STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

East Stroudsburg, Pa.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS POPULAR INSTITUTION OPENS SEPTEMBER 4, 1906.
This Practical Training School for teachers is situated on the main line of the D. L. & W. R. R. in East Stroudsburg, Pa. In the midst of the great resorts of Monroe county. Seven departments and courses. Excellent facilities, strong faculty, high standard maintained. Pupils coached free. Classes not overcrowded. No extra charge made. It costs you $22 less per year. We paid all the state aid to pupils, the only school that did this for the spring term. In seven years we have not had a single case of sickness. Eloquent, College Preparatory, Normal, Clay Modeling, Pastel, etc., without extra charges. We secure positions for our graduates.
For full particulars, catalogue and prospectus free, address

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

An epidemic of diarrhoea resembling dysentery has prevailed in this section for some time which is attributed to the water, the supply of which is not improved.

Considering the dry weather the rye crop looks fairly well.

Little interest is manifested in politics here. There is no abuse of candidates, and Jake being satisfied after defeating Lynn does not worry about the result so the contest has no disagreeable features.

The fence club at a recent meeting concluded that the crops have been poor here every year for the past five. If this keeps on we will have a famine.

Talk has been revived about a mail route from here to Branchville. It might pay once or twice a week, with the parcels, as there seems to be considerable travel which would no doubt increase.

George Snyder has a contract to build an enclosing wall with turrets around the club house at Silver Lake also a wall 200 feet long with two turrets at the lake front.

We noticed the ad of Kane the shoe man of Port Jervis and saw he had left off the scare crow he had on his cards. But we observe that Johnson, fitter of feet, no longer advertises. He must have to go some other place for which we are sorry for we always found him a good man to deal with and his goods just as represented.

Mr. Angle candidate for representative has been sailing on his friends in this section. He proposes if elected to serve the people by consulting their interests, and endeavoring to procure such legislation as will benefit his constituents. He will be with the majority party and it is natural to assume that he can control legislation in our interests far better than his opponent who will be in the minority. Our only hope in having any benefit from legislation lies in electing a man who will be able to do something with the majority in the House.

The church column greatly interests many Press readers. We hear very few guns hereabouts, squirrels, quail and other game seems to have gone to that happy land, the pot.

We can find no one willing to bet on Bryan. His admirers are not whooping him up. They seem to have lost all confidence in his election.

It is cheering to learn that the railroad project has been revived. It has taken 60 years to get it to Rosas farm, and at this rate it will reach us—some time.

We had a very interesting Republican meeting here last Thursday and listened with pleasure to the speeches of our candidate for Congress Russell C. Stewart and Ex-Congressman Kirkpatrick. They made a very favorable impression and gained votes for the ticket. Mr. Stewart is an able man and if elected, as we think he will be, will represent this district in a fitting manner. He has industry, capacity and determination all of which qualities eminently fit him for the position, and will make him a useful man for his party and his constituents.
C. ESAR.

People here are complaining about the lack of storms in this section, but we had a genuine north easter last Sunday when J. B. Westbrook was up on the hill electioneering, at least he thought he was taking the place by storm. If he has no more regard for Sabbath than he has for the promises he made E. P. Peters, he has very little, and such disregard will not make votes.

The Bethlehem Star, Matchler's paper, says there is no disaffection among Democrats over his candidacy in any of the counties. We do not believe all Democrats are dissemblers and there are a few at least who have expressed dissent at his nomination.

A large barn on the farm owned by Mrs. Shannon formerly known as the Irish place about one mile from town was burned Wednesday evening. The building was erected by the late Henry S. Mott when he owned the place the work being done by J. C. Chamberlain. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was an insurance of $400.

We respectfully ask our readers this week, after they have perused the Press, to hand it to some neighbor, who might be interested in its contents. We want to do all the missionary work possible and to that end ask you to aid in disseminating such information as the voters of this district should have.

Club Rooms Open.
The Republican club room in the Newman building, on lower Broad street, is open every week day evening. The regular meetings of the club are held Tuesday evenings and all in sympathy with the teachings of the party are cordially invited to drop in at any time. Plenty of good reading for free distribution.

THE LAST FARRAGUT VETERAN.
Fought With the Old Admiral at Mobile Bay.

Timothy Murray, chief master-at-arms on the United States ship Pennsylvania, now stationed off the Pacific coast, is the only enlisted man now in the naval service who was with Farragut's fleet during the civil war.

He is not quite fifty years of age. Born in Ireland on November 4, 1850, he ran away to sea at the age of twelve. Only a year later he enlisted in the United States Navy at Boston as a second-class boy, serving at first on the United States frigate Niagara, and after December, 1863, on the flagship Hartford.

He has a keen remembrance of Farragut at the battle of Mobile Bay on August 5, 1864.

"When the squadron started up the bay," he says, "the old Admiral was in the port main rigging with a rope around his waist, so that he could lean over and see what the fleet were doing. At the moment the Brooklyn ran aground Captain Allen sang out 'Torpedoes ahead!' It was then the Admiral used the famous words: 'Torpedoes be damned! Give her four bells!'"

"During the entire action in the bay the Admiral was sometimes on the poop and sometimes in the mizzen rigging. He was, I assure you, a busy man."

"That he was in constant danger is evident when you remember that the Hartford lost twenty-seven killed and twenty-five wounded. Only three of the officers who were on the ship that day remain in the service—General Heywood, now commanding the Marine Corps; Admiral Watson, then a lieutenant, and Captain Whiting, then an ensign."

A well defined movement is on foot, inaugurated by the proprietors of the big department stores, to have the government issue a new coin of the denomination of half-cent. Signatures to document setting forth the need of such a coin have been secured from prominent retail merchants of Philadelphia, and other cities have also become interested.

Don't Get Thin
Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness. Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself. But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the subtlest of helps. It is food, the easiest food in the world; it is more than food, it helps you digest your food, and get more nutriment from it.

Don't get thin, there is safety in plumpness. Man woman and child.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will convince you.
