An unselfish division of labor—'Mike' and 'Jake' each trying to carry the largest part of the Democratic vote.

Will those Democrats who gaged at 16 to 1 four years ago now be able to swallow the dose because it is sandwiched between imperialism and free trade?

Years ago childhood troubles were confined mainly to the rule of three, factions, and the names of towns in Michigan; recently we had to master Spanish, then names in South Africa and now comes the Chinese difficulty. Who would not like to be a child again?

The Lansford Record says Mr. Barber has little respect for the intelligence of Democrats when he circulates the story that Carbon county will not secure the Congressional nomination unless he gets it. The Congressman sizes up the intelligence of his constituents very fairly for he has been 'it.'

Even the dormant conscience of modern Democracy forbids the party leaders to appeal to the shades of Jackson and Jefferson for endorsement of their present vagaries.

No national ticket ever nominated gave more general satisfaction to its party and more trouble to its opponents than the one named by the Philadelphia convention.

In the interest of our expanding commerce we recommend that Congress create a Department of Commerce and Industries, in the charge of a Secretary with a seat in the Cabinet.—Republican platform.

Wheat is getting near the dollar mark again. Silver stands still, and even corn is worth nearly as much now as an ounce of silver.

The increase in the foreign trade of the United States during the fiscal year just closed, as compared with the previous year, will probably aggregate over three hundred millions of dollars—so far the greatest in our history—and yet the proportion of our trade carried in American vessels was the lowest of any previous year.

Under the operation of the Wilson free trade tariff for revenue only, there was a deficit of $108,000,000 in thirty-five months. Under the Dingley tariff for protection there was a surplus of $46,000,000 in thirty-two months.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. C. E. Scudder, Pastor. SUNDAY SERVICES. Class Meeting - 9.30. Preaching - 10.30. Sunday School - 11.45. Epworth League - 6.45. Preaching - 7.30. WEEK-DAY SERVICES. Prayer Meeting Wed - 7.30. Class Meeting Fri - 7.30.

CHURCH NOTES.

No age has been more strenuous in its demand for evidences of the truth of Christianity than the present. Our subject for next Sunday morning is 'A tangible religion.'

The topic for our Epworth League service next Sunday evening is 'How mission work will gain success.' The following important factors: 1st, everyone should be convinced that he has a mission. 2nd, That his mission extends beyond himself; that it is unselfish and world-wide. 3rd, That this mission seems small it is an important factor in a great movement, the greatest work ever undertaken by man; the redemption of the world.

We were glad to see a number of strangers at our church last sabbath evening. We are always pleased to shake hands with our listeners. Let there be no haste to leave the church stay and give us a personal chance to welcome you. Our subject for next Sunday night is, 'An ancient and great revival.'

A NOBLE SAILOR. The death of Admiral Philip at the Brooklyn Navy Yard June 30 was a great shock to thousands of people throughout the land, who, whether personally acquainted with him or not, hold him in high esteem.

He entered the Naval Academy in 1856, and his first assignment after his graduation was to the Constitution as a midshipman. He was in active service throughout the civil war, and later passed through the various grades of the service, and upon the breaking out of the war with Spain he had reached the grade of captain and was in charge of the Texas. His part in the battle of Santiago in which Cervera's squadron was utterly destroyed is well known, and it will ever be to his honor that when Cervera's ships and men were being destroyed and our men were jubilant, he said to his men, 'Don't cheer, boys; the poor fellows are dying.' His memory will be kept fragrant, also, because after the battle on July 3, 1898 he ordered all hands on deck and, lifting his hat, said reverently: 'I want to make public acknowledgment here that I believe in God the Father Almighty. I want all you officers and men to lift your hats, and from your hearts offer silent thanks to the Almighty.' He was buried at Annapolis on the second anniversary of the famous battle of Santiago.

CON'T GRUMBLE. If life has not gone well with us, if fortune has left us disconsolate, if love has grown cold and we sit by the embers, if life has become to us a valley of desolation through which weary limbs must drag an unwilling body till the end shall come, let us not radiate such an atmosphere to those around us; let us not take strangers through the catacombs of our life and show the bones of our dead past; let us not pass our cup of sorrow to others, but if we must drink it, let us take it as Socrates did his poison hemlock—grandy, heroically and uncomplainingly.

Heralding White Flags. A flag of truce is usually heralded by a trumpet sounding to arrest enemy's attention. On permission to pass being given the party is blindfolded and led to the commander of the outposts.

Troubles of a Minister.

To benefit others Rev. J. T. W. Vernon, of Hartwell, Ga., writes: 'For a long time I had a running sore on my leg. I tried many remedies without benefit, until I used a bottle of Electric Bitters and a box of Buckle's Arnica Salvo, which cured me sound and well.' Sores, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum show impure blood. Thousands have found in Electric Bitters a grand blood purifier that absolutely cures these troubles. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded by all druggists. Large bottles only 50c.

GOLD-PLATED TEETH.

A Fireman Had Every Tooth in His Jaw Treated.

Bad teeth are common among Americans, due, the physiologists say, to our habit of eating bread made of bulled flour. Among American firemen are no many with soft teeth as in any other occupation, but as they are more exposed to the causes of neuralgia, their teeth should receive careful attention. Fire Chief George Hale, of Kansas City, is a man who thinks. He is the inventor of the swinging harness used by fire companies all over the world, and of the water tower.

He took a fire company to the big London tournament a few years ago and astonished the greatest fire chiefs in the world by taking prizes right and left, and beating all previous records in hitching, running, coupling and wall scaling.

Chief Hale insists that the men in his department keep their teeth in good condition as an aid to health. For years he suffered greatly from neuralgia in his teeth every time he went to a fire and got wet. His teeth were apparently sound, but very soft. After trying in many ways to prevent it, and receiving much fruitless advice from dentists, he conceived the idea of having his teeth gold-plated.

He came to New York and secured the services of a competent dentist. A mold was made of each tooth separately and a small cap made. The cap was of fine gold sixty-eight one-hundredths of an inch thick. This cap was hammered on the tooth well up under the gum and fitted it exactly. The base of the cap was thicker on the biting or grinding surface than on the back or front. Thus was every tooth in his jaw treated, and he has never suffered from neuralgia since. Chief Hale's teeth glister and flash when he talks or laughs, and the effect is not exactly ornamental, but the gold plating serves its purpose.

Tommy's Lunch.

Uncle (who left his nephew "refreshing" himself): "Well, Tommy, you see I'm back; are you ready? What have I to pay, miss?" Waitress: "Three buns, four sponge cakes, two sandwiches, one jelly, five tarts, and—"

Uncle: "Good gracious, boy! Are you not ill?" Tommy: "No, uncle; but I'm very thirsty."—Tit-Bits.

In Ohio the birds have found an unexpected friend. Fishermen on the Lake Erie shore say that if it were not for the gulls eating the dead fish that float on the lake and are washed ashore every day, the water would soon become so contaminated that fish could not live in it. For this reason an effort is being made to pass a law forbidding the slaughter of sea gulls on Lake Erie shore.

American Products.

Consul James Boyle, writing from Liverpool under the date of February 15, says there have recently been a number of communications and articles in the Liverpool papers drawing attention to the fact that American manufactures, particularly in specialties, had been accepted by English purchasers in preference to those of home production, the reason given being that the American goods were better made and handier than the home goods and were fully as cheap. Of late, there has been a tendency on the part of English critics to claim that American manufactures were preferred simply because they were cheap, and it was often added they were "nasty" as well as cheap. The statements referred to at the commencement of this report refute this criticism, and American manufacturers can now find plenty of champions in England who base their support on the ground of actual superiority, both of workmanship and adaptability.
