SANDYSTON.

Mrs. Flora Rosenkrantz, wife of John V. Rosenkrantz, of this town died on Thursday last after a brief illness of about one week. Aged about 44 years. She was a devoted worker in Church and Sunday School work, and in the family circle loving and kind mother. She will be missed everywhere. She leaves a husband and four children, the oldest aged 16 and the youngest 4 years of age.

Eliza H. Smith of Havans died on the 24th inst, aged about 75 years. For many years Mr. Smith had been almost helpless and was tenderly cared for by the son and daughter at home. By strict attention to business he acquired a neat fortune. He leaves two children Jacob and Anna, Mary at home, and a third Amanda wife of S. E.
Hush of Hainesville, who died in November last.

Tom Lantz is enjoying a brief vacation at home, and will return to his school at Stroudsburg this week.

Mrs. Jas. B. Youngs, an aged resident of Hainesville is very sick, and as she has always enjoyed excellent health up to the present time, there are grave doubts of recovery.

Jimmy Sholl attending school at Blair Hall is spending a short vacation with his parents returning to his studies this week.

Sussex County has made application for state aid for the building of 10 miles of Mc Adam road, and the number of miles for which state aid has been asked for, is 20 miles. Verily Jersey Hill has good roads in the near future.

Our township fathers met on Saturday and appointed the necessary money for keeping in repair the different districts of road in this town. Some of the roads are badly washed and needed more money than last year, but the committee didn't see that way, consequently some of the overseers refused to accept the order. Five hundred dollars was given to the main road with Henry Steffen a overseer, and its too bad to cut off the side roads, so that the money is insufficient to keep them in decent order. So, we will wait for the autumn and for another year, for instead of three committees we have only one. The main road can be worked for $100 less than the side roads, and this would help the side roads greatly.

It is with pleasure that I notice that one of our Committees while in Newton, expressed himself as strongly in favor of good roads, and that of course means state aid.
The state generally appropriated $200,000 and if any township needed good roads Sandyston is that one. Will the members of the Board hold up his hands, like Joshua of old until good stone roads are secured, but don't stop the sun as Joshua did.

This week has brought sorrow to the homes of many, for death is no respecter of persons. A little child of Edward Con-kling of Hainesville, was buried at Layton on Sunday aged 4 months, making 3 funerals here within as many days.

Warm weather is almost here, and work at putting the Dingman new iron bridge will soon commence.

The Rebecca Hornbeck farm was recently sold by order of the Court and was purchased by John V. Major for $60 dollars.
The farm contains about 100 acres and is nicely situated on the Big Flatbrook.

Signers on a petition for license to maintain a hotel at Nonanock have been secured by the new proprietor Mr. McNoelle, and this town will have an additional hotel, if granted.

Speaking of watering troughs, I do not know of a better place for one than at the spring in Culvers Gap. If any one will start the project, money can easily be had to pay for it.

On Sunday about noon the dwelling of Jacob Conkling, situated east of Hainesville along the mountain, was destroyed by fire.
Mr. Conkling was away, as I was told, and only the children were at home. House and contents went up in smoke. Mr. Con-kling is a poor man, and much sympathy is felt for his great loss.

I hear there is to be a meeting of the officials and stockholders of the Creamery on Thursday of this week. It is earnestly hoped that besides the regular 2 and other members of manager, that some plan can be worked out, so that the venture may be a success. All pull together and the thing can be worked.

Adin Yansick is thoroughly over hank-ing the house recently purchased of A. S.
Stell. The main house is being raised to two stories, and will make a fine home when fully completed.

By the will of the late Francis Layton his wife is given her thirds of his estate, and the remainder will go to his brothers and sisters and their heirs. Kuzma Major is made executor.

The vendors of Shay J. Vanness at the Hainesville hotel the past week was largely attended, and the articles offered for sale brought good prices. I have not heard what Mr. Vanness will do, as the hotel is rented to Manning Hotalen, who will take charge of it April 1st.

The biggest fight for the position of school trustee that we have had in years was had at our last election on the 20 inst. Two candidates, Rev. Brink and James Stordell were nominated for Trustees Corner school.
The former rode the township and aroused his friends by public stirring of the recent faction fight, and barely pulled through by a majority of two, and two votes was all he got in that school district. It is strange that patrons of our schools would vote for a man who neglects his duties, and the crematory will stand still with their money in it.

The Collector for the Creamery funds is here, and the Stockholders are saying him their subscriptions without a murmur, although the crematory will not be run this year, for there are no cows to run it. Everybody was eager for it at one time, but now they will make their own butter, and the crematory will stand still with their money in it.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Mrs. Doris Dalrymple and two children of Hainesville N. J. is visiting at Centre at her parents D. V. Jagger and wife.

Warren Hunt had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last week.

Charles Benschler holds the record for cow shooting, nine in one shot. He will move to New Jersey Saturday and we are sorry to part with so good a citizen.

Miss Mary Kolber of Coles spent Sunday with her aunt Mrs. D. O. B. on head G. W. Donahon of Acaburgh farm expects to erect a new tenant house this spring. Wm. Trohls will do the carpentery work.

Mrs. Samuel Hunt of Edgemore is quite ill.

James Babcock has rented the farm owned by Mrs. Jessie Gilmore.

Geo. Jagger of Centre expects to move in C. F. Boshers house this spring.

Mrs. Sarah Oldfield of Centre made a business trip to Milford Saturday.

John Emery will move to New Jersey Saturday.

John Smith's Sawmill is running on full time now with C. W. Smith and Hester Angle as sawyers.

FROM ASSOCIATE CORRESPONDENT.

The people of Milford have a good list of officials. Every class well represented and capable of looking after the interests of the town in all its departments.

Mr. Reid—him of Philadelphia and washing time in the millstones ought to have their safes well protected. Fifty dollar bills, will build railroads if they are lost but were any left in your town.

The tax payers woke up after perusing the Auditors settlement and found themselves in debt to the tune of $93 with nothing to show for it but a lot of torn up roads.
Our county commissioners left as a good debt to pay, but we find substantial ridges in good repair to show for part of it.

The man who went to a lacesmith shop for his clothes and to a tailor for his shoes should be called foolish yet we elect men to office on that principle.

The New Jersey law compelling inspection of cattle, will be a failure in providing prerequisites for politicians. Cow buyers cannot afford to pay the cost, and few come over here. That state is right in protecting her farmers, but the cost should come out of a general fund.

The Delaware bridge will soon be a reality the foundations are ready for the superstructure.

Rates have been run from this place already this spring.

Geo. Westbrook and lady of Beachville N. Y. lately spent a week with the family of H. B. VanAuken.

If J. B. Westbrook is a candidate for representative, and is elected, no doubt he will do as well or even better than his predecessors.

Farmers here are having bad luck with young pigs and lambs.

Miss Louise Jagger of Milford after a two weeks visit with relations here and Brookhill has returned home.

Wm. Retalle and wife are rejoicing over the advent of a young son. CESHAN.

LEDGEDALE.

Thomas H. Simons and wife are visiting friends in Matamoras.

Mrs. J. Wesley Robinson visited Mrs. Mark Gilpin last Saturday.

Charlie Afford, Anthony Bloss and Clare Frisbie were guests of Brink Hill friends on Sunday.

William Brame who works for Charles Frisbie is sick.

The Ladies' Aid, of Simonstown, met with Mrs. Agnes Hopp March 16th. Next meeting will be at Mrs.
J. Wesley Robinsons March 29th.

There will be a box social at the old school house Friday evening Mich 30th. Proceeds for benefit our Pastor Rev. Wm. Rawlings.

Sleighting, mud and Sunshine.
Who will say that March is not full of changes.

The loveliest village in the valley does not seem to be perfect by any means. At least it got a slight rebuke (but apparently well deserved) last Sunday evening. Those who listened to the sermon preached by Mr. Neff in the M. E. church know to what I refer.

Lots of money available: Just so but where was it last Saturday?
When the township committee were unable to pay a few bills.

Timothy Shay is the chairman and James Dutton the treasurer of the new committee. The following are appointed Road overseers for the coming year, and the amounts allocated each District:

The newly elected officers were sworn in gave bonds, etc.

Molly is on the sick list.

How about those borrowed pants?
Something closely resembling meades is making life very unpleasant for some at present.

At the last meeting of the L. A. S. of the RFD church Mrs. Alice Van Auker was appointed sexton for the new church and the compensation fixed at twenty-six dollars per year.

Hon. Jacob Swartout, of Wantage, was over here the other day and purchased a yoke of oxen of Frank Black.

Those who leave or have left Mon-tagne this spring are George L. Hornbeck to Port Jervis, the Misses Mary and Maria Kite to Newton and H.
Ludwig to Milford. DICK.

Steve Bennett is again in our town.
Come to gladden the hearts of his old acquaintances. We were informed sometime ago that Steve had experienced religion but refused to be immersed fearing that water would not be a proper liquid to make him forget his wickedness. He never-dial cared much for water any more than Steve and we don't see that his religious experience has hurt him a bit.
