THE BOROUGH ELECTION.

The thoughtful men of the borough, and those whose pockets have been depleted by reckless contracts, took a hand in the election Tuesday. The result was a forgone conclusion the moment the tickets were nominsted. It is no sense to be attributed to a change from Demoeratic to Republican only so far as the latter were wise enough to put in nomination, for the important offices on the ticket, men who commanded the confidence of taxpayers. and who could be relied on to exercise caution and discretion in the management of public affairs. Dearocratic pockets are just as sensitive to the touch of the tax collector as are those of the Republicans and it was the feeling of constriction and squeeze which constrained their owners to join in reversing the usual order of things, and put a touch of some other color than green on the borough landscape We congratulate the people on this awakening and hope that it is the dawn of that good era when a party name in local affairs will no longer be a shibboleth to election without regard to
