"The responsibility born of duty cannot be evaded with honor. We are in the Philippines; our flag is there. The first requirement-the indispensable requirement—is peace. No terms until the undisputed authority shall be acknowledged in every foot of territority of the archipelago. After that, then Congress will make a government under the sovereignty of the United States."-President McKinley at Milwankee.

"When we produce more than we consume, what is the natural consequence? We must either find a market for that surplus or cut down that production. Under the benefits of our splendid tariff law our trade has gone forward with a bound, and under these conditions there is nothing under Heaven to prevent our country from taking the front rank in the vast markets of the Orient. We are going to build the Nicaragua canal and going to have shipping interests through there, yea, all over the world, and don't yon forget it."-Senator Hanna, Marysville, Ohio, Oct 26.

"Colonel" Bryan's inquiry of an Ohio audience as to "when did this nation desert the Declaration of Independence and the declaration that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the Memphis Evening Scimitar (Democratic) as follows:

"This nation deserted the Declaration of Independence and repudiated the consent of the governed theory when it undertook to subjugate Southern sovereign States in 1861, and Mr. Bryan will not dare tell a Northern audience that the nation did wrong."
