SANDYSTON IN GENERAL.

Mr. Manning Hotalen, our efficient constable, is a very happy man, his better half presenting him with two little sons a few nights ago. Manning can now take a turn at rocking the cradle.

The carpenters on the creamery building are rushing matters. The balloon frame was put up on Friday, but alas, on Saturday came a rain putting a stop to the work. All the material is on the ground, and this week will see the building enclosed.

When a person gets so low that stealing the boys traps becomes a business then it is time for that individual to emigrate. That such a person exists is evidenced by the fact of missing traps.

John A. McCarrick, the representative of the Sussex Record, made a pleasant call on Saturday. Mr. McCarrick is a hustling up-to-date young man, and reports business connected with paper as successful to you John.

I find that the rumor of Capt. Simpson renting the farm of A. S. Stoll had no foundation. Mr. Stoll will remain on his farm, and Capt. Simpson will occupy his home at Layton after April 1st.

I am afraid the efforts being put forth to organize a singing school at Layton will not materialize. While there is lots of material to have a large class within reach yet many who should join are holding aloof. That such a school would be a great benefit to one disputes.

Miss Flora Raser daughter of Daniel Raser has been very ill, but I am glad to note that last accounts report improvement.

Dancing is rapidly becoming a hot act the parties of the day being of the kissing kind, and I am very much in doubt which sort of party suits the boys the best. As exercise is necessary to health, I am inclined to think that dancing goes ahead. It did when I was a boy, but, times and fashion both are subject to change.

Theodore Sigler, of Hainesville, will remove, on Tuesday of this week, to the farm of Jonathan Coykendall near Deckertown.

The Klondike social in the Hainesville church, a few nights ago, was quite well attended. The fashion now-a-days to raise church funds is to keep these socials overhanging on the ground by the end of the year salary and expenses are paid some thing.

The Sussex Alms Home Investigating committee are inquiring into the alleged mismanagement at that institution, and later on the public will know whether Mrs. Williamson is a fallator or not. Our county press are somewhat divided as to the honesty of the investigation, but, then you know, editors are not like the Pope, infallible.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. S. A. Johnson received last Friday evening a telegram announcing the death of her brother Leroy Simonds at Coudersport, Pa. She left Saturday to attend the funeral which was held Sunday.

Fire was discovered last Sunday, during the session of Sunday school, in the basement of Epworth church. A couple of barrels left standing too near the furnace had been ignited. The fire was soon extinguished and very little damage done.

The gentleman's supper at Epworth church on Friday evening was a success, financially and socially. The proceeds amounted to $3. There was a large attendance. Friends from Milford, Port Jervis, Germantown and Tri-State were present.

The Dr. O. A. M. of this village and Port Jervis held a reception at their hall in the Pobe building in P. J. Tuesday evening at which over two hundred were in attendance. H. I. Courtright is a trustee. Several very pleasing addresses were made interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

A Place to Rest.

The busy man who needs rests can find no place so pleasant as the pine woods region of North Carolina. There one finds perfect rest in the newly built up town of Southern Pines, N. C. and he will find a wide-awake group of Northern people who have found climate particularly healthy and pleasant during the winter months. The healthfulness of Southern Pines and its immediate vicinity is becoming widely known and physicians all over the land are sending their patients that way. For health, pleasure and comfort it is in every way desirable. Buy an excursion ticket to Southern Pines, but do not forget to write in advance to Pine Woods Inn for your accommodations. 126

MONTAGUE.

Mr. Editor: Just please stop telling yarns in your paper about the people over here. There didn't anybody faint, nobody was yanked into another room, no drove of constables has been together. So just please let us alone.

Please tell us: Does the law of the State of Pennsylvania allow every body who sees fits to carry concealed weapons? Answer here. (Answering legal questions usually cost something but as this may be a matter of general interest and public safety we reply. It is a misdemeanor for any person in this State to carry concealed deadly weapons with the intent therewith unlawfully and maliciously to do injury to any other person. ED. PIRKES.)

Frank is happy over that girl. In last weeks item the name of Brink should have been Peach, who rented the A. A. Van Anken farm.

I will try and let Uncle Sam know when we have a caucus over here so he can come and get a taste of Montague Politics. Authorities tell us that the present township committee will hold office until March 24.

Is it any wonder you hear so much about a cold, etc. Here we've had cold weather, sleighing, rain, mud, a breakup in the Delaware all within a week. If those sudden changes continue they will be too much for the. NATL. KEG.

GREELEY.

The death of W. V. Burcher which occurred here Jan. 20th was sad news to our community. He was only sick one week, but that dread disease, pneumonia, work with fatal rapidity. Mr. Burcher was born near Narrowsburg, Wayne Co., in 1838 and spent the majority of his life on a farm here. About fifteen years ago he came here and established a lumber manufacturing plant which has greatly aided our town.

He leaves a wife, one son H. M., of Middletown N. Y.; a brother John L., of Honesdale and one sister Lila, of Narrowsburg.

Sheriff E. Vandermarck was at Greentown on business last week, as also was Warren McKean.

A very successful term of school, with Miss Carrie W. Dewitt teacher, closed here last week. We hope she may teach next term in a new school house. The school at McKean Valley also closed last week.

Several from this vicinity were drawn as jurors for March term.

Rain last week ended with an inch of snow, but the sleighing is gone. UNCLE SAM.

Railroading Patents.

A single firm of Patent Lawyers, C. A. Snow & Co., of Washington, D. C., have in the last year procured 1,630 patents for their clients, many of them for rejected inventions. C. A. Snow & Co. have been accused of railroading patents through the Patent Office, but they insist that this locomotion is better than ot-carrying them for by the latter process the inventor often dies before he gets his patent.

DINGMANS.

Do not eat pearls before swine is the advice of the good Book. A merchant in this town collected, by subscription, about $500 for a distressed family, paid it over and they spent it with an opposition to.

Will Hornbeck's new boarding house be a fine addition to our town. Gus Middaugh owns the champion fox dog in Delaware.

James Babcock, who was burned out Jan. 24 has moved into the McMurry house. Chicken thieves seem to be very alert. J. C. Titman recently lost nearly $5, D. V. Jagers, D. Simpson a number and others also complain of losses.

The new Prizes devil pulled through his first attempt in very good shape. No doubt he will improve and the Prizes will make him a genius.

Reeder Morgan, our butcher, means business next summer. He has gathered a mountain of ice from the Ever Green farm.

A few shabby ties are being gotten, on the tract Yetter out over last winter. The Methodists held a social at J. C. Titmans last Friday.

Some people will persist in building their chicken house on stilts allowing the cold to keep the inmates uncomfortable when a war in bottom on which to search and wallow is what they need.

The Democrats kicked because there was much surplus in the U. S. treasury, and now they want to kick the treasurer out because he kept three millions out.

The Prizes and Uncle Sam seem to be liberal in consolation for Sanny. That good fish may be left in the sea is true, and it may be a blessing to have lost one, but consider the cost of hooking another.

Shop are a paying industry, but not indulged in here because of the lack of fences, and the meanness of neighbors who object to having their crops eaten up by others flocks.

A sandy loam which will grow cabbage will also grow tobacco by the addition of a fork full of well rotted manure and a few ashes, and a little salt-petre. Newly-arrived farmer could raise all aquired for his own use, and save a lot of half dimes. Most of the boughten is nothing but stems.

Lumbering in the back woods is brisk this winter. Town people have taken advantage of the low to fill their houses. Van Etten Bros. have their new ice house completed and filled.

Five cows were bought here last fall, because of the low prices offered. Buyers thought on account of the shortness of fodder farmers must sell but they have managed to keep their cattle so the early spring buyers will have a good selection.

Too fat chickens will not lay. It is said the Democratic ring in the County is likely to break.

BUSHKILL.

Bushkill and Pine Ridge Schools are rejoicing over a library of thirty new books, that have been sent to them by a reading club of Philadelphia Pa., through the influence of Miss E. F. Elder, who was a boarder at the Peters. Home last summer. The object of this Club was to send out good books to some farming districts where the children and parents have no access to a public library. We think the Club has done a very commendable act, and that these books will create a taste for good reading and higher ideals in many of the homes here, also bring with them a great deal of real pleasure and a sunshine that many homes would not enjoy, if they had to buy their books.

And how we do hope all who take these books will be very careful of them so they will be fit to pass on to the next hand when they have been read here.

We wish to thank Mrs. Ella N. Gullot and Mrs. Moses Nyce, for covering and numbering each volume; these estimable ladies send no children to school, yet take a great interest in the welfare of others.

Allen Brown and wife of Dingmans spent Sunday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson. Mrs. Dickinson has been on the sick list the past week, but is some better at this writing.

Hemlock Grove school which is a few miles above Bushkill is closed on account of sickness, one or two cases of scarlet fever.

There is a great deal of sickness in this locality just at present.

Samuel Litts and Miss Katie M. Heater were married at Port Jervis on January 15th. Both of these young people are well known here, and their friends wish for them a bright and prosperous future.

Fishing parties are all the go just now; great quantities of fine pickerel are caught at Mink's pond every day.

Geo. Arust his son Harry and Chris. Cober spent a few days in Port Jervis last week, as guests of Ira Aust.

"I am indebted to one minute cough cure for my health and life. It cured me of lung trouble following grippe." Thousands owe their lives to the prompt action of this never failing remedy. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results.

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says, "Kodol dyspepsia cure did me more good than anything I ever took. It digests what you eat and can not help but cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles."
