All Around the County.

SANDYSTON.

Layton had a lively time one day last week when one of our citizens had a genuine San Juan charge made upon him. Whether it was the effect of Layton water or spirit Frumentil I have not learned, but the citizen is alive yet.

W. F. Rosencrans merchant, at Layton, went to the city last week to purchase goods and in a few days will have them open for public inspection and purchase.

The Reformed church people at Beavans will hold childrens day on Sunday June 10. If the program is carried through, as selected, it will be worth going miles to see. This church always scores a success in such observances, and this will be no exception.

The workman for the building of the new iron bridge at Dingman came on Friday last and work will begin at once. Common laborers are needed but it is doubtful if they can secure all the men they will need.

Anson P. Rosencrans, of Stillwater, visited his son Elijah Saturday last. Mr. R. is a wonderfully well preserved man for one of his years. In conversation with the writer he remarked that he was in his 75th year.

Frank Simpson has his new barn enclosed and when completed will have as cozy a set of buildings as any one in town.

Director E. W. McGawn, of the New Jersey weather Bureau, was in Sandyston one day last week, and set up a rain gauge and maximum and minimum thermometer at the residence of George E. Hersh. Mr. Hersh is therefore the most Northern observer of the weather service in the State. The instruments are very handsome and of the finest workmanship.

Children's Day will be held in the Layton M. E. church on the evening of June 17. It was proposed to hold it at an earlier date but the exhibition of the Layton public school was thought to be in the way.

The other night in passing the Silver spring, I noticed that swallows were nesting in the smoke-stack I guess they are safe from fire or smoke for some time to come.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Sussex County Agricultural society will be held in Stivers Hall, Branchville on Saturday June 2. It is a subject of vital interest to the farmer, and every one who can possibly should take his wife along and attend this meeting. Mr. Norman Hall will read a paper on injurious insects, F. C. Roe will talk on farming in Wisconsin, Geo. E. Hersh on the breeding and raising of poultry, and A. N. Roe will give his views on the feeding of the dairy cow. Other practical farmers will take part, and taken altogether should prove of practical benefit to the farmers.

KIMBLES.

E. Kimble and wife, of Lackawaxen, were in town Monday.

David Lits, G. W. Kimble and R. W. Kelley attended the memorial services at the Methodist church at Hawley Sunday evening.

The Sabbath school collection for the India famine fund May 13th amounted to $3.21.

Lucy Rowland, of Hawley, is spending a week with her grandmother Mrs. J. F. Decker.

Lara Kelley and Delle Pierson visited friends in Honesdale recently.

If surveying will bring a railroad we will soon have one.

We organized our Sunday school R. W. Kelley Superintendent, G. W. Kimble assistant, Mrs. George Porrington secretary and treasurer, Lara Kelly organist.

WOODTOWN.

Mr. Kopple, who purchased the Stuebendorff place between the ponds will erect a house there very shortly.

Miss Hattie Bradford and brother called on Walker Lake friends Sunday.

W. Gordon Parker visited in Lackawaxen Sunday.

There is a surprising crop of chipmunks this year. The frisky little woodlanders are a pretty sight.

Charles Curry has not been so well this spring as formerly. The fishing on the ponds has been very poor, the water being too cold.

Pain Unnecessary in Childbirth.
Pain is no longer necessary in childbirth—moving sickness, swollen limbs, and like evils, are readily controlled, and diseases speedily cured. Never known to fail. Physicians pronounce it wonderful, and over 50,000 ladies attest its merits. Lady reader, cut this out; it may save your life; suffer no longer, but send us 25 cents and receive in sealed envelope full particulars, and valuable proofs of our wonderful remedy. Address Frank Thomas & Co., Baltimore, Md.
