purposes under Republican colors.

COMPARED WITH AGUIBALDO.
As in the case of the insurgent leader of the Filipinos, the Republican party has made Mr. Wanamaker all that he is politically and most of what he is commercially. It has furnished his arsenal. Its policy has been the means of equipping him with the weapons which he is now lavishly using to disrupt the party because the sovereign will of the people decided adversely to his ambitions for holding office. Up until that event, our party has been the willing, eager, and obedient guide and guidance of the very same Republican leadership which he now denounces as unacceptably bad and so dangerous to the welfare of the Commonwealth that the party must be broken down and the state handed over to the Democrats rather than it should be continued.

He goes further even than Aguinaldo. The latter only threatened to betray those who have made him powerful in order that he shall have absolute independence for himself and his followers. Mr. Wanamaker demands not only independence, but domination. After being fairly and justly defeated in open convention, with every contested question generously decided in his favor, after free and open primaries, he challenges the verdict of the majority and offers his allies and supporters weapons with which the Republican party has equipped him to the Democrats, the Swallowtails, to any and every political organization which promises him a chance to prove his insatiable and taste revenge for his disappointed ambition to rule the party councils and have his choice of its offices.

Listen to what Mr. Wanamaker says: "Almost two generations of our people have grown up in the atmosphere of corrupt public life and they have become accustomed to believe that it is not worth while to try to change the things which are going on. Strange as it may seem, colleges, clergymen, teachers, doctors and railroad presidents, all interested in places, privileges or appropriations, have become mixed up in it."

"That is to say, according to his ideas, the colleges, churches, clergymen, teachers, doctors and railroad presidents have become mixed up in a corrupt public life. A more outrageous, unjust, untruthful assertion has never been printed as coming from the lips of any Pennsylvanian. What a dark and dismal hope there is for our people if, as Mr. Wanamaker says, two generations of the citizens of this Commonwealth have grown up in a corrupt public life."

CORRUPT PUBLIC LIFE.
It is an insult to the intelligence and moral standing of more than six millions of as high minded and honorable citizens as ever lived on the face of the earth to say that they have been mixed up in a corrupt public life. He charges in express terms that the colleges, churches, clergymen, teachers, doctors and railroad presidents have become mixed up in what he alleges to be a corrupt public life. This a fair sample of the charges he is making against the Republican party. I challenge him to name a college in Pennsylvania that has been mixed up in corruption of any kind. What was the University of Pennsylvania, old Lafayette, Lehigh university, Bucknell, State College, Washington and Jefferson, Grove City, Gettysburg,

Franklin and Marshall and hosts of other institutions of learning, which are the proud boast of our people, think when they read that the colleges of Pennsylvania are charged with being mixed up in public corruption? That statement is too malicious to need refutation.

What will the youth and young men of this state think when they read that the colleges in which they are receiving their education are charged with being mixed up with public corruption. It is a reflection on every college, every college professor and every student in the state. He also charges that the churches have become mixed up in public corruption. I defy him to name a church from the New Jersey boundary to the Ohio line that has become mixed up in a corrupt public life. He cannot and dare not name a single instance that will be a justification of his charges. He also makes the same charge against the clergymen of the state. Will he name a single clergyman who has become so mixed up? Of course he cannot name a single instance of this character. He makes the same charge against the colleges, the colleges and the railroad presidents of Pennsylvania. I ask him to name a teacher, a doctor or a railroad president that has become implicated in any public corruption. Wanamaker's charges and assertions should arouse the indignation of every citizen of the Commonwealth.

MR. WANAMAKER'S VOTE.
When Mr. Wanamaker spoke during the dinner at the Republican headquarters he alleged that corruption was growing up in our public life. A generation of men is said to be about 25 years, and two generations would almost measure the life of Mr. Wanamaker. Was his vote during all this time? If this public corruption has been growing for so great a length of time, is it not remarkable that Mr. Wanamaker only discovered it after he was defeated in his aspirations to be elected United States senator? Is it not a peculiar fact that the light only began to dawn in his mind after he had suffered two defeats during the hands of the Republican party? The man who would quietly sit in his office surrounded by the goods, wares and merchandise of a great store, building up a princely fortune, knowing that such practices were being carried on in his passage other than that a majority of every party and faction of a party voted for it, not a single vote, Democratic or Republican, was cast against it.

He also paid attention to the disputed question of who was responsible for the defeat of Colonel Stahl for congress in the York, Adams and Cumberland district, and scored probably the most dramatic point of the evening by producing the affidavit of one of the candidates for the legislature in Cumberland county that Stahl was taken out of the fight in pursuance of a direct and explicit order, whereby the two candidates from Cumberland county were required to pledge themselves in writing to vote for Wanamaker for United States senator. He brought down the house by producing the affidavit on the affidavit on the stage to substantiate his statement personally. Continuing he said:

A NEWSPAPER CONTROVERSY.
Mr. Wanamaker has been preaching the doctrine of purity in politics throughout the state during the past year. He desires to impress on the minds of our people that he is making an attempt to lift politics onto a higher plane. I have no doubt that his noble efforts are being carried on conscientiously and deserving people with his suggestions, but those of us who are familiar with the methods of his campaign managers are fully convinced that the entrance of his name into the political arena has done more to commercialize the politics of Pennsylvania than all the other influences combined. As an instance of the higher plane to which Mr. Wanamaker has sought to lift politics, let us take the case of the peculiar influence with which his managers conduct their campaign, and is a pretty good evidence of the high plane to which Mr. Wanamaker is going to elevate the politics of the great Commonwealth. Here is the story as told by the papers above referred to:

The Galesburg Dispatch calls up a "political scandal." Let's see, Hayden, it is not so very long ago that you took, in our office and in our presence, a nice roll of anti-Quay money and promised upon your word and honor to be faithful to the cause and to be true to the money from your source, for which you were willing to promise anything—Potter Enterprises.

"The 'roll of honor' and the volume of your paper show. You sweet scented bird, to talk about 'acrobats.' Until Gullivan and you are wind like a sick cat for money—money from any source, for which you were willing to promise anything—Potter Enterprises.

"How well the caterer of Wanamaker followers performed their part of the contract in the case they well know. We fully performed our contract, which is more than the defeated faction can say. The 'roll' of anti-Quay money that The Enterprise claims that we received in his name as ready any time to accept the balance due on the contract. Office hours from 7 a. m. to 12 p. m.—Galesburg Dispatch.

The above furnishes a glimpse of the "purer politics" introduced into Potter county by the man who boasted he would "carry every county in the state." Of course, then all the newspapers in that county than all the newspapers in that county. Wanamaker never was guilty of "subsidizing the press."—Potter County Journal.

FLAGS AND PATRIOTISM.
Mr. Wanamaker, for some reason not entirely apparent, says "the Quay machine is cunningly campaigning with books wrapped up in flags and pictures of our honored flag. A man might carry a thousand flags and not be a patriot."

LET IT GO ON.
It has been the Free-Trade contention that other countries will not buy from us, or at least will buy less, if our Protective Tariff reduces the amount we buy from them. Free-Traders claimed that the Dingley Tariff is that kind of a measure and must have that kind of an effect. But we are selling more to foreign countries to-day than we are purchasing from them—just what the Republicans promised in 1896. Let the good work go on, keep the Republicans in power and enlarge our foreign trade, and let the nation grow rich by reason of the prosperity that comes to us through economic politics.
