Paw—Conscience, my son, is something that we always think should bother the other fellow.

"Is that shortcake?" "Certainly," replied the landlady, and somewhat severely added, "Did you expect it to have a label on?" "No but I was told I would recognize it by a bright red strawberry mark.
Where's the mark?"

SANDYSTON.

The harvest of this year is very good and has been got in good order.
Haying is now being pushed and this week will see the most of that safely housed. The drought now upon us has affected the crop to some extent but the yield is better than was anticipated. Oats never looked better but the potato yield will be affected by the blight and drought.

Mrs. Minnie Smith, wife of John Smith, of Layton, died on Saturday noon after a brief illness of 4 weeks.
Aged about 24 years. Hopes of recovery were not entertained from the first attack and she gradually sank until death ensued as above stated. She is survived by her husband and two small children.

The workmen on the new bridge are busy painting the iron work, planking and filling in the approaches. A toll house will have to be built at the Jersey end of the bridge upon the site of the old one and the public will soon have a chance to cross the river without the dread of the ferry.

The barn of Isaac Stoll on his home farm was burned one night last week. The first he knew it was when he visited his farm to work on Saturday. Insured in the Readington, of N. J.

Rumor has it that the creamery at Bevans may be started provided a certain amount of milk can be secured. A good many would be glad to see it started and I hope some one will take hold and make it a success. But as most of the milk and butter, in this section, has been engaged for this year it is doubtful about opening it this season. If some one will take hold of it next year there is no doubt about getting the necessary milk.

Walter Drake has taken a position at the High Falls Hotel at Dingmans and entered upon his duties last week.

Mrs. Abbie Warner, of Hainesville, is reported very ill.

A change in the arrival and departure of the mail from Layton took place on Wednesday last. The mail from Milford arrives here at 8:20 and returning from Branchville gets here at 1:30 p. m. or 1 1/2 hours earlier. Formerly it took two days to get a letter to Port Jervis under the present arrangement our mail connects at Milford and goes straight through the same day. Now if we could only get rural delivery, and a railroad but we must not ask for too much.

In the early summer the berry patch of C. A. Dairymple near Tuttles Corner promised an immense yield of fruit but I regret to say that the blight has struck the vines, and may seriously affect what promised so much to Mr. D.

It was my pleasure to hear Prof.
F. K. Pine, of Pine Bush, N. Y., on Sunday last on the organ and violin.
He with his violin and assistant at the organ made music that was a delight to hear. The Professor is a thorough musician, and in repairing or renovating pianos or organs knows his business as the writer can testify.

Pensioners who are addicted to having a good time after quarterly payment will take heed of the recent order issued by the Department that examiners here after report all such to be dropped from the rolls.
In fact pensioners making nuisances of themselves in any way are liable to be dropped and under present circumstances it is difficult to get reinstated.

Parties using live bait must avoid the using of small carp for that purpose as the bait sometimes wiggles off and thus stocks the waters with this objectionable fish. This law is no good for the fish is now everywhere and in our local ponds carp of large size are being shot for that is about the only way to get them.

The barn built to replace the one burned on the farm J. J. Vansickle, is now ready for use and 44 tons of hay are already stored in one of its bays. It has the greatest capacity of any barn hereabouts.

F. Lester VanEster and family, of New York city, are spending their annual vacation visiting relatives in this valley. He is a sampler in the Custom House.

The Misses Kruse, of New York, are spending a few weeks at Walter Vetterlein's. It speaks well for Paupac that they have spent every summer for the last seventeen years in this place.

Miss Annabern Kimble, of Hawley, attended the party held at Walter Vetterlein's last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schlager and Minnie Smith, of Hawley, and Ed.
Bittenbender, of Scranton, were visitors in town, Sunday.

Samuel Edgar and son, are spending a few at the home of B. F. Killam.

A party was held at the home of Henry Gumble last week. A very pleasant evening was passed. Music was furnished by the Singer band.
The older folks who found it too warm for the dance passed their time on the piazza where they pronounced it very cool and refreshing and the young men who had previously waited so sorrowfully concerning their dryness had no cause for complaint.

A party was also given at Walter Vetterlein's last Wednesday evening.
It was very largely attended, and was a complete success. Music furnished by the local talent. All present enjoyed themselves greatly.
It did seem unfair of the young couple who monopolized the hammock for the greater part of the evening, but then perhaps they forgot that there might be others.

Our summer resort—Big Pond has become quite famous. There are at present quite a number of campers on its shores. The merchant princes and nabobs, of Hawley and other cities are well represented and are having a good time generally.

A number of our citizens attended the laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church, at Hawley, on Sunday. DEFACTO.
