Carefulness

The best and purest drugs in the world are of no service, or are dangerous, if they are not handled carefully. This is a matter which is always uppermost in our minds—CAREFULNESS—the choosing of the right bottle, the measuring or weighing of the right dose.

It is our constant aim to be the kind of druggists to whom people can go with confidence, when the lives of loved ones depend upon care and accuracy in filling prescriptions with medicines which are just as they should be.

We have everything usually kept in first-class drug stores.

Druggist - - Milford, Pa.

The Literary Digest

Issued Weekly
32 Pages Illustrated

"All the Periodicals in one"

Discussions on all sides of all questions selected from domestic and translated from foreign periodical literature. THE LITERARY DIGEST is in the world of thought, feeling, and research what the news papers are in the world of events. You find in the dailies the facts; you find in THE LITERARY DIGEST the reason for the facts.

ENTIRE REALM OF THOUGHT AND ACTION.

All that is of prime interest in the realm of thought and action, whether it be politics, science, art, belles-lettres, religion, sociology, travel, discovery, finance, or commerce, is, by long-trained editorial skill, presented in condensed form, partly in summary, partly in direct quotation for the readers of THE LITERARY DIGEST.

THE BUSY MAN'S BEST FRIEND

"No other publication of its class is of equal value. No one who desires to keep abreast with information on all lines of current interest can afford to be without THE LITERARY DIGEST."

Represents all sides of important questions with impartiality. Condenses, Digests, translates, illustrates from nearly 1,000 periodicals.

SANDYSTON IN GENERAL.

Hainesville had a series of pugilistic encounters last week and in one of them one party was slightly injured. He at once swore out a warrant and his assailant was taken to Newton by constable Gunn, but luckily was bailed out.

The stealing of a set of harness from Peter Brink caused that gentleman to get a search warrant. In company with constable Gunn they proceeded to the house of the suspected party. During the controversy Mr. Brink was knocked down, but the harness was found and the performer was committed to the care of Sheriff Andrews.

Lester Sylox and Ernest Brown were digging potatoes on the Van Sickle farm one day last week and I presume they were rushing matters for when they came to measure up it was found that the former had 64 bushels and the latter 77. Pretty good work.

Miss Susie Wilson, of Hainesville, is again confined to her bed by illness. She had a severe attack of pneumonia last winter, and has never fully recovered from it.

The meeting at Centreville on Saturday afternoon to take into consideration the building of a creamery was not largely attended, but enough farmers were out to show that they were in earnest about trying it. Commitmentees were appointed to find how many cows would be pledged, and report at a meeting to be held one night this week. The prospects are promising, and I hope it will prove a success.

The buckwheat crop is out of the way, seedling is about done, and the farmer is busy getting out his corn. The only irregular to corn husking is that the corn is not dry enough to crib. Husking is going on all the same.

Doctors, like other folks, have their ills and Doctor Hughes has had his share for the past week; being confined to his house. Dr. J. N. Miller is attending to his patients, but will not be needed longer as Dr. H. is much better.

Hainesville as usual made their social a success on Thursday night of last week. While the attendance was not large the shekels rolled in just the same. $46. were taken in.

I regret to say that the condition of Mrs. Lucy Warner has not improved and it is now only a question of endurance as to how long she may last.

I notice that H. L., of Montague, has been promoted from the B. of E. to a position on the town committee. Good boy, go a little higher and give your fellow scribes a chance to vote for you, and we will all do it—sure.

Politics is beginning to attract attention and people are discussing the opposing candidates for sheriff if they are both good men, very little "snud" can be thrown by either party. One question is uppermost, and that is, why was not Mr. Harris nominated for sheriff? But the ballot box will settle that question.

D. L. B. Smith and wife, of Branchville, visited at L. T. Smiths at Layton on Sunday. Bert drives a noble rig and his horse takes no one's dust.

Politics is coming to the front, and from now until the polls close both parties will do their best to elect their candidates. Years ago voters thought they must stand by the party nominees whether he was all wool and yard wide or not. To-day many voters irrespective of party are voting for the candidate best qualified for the office, and this vote is the cause of much worry on the part of the candidates, and it is one that both parties should heed by placing good men in nomination.

GREELEY.

Gustav Hoehne and son Otto visited Milford recently.

J. Silverman, of Binghampton, canvassed here Thursday.

Mahlon Perry and Wendie Hale, of Glen Eyre were here recently looking for stray cattle.

August Moreaux and sister, of Sawkill, visited friends at Lords Valley Sunday.

John McConnell and Charles E. Hazen, of Notch, wheeled over here Monday.

S. L. Van Aken and wife, of Lackawaxen, visited their farm here last week.

Church services were held in the McKean Valley School House last Sunday by Rev. Hugh McKean.

Prof. Geo. T. Hogan visited our town last week. UNCLE SAM.

DELAWARE.

The late chestnut crop is a failure. The slump in prices on the early fruit kept many from selling. The drop in price on hickory nuts to 75 cents per bushel put a stop to picking and now they bring $1.

Daniel Broadhead, a son of David O., it is rumored will leave his present farm in November and locate on the Frank Schoonover place near Bushkill, Aaron Jagger will move on the farm vacated.

W. H. Layton has left Centre and located on the Pfaffle place at Long Meadow.

Mrs. Charles Cron, of Scranton, accompanied by her three children is visiting her father-in-law.

Harvey Cron has moved in the new Murray Mansion.

Chestnuts are 4c. at Dingmans and Sets, at Egypt Mills.

Andrew Jagger and wife, of New York, recently spent a few days with D. V. Jagger's family at Centre.

Mrs. Martha North, of Milford, visited relatives at Centre Sunday.

L. H. Smith has moved into W. H. Layton's home for the winter.

It is said Milford is dull at present but this place can match it.

Buckwheat has been about half a crop this year. Late growing has for two years past found to be the best. Japanese took 52 days from sowing to cradling, and silver grey 72 days.

With millions of gallons of good spring water going to waste back of Dingmans, the people are using poor water procured from anywhere. One pipe centrally located where all might obtain a supply would answer until regular water works could be afforded.

Alvin Morrison has moved from the J. B. Van Ankin farm to Matamoras.

M. B. Pitney's large dwelling at High Falls is rapidly progressing in construction.

The residents of the northern part of this township are considering that the directors will not build them a schoolhouse and furnish a teacher, to take advantage of a law which provides that all children living over 2 1/2 miles from a schoolhouse have a right to board within the limits at the expense of the township.

John Doty and brother are making sample hoop poles hoping to secure an order for 50,000.

Geo. W. Donaldson is having his residence repaired. Wm. Sinley is doing the work.

Mr. Kern wears the happiest smile of any man in this vicinity, because he had a long, prosperous boarding season. A few well treated at the beginning filled his house for the summer.

Mrs. E. D. Ryder, after visiting her parents at Ardornish returned home Saturday.

It is reported that parties interested in buying apples are scattering reports of a plentiful crop, which does not accord with the former statements of partial failure.

"We were hoping to take the hog crop across the bridge to Branchville this fall, but work is too slow to warrant the belief."

The monotony of school keeping at Centre was alleviated last week for a few days by some of the youngsters threatening to shoot one another, and a revolver was taken by the teacher from one twelve-year-old child.

Mrs. Jessy Gilmore has gone to Corry, Pa., to spend the winter. Her daughters will go to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hannah Layton has been suffering an attack of grip.

Mr. Hagart has been improving his cottage along the river by adding a large porch.

John Zimmerman and family, who have summered on their farm, returned to the city Monday.

CESAR.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters', and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at C. O. Armstrong's, drug store.

MONTAGUE.

Mr. Ebron:—It appears some folks won't take no for an answer.

Others don't know enough to come in when it rains.

There is a time to do most everything, but some folks can't live unless they bring up the rear of the procession.

Sandyston says, but what, Washington Lantz has the reputation of a man who can't be out of a paper of tobacco (cigarettes don't go), that he will run, and the other man must look out. So Wash. don't cut-run him.

Bicycle riders when meeting a wagon turn to the right and avoid a tumble.

Rev. James Jougeneel, of Central Bridge, N. J., preached in the Montague Reformed church Sunday evening to a large congregation. He will preach in the same church next Sunday morning at 10:30 and at Hainesville in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Whoever has charge of the new church should open the windows and let out those bad bees, they make things rather warm for severals at members of the congregation Sunday evenings.

Just a little scrap to see who was right was all the trouble above. The sores are healed and everything appears lovely.

The funeral of John Otter, of Sandyston, took place in the Reformed church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. James Jougeneel officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery adjoining.

The owner came and paid the bill and took away his dogs.

Just look out, pretty soon the other fellow will have the best end of a bad bargain.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Hornbeck spent Sunday in Port Jervis.

H. L. went to church.

R. T. Layce and wife, Mrs. De Witt Little and Miss May Little attended the Firemen's parade at Middletown.

John Wood, Jr., and wife of Matamoras, were guests of Daniel E. Everett and wife Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Van Elten, of Port Jervis, were seen here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swartout and Miss Amanda, of Branchville, visited E. Shiner and wife over Sunday.

Edmett Kyte, of Newton, and mother Mrs. Clementa Kyte, of Branchville, called on relatives here Sunday.

Gottfried Wieland, Jr., of Long Eddy, called on his parents here last week.

It does not look very sensible to keep a school open at an expense of about thirty-five or more dollars per month and have from four to six scholars in attendance. But yet Montague is doing it, and why? And who is to blame for it? Scholars are plenty who should attend, but why do they not?

Mrs. Maria Lane and Miss Lottie, after an absence of two months spent on Long Island have returned to beautiful Montague.

Bill is on the standstill. He can't for the life of him tell what a slave sale is, and he hates to go because he's afraid of getting stuck, and to stay away, never! at least not so long as the sheepskin lasts on the Montague NAIL KEG.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. W. H. Seybolt, of the village, has been spending sometime in New York city visiting her son George, who is living there. She returned last Saturday.

Lewis Price, a former resident of Matamoras, but now of Fishkill, N. Y., was married Wednesday at Germantown, near Port Jervis, to Miss Bridie Quick. They went to their home at Fishkill immediately after the wedding.

Wm. Wagner, of Matamoras, the builder has left town for New York city where he is to take a course on architecture at Cooper Institute. He is a promising young man, is ambitious, and we have no doubt he will make his mark in this world. His many friends wish him success.

Mr. Van Prey and wife have left our village and are now living in Port Jervis.

Mrs. D. B. Allen, of the Allen House, Matamoras, left town Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Cook of Princeton, N. J.

The Ladies' of Hope Ch. will give an entertainment at Prescott's Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 27th, for the furnace fund. Mrs. Heidenthal has charge of the entertainment. A very fine programme will be rendered.

The Ladies of Epworth church held their annual harvest home supper Thursday evening Oct. 19th. A full account in next week's issue. S.

NEARLY Fifty-Eight Years Old!!

It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American people has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast to-day, with faith in its teachings and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides.

As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of its youth strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century. It has lived on its merits and on the moral support of progressive Americans. It is the "New York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the lead- ing National Family Newspaper.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the state and Nation the publishers of "THE PRESS" (your own favorite home paper) has entered into an alliance with "The New York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the billing cost of $1.05 per year. Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untriflingly for his interest, in every way, brings to his home all the news and happy tidings of his neighbor hood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospect for different crops the prices in home markets and in fact is a weekly visitor which should be found in every well-to-do progressive family.

Just think of it! Both of these papers for only $1.05 a year. Send all subscriptions to "THE PRESS" MILFORD, PENNA.
