How the doctrine of hate was reached in human experience is shown in the spiritual development of St. Paul. This question will be treated by the pastor next Sabbath morning.

It is rumored that the next annual conference will be held in Newark. The camp meeting is a time honored institution of Methodism. It has been, and in many sections still is, a great source of quickened spiritual life, Camp Tabor witnessed a scene of unusual interest last week Monday and Tuesday when the gospel temperance meetings were held. The first address was given by John G Wooley, who plead for a higher type of manhood in politics. He was followed by Dr. Crane who urged the necessity in following Christ in all reform work, who was nimself a reformer socially intellectnally, morally and politically.

It was a great pleasure to great ourfriends at the Epworth Langue Rolly on Friday and Saturday. The present pastor and W. R. Neff, the former paster, were among the speakers. W. C. Kin ey gave his very helpful address on "The Epworthian Four-square." Instruction and inspiration characterized the day.

We extend a hearty invitation to all to attend our Quarterly Temperance meeting next Sabbath evening at 7 p. m. It has been said that whenever a Methodist went into a town that there entered an enemy of the saloon. If this statement is not literally true it ought to be.
