SANDYSTON.

William Moore an aged veteran of the Civil War was found dead in his bed on Sunday morning. For a year or so past he had lived alone at Tatle Corner and had been in poor health for some time. He was about 70 years of age.

Theodore Siglar of Hainesville went to work for his son-in-law Mark Utter on Monday last. Soon after getting there he felt sick and went to bed. He rapidly grew worse dying on Friday aged about 52 years. He leaves a wife and several children.

A wire was run by the Sussex Company to the hotel of J. A. Westbrook at Bevans connecting with their wire running from Layton to Dingmans. The Walpack people will probably have a wire from Flatbrookville to connect at Bevans, and once up they would not do without it.

The city fisherman sojourning at the Flatbrook Fish Club find it pretty cool fishing, and the majority of them will not come out until warmer weather.

"Eck" Black in the employ of Peter Brink and while assisting in the morning on April 21 complained of not feeling well. He started, it is supposed, to go to James Sylock where he usually made his home, but upon reaching 7th Moors near Fatties Corner he was compelled to go to bed. Peritonitis set in and he grew worse until death terminated his terrible sufferings on Thursday. He was unable to talk to be understood yet every one had a kindly feeling and was for him. Aged 65 years.

On all railroads that I ever rode over the D. L. and W. R. R. takes the cake for a long time getting to destination. On a recent trip to N. Y. I left Branchville at 3:45 P. M. laid over an hour at Waterloo, finally reaching New York at bed time. Returning left Hoboken at 7:40 and reached Branchville a few minutes after 11 o'clock. The run should be made in one half of the time.

The residence of Daniel Carmer, one mile west of Hainesville, was burned to the ground on Sunday morning, the fire originating from the chimney. Mr. Isaac Lawson occupied the house with Mr. Carmer and he lost almost every thing. Insured in Sussex Mutual.

Admiral Dewey has made up his mind that the position he now holds is not at the top and comes out for the Presidency. I wouldn't mind having that position for 4 years, along with the pickings, but I fear the Admirals chance will be like mine, mighty slim. The people honor him for what he has done, and opinion says that is enough. Bryan is the boy.

There is an unusual amount of sickness in this community and in most cases it is of a serious nature. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Utter are seriously ill. John Sailer is on the sick list. Mrs. Wm. Smith, of Bevans, I am glad to note is improving, and a number of others are under medical treatment. Sickness is pretty general all over the county, and I am told while I am writing this, that there are 5 dead now lying in Lafayette township.

The Creamery officials met on Saturday last and had the preliminary papers made out for incorporating, under the name of "Silver Spring Creamery." They intend trying to start the creamery on or about May 1st if all will pull together it can be done, but standing with the hands in the pocket won't do it.

The little son of Edward Layton went to the Club House one day last week and upon being ordered away refused to go. J. J. VanSickle led the little fellow off the premises, whereupon he was arrested on a charge of assault and battery. At the hearing before Eq. Fuller on Saturday he was discharged, as the boy was not hurt.

Our roads have been unusually good this spring, but in crossing the mountain near Martin Clifford the road is almost impassable on account of chockholes.

Objections were made to the license of H. E. Montross of Layton and a hearing will be had at Newton on Tuesday of this week. Objection was also made against J. A. Westbrook, of Bevans, but as no one appeared against him, his was granted.

Free to Inventors.
The experience of C. A. Snow & Co. in obtaining more than 20,000 patents for inventors has enabled them to helpfully answer many questions relating to the protection of intellectual property. This they have done in a pamphlet treating briefly of United States and foreign patents, with cost of same, and how to procure them; trade marks, designs, copyrights, infringements, decisions in leading patents, etc., etc. This pamphlet will be sent free to anyone writing to C. A. Snow & Co., Washington, D. C.

MONTAGUE.

Does a woman take her husband's name after marriage? One often reads items which if a dog could see a man, would make him feel ashamed. When you read of one neighbor calling at the home of another, or a little circumstance occur at a month ago which is of no interest to anybody, the poor Editor is imposed on.

Daniel Prestmore started out of the eddy with several vicrats Sunday morning.

Cider, whiskey and fudge mixed together are liable to make trouble.

Poor Eck Black well known around Hainesville died at the home of E. Moore near To-tis Corner Thursday morning of appendicitis.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

If farmers have a spare piece of seed don't forget to allow it up early put in some muscans, hare, or fine and sow turnip seed, yellow Aberdeen is good. The cows will need them before August.

The bars club of Montague having disbanded some of the members seem to have strayed over here, and they tell us the price to examine cattle in N. J. ranges from 50 cents to $1 or $1 a day for a herd.

James Babcock will work the Gilmore farm this Summer.

Three cows were recently sold here to go across the river.

Farmers are complaining because the Egypt creamery which does so well last summer must reduce the price of cream in order to compete with others.

The rafts have been going down, and many are ready for the next frosh.

The Summer resorts are being renovated in anticipation of a good season.

March, this year came in and went out blowing hard. That thin and lamb talk is a fact.

Dr. Fulmer who fell and dislocated his shoulder a few days ago is around again. It is said it was the first time in his life that he was obliged to call in a physician to cure for him.

Some of those who have cows for sale here, if not yet disposed of, see Chas. Parsons, Geo. Snyder, Joseph Canoe, David Cron, Mrs. H. Snyder.

Pity cows are not fit to eat they are so numerous along the river.

The effect of the drouth last Summer can be seen on cattle this Spring. They do not look so well as usual at this time.

We missed Boy last week. It is reported that Alano Cron will remove to Dunmore this Spring.

There are people so high toned that they do not know how small they look trying to make others believe it.

Our stores are doing a flourishing trade in ties.

The Dan Midgland wood tract sold for $20 and parties are after the two tracts of the J. B. VanAuker east on the hill, to obtain the ties on them.

John Smiths saw mill turns out some very fine lumber.

Gilbert Hunter who has been sick and is now in a precarious condition.

Several parties have been held around here recently.

We can hardly imagine our feelings when the new bridge is completed. I may afford opportunity to start a house-keeping and cooking school with a singing school adjacent. CASAR.

WOODTOWN.

Len Watson visited here over Sunday. Several attended the dance at Tom McKittrick's from this place. They report an enjoyable time.

The cutters in the Standard Blue Stone Co.'s employ went on a wild strike last week, their grievance being that the company exacted too much work on work by the foot. The men claim it is impossible to work up twenty-inch curb at seven cents a foot and make wages. The company orders the outer or inner side fine axed for ten to six as well as the top or beveled edge.

The little god of love has been out on a round-up and has corralled Chas. Bradford and Miss Grace Byrnes, who have agreed to receive the brand of matrimony. Here's luck!

Tom Bradford arrived home last Sunday with a powerful team of geldings, which he purchased in Jersey City. They should prove serviceable animals. Mr. Bradford's pilgrimage to a city horse mart seemed quite devils to my neighbors, who paid back the purchase of a useless span. This prejudice against city sales is foolish. Mr. Bradford says Pike County beats Jersey ten to one.
