THE WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 18, 1900.

President McKinley has devoted a considerable portion of his office hours for the last two or three days to receiving delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, who stopped over in Washington to pay their respects to the President, and incidentally to talk a little politics and give him the news. Mr. McKinley never appears to better advantage than when in contact with the rank and file of the party. Other Presidents have had a knack of appearing to consult humble members of their party, but Mr. McKinley really does consult them and ask their advice upon matters of party policy, and more than one important political move has been made by him as the result of advice asked for and received from members of the party who are scarcely known outside of the immediate locality of their homes. It is because he realizes that a man doesn't have to be prominent to have good judgment that President McKinley is so well liked by the rank and file of the party.

The situation in China grows worse instead of better, and it may become necessary for this government to send soldiers from the Philippines to properly protect the American interests in China. The break in telegraphic communication with Peking has resulted in the circulation of many sensational stories, which may or may not be based upon truth. The administration has not the slightest desire to meddle with China, but it intends to protect our large and increasing commercial interests in that country at all hazards.

An official statement prepared at the Treasury Department shows that during the first three months of the new financial year, there have been 362 applications for authority to organize National Banks, with a total capitalization of $16,194,000, 280 of which were for banks of $50,000 or less capital. During this period, 169 National banks, with a combined capital of $8,645,000 have been actually organized and open for business with an increase of $51,997,910, in National Bank circulation. If proof were needed of the wisdom of the National Banking clause of the new financial law, it would be these figures, showing the quickness of the people to recognize the benefits open to them by a provision for National banks with less than $50,000 capital.

Senor Nicholas Rivero, editor of the leading Havana paper, who is now in Washington, pays this high compliment to Gen. Leonard Wood, Military Governor of Cuba: "Gen. Wood is an honest and wise official and is doing all he can to give the Cubans a good administration."

Mr. James J. Walton, of Idaho, stopped long enough in Washington to give his ideas for the political outlook in his state. He said: "Idaho will go Republican this year. We lost the state four years ago by nearly 20,000, but the elections of the last two years brought that majority down considerably, and we think that this year we will again get control of the state. McKinley and prosperity are responsible. We have not had such prosperous times in ten years past, and as we are experiencing day-to-day. We are rapidly developing our industries. Our people are paying off their debts. We are too well off to think of making a change. We are satisfied with the present state of affairs. McKinley and prosperity are much better than Bryan and demoralization."

Although farmers in all sections of the country are prosperous, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee have undertaken to convince them that they are not. The Committee actually puts out a claim that the farmers have lost two billions of dollars under the McKinley administration by the decline in prices of farm products. The farmer who remembers that he was heavily in debt when the Cleveland administration closed, and who is now out of debt and has a balance to his credit in bank, will be convinced by this sort of literature that the correct reading of the signs should be "Figures can lie," especially when manipulated by those who care nothing for facts. The republicans might find it good politics to aid in getting this sort of Democratic literature into the hands of prosperous farmers.

The Home of the Bank.
The committee appointed to select a room for the new bank has arranged to place it in a part of the store of T. Armstrong & Co. A partition will be erected and the door nearest Catharine street will be the entrance. This will make one of the finest places in town, light, cheerful and centrally located. The stock is over subscribed and there is now no obstacle to the complete success of this enterprise which no doubt will receive the support of our business men and will withal be a great convenience to the people of Milford and the surrounding country.

Seven Years in Exile.
"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. S. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Only 50c at all drug stores.

Free to Inventors.
The experience of C. A. Snow & Co., in obtaining more than 20,000 patents for inventors has enabled them to helpfully answer many questions relating to the protection of intellectual property. This they have done in a pamphlet treating briefly of United States and foreign patents, with cost of same, and how to procure them; trade marks, designs, caveats, infringements, decisions in leading patent cases, etc., etc. This pamphlet will be sent free to anyone writing to C. A. Snow & Co., Washington, D. C.
Small in size and great in results are DeWitt's little early risers, the famous little pills that cleanse the liver and bowels. They do not gripe.

BRIEF MENTION.

This weather is fine for farmers. The Court House roof is being repainted.
The exterior of the Presbyterian church is being refreshed with paint.
George H. Robinson was appointed by the Court, tax collector of Palmyra.
The Episcopal Sunday school held its annual picnic yesterday in Cumming's Grove.
Henry Gotley, charged with assault on his wife gave bail last week and was released from jail.
Some fifty Indian horses were brought to town yesterday and a few sales made at prices from $40 to $80.
C. Lattimore was re-appointed Post Master at Milford last week and has filed his bonds with the department.
Metz Brothers finding their well deficient in a supply of water for their Hotel are tapping the mains of the Water Co.

John C. Beck made an unfortunate mistake Tuesday while on his farm and severely sprained his right ankle. He will probably be confined to the house several days.
J. C. Bull is building a new camp on his farm in Milford Twp. to accommodate the boys brought by Rev. F. Gardner, of Yates Institute at Lancaster Pa., for summer outing.
Ohio's Republican attorney general is engaged in the prosecution of the trusts and New York City's Democratic officials are striving to shield them. Here is another illustration of the difference in methods.
Blooming Grove township has considerably increased in population; in 1890 there were 351 and there are now 446 inhabitants a gain of 95, should other townships show a corresponding gain the population of the county will be over ten thousand.

The Misses Etta and Hattie Decker were elected last Sunday by the Presbyterian Sabbath school delegates to the county Sunday school convention which meets at Lackawaxen June 26, and Miss Ann Baker and Miss Hattie Horton were elected alternates.
We are pleased to announce that Rev. C. E. Scudder of the M. E. church here, will regularly contribute to the Press items of interest to members of that denomination as well as topics of general interest to the religious world. These will be read with pleasure and profit by all.
The marriage of Mrs. H. G. Williamson, well known in social and church circles here, and Arthur Roe, of Brantford, N. J., will occur at the residence of her father, ex-Prothonotary John C. Westbrook, Wednesday, June 27, in the presence of relatives and a few invited guests.
Subscriptions to the stock of the First National Bank of Milford are being paid in, and enquiries are being made for more stock. President Wm. Mitchell and Cashier Robert W. Reed were in New York a day this week to examine safes and a large, burglar proof, modern one will be purchased.
The firm of Buckley & Co., in Lowell Wash., of which Joseph A., who last spring removed from Delaware Twp., is a member, his sons being the others, issues a neat little leaflet called the store keeper which advertises their wares. It looks as though they kept a little something of everything and have a large stock of goods.
Mrs. Anira C., widow of the late Eli P. Farnum, of Port Jervis, died at her home Tuesday evening after a long illness. She was born in Baltimore Sept 2, 1843, and was a daughter of Rev. Michael Dunn. Early in life her mother dying she became an inmate in the family of Hon. Frances Martin, whose wife was a cousin, and so remained until her marriage in 1867. Her husband died in 1895. Two children George Francis and Lillian Hixman survive. The funeral will take place to-day at 2 p. m.

Raymondskill Falls will not be closed to the public Sundays as has been announced. There are many who are confined at home or at work during the week and have no time for driving other than Sundays. It was on reflection thought to be a hardship to exclude such on that day from viewing one of the grandest sights nature has bestowed in this valley. There can be no harm in a quiet visit to such a scene of beauty and one may be led on holding them to look up from Nature to Nature's God.

Free Pictures Every Week.
The appreciation of the recent pictures given free to readers of the great "Philadelphia Sunday Press" has induced the management of that paper to announce that a beautiful picture will be given with every copy of the "Philadelphia Sunday Press" every Sunday. The picture for next Sunday, June 24, will be a decided novelty. It will be 14x20 inches in size and its prominent feature will be a reproduction of Percy Moran's famous water color, "The Ideal Summer Girl." Everybody knows Moran and his Summer girls, so that this picture is certain to be immensely popular. It will have added value to the fact that in one corner will appear an artistic calendar for July, something that every body will prize. It will be well to order next Sunday's "Press" early.

Republican Convention.

There was no question as to the nomination of President McKinley that matter having been long ago fully settled, but the contest, over the candidate for Vice President while earnest and divided with several available names was not acrimonious. The prevailing idea seemed to be to select a statesman of acknowledged ability and availability, and, with the number who fairly met these requirements it became also a question as to who would be strongest in New York and the west. The sentiment for Governor Roosevelt, of New York, grew strong, and had he consented to allow the use of his name the matter would have been determined in advance. He halted but finally the pressure became so strong that he was compelled to yield whereupon all of the candidates withdrew and both McKinley and Roosevelt were nominated by acclamation.
The platform adopted embodies the following leading points. A lessening of war taxes which bear on the masses. Legislation to foster trade in the far East and maintain the open door.
Laws to prevent monopolies urged and combinations to control prices condemned.
A steadfast adherence to the "Monroe Doctrine."
Independence and self government will be given Cuba as promised.
The largest measure of self government for the Philippines consistent with their welfare and our duties.
The construction of the Isthmus canal and control by the government.
Attempts to nullify franchise on account of color called revolution and condemned.
The platform is invincible and with the men upon it will sweep the country.

Neglect is the short step so many take from a cough or cold to consumption. The early use of one minute cough cure prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures all throat and lung troubles. Children all like it and mothers endorse it.
The Chinese ask "how is your liver?" instead of "how do you do?" for when the liver is active the health is good. DeWitt's little early risers are famous little pills for the liver and bowels.

Col. Peach, ye noted fisherman, of Hainesville, captured a bass the other day which tipped the scales at 3 lbs. 2 oz.
The waterman of the Milford Water Co. is being extended to the residence of Metz Bros.
According to the "Sunsex Register" of last week Shoemakers grist mill at Bushkill burned on March 5 1873. Insurance $2,000. A policy of $3,000 had expired three weeks previously and had not been renewed.
I understand that George A. Clark the only republican Freeholder Montague Twp. has elected within the memory of some of the oldest voters over there has been awarded the contract to build the reservoir for the Matamoras Water Co. From what we know of George the Co. will be assured of a good job when completed.
So far three candidates for Representative have announced themselves. That may be all, but it may be that the woods are full of them.
City people are coming slow. There are accommodations for about one thousand in our town and the different boarding houses near by.
John McCarty believes in the saying "Let thy light shine." Our street lamps have received a thorough cleaning.
A large congregation listened to the Rev. C. E. Scudder Sunday evening. Mr. Scudder took for his text the words, Gather the fragments, so none may be lost. Next Sunday evening he will preach from the text, "What the Church owes to the business man" and on the Sunday evening following "What the business man owes to the church."

So the Boxers are making things lively over in China. Well within a few days when Uncle Sam can get a few of his boxers within gun shot of them, things may be lively for some of the boxers, and there will be a demand for colored paper, fried chicken etc, which seems to be essential to Chinese funerals.
James B. Kerr of Newark N. J. was a caller in town Monday. Mr. Kerr is a son of Mrs. Julia Kerr the proprietor of the well known Riverside House in Montague.
Old hay is getting scarce and is retailing for twenty dollars per ton, the highest price known for years. This is good far those who have it to sell but hard on the buyer. The outlook for a full new crop is not very encouraging especially on upland. Some farmers to make up the deficiency have planted an extra lot of fodder corn.
New potatoes have never been as cheap for the time of year as now. They can be bought for one dollar per bushel.
Those who have the rabbit farm near Tuttle's corner say it is a place worth going miles to see. How is the Pike County skunk farm prospering.
