THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democratic managers played a rather shrewd ticket last Saturday night. Realizing that the speeches would probably do them more harm than good they winced the orators by the long march previous to the meeting.

Had Mr. Matchler been present he would no doubt have fully entered into the details of the method by which he secured the conferees from Pike. He would have told how anxious they were for harmony how they deprecated delay and possible friction in making a nomination.

When the Barret Bridge Co. asked assent of our legislature to the act incorporating it in New York state a provision was drawn and handed to the Democratic member from this county by which it was provided that no greater tolls should be charged than had been charged on the Erie bridge.

the people had the satisfaction of knowing that they were regular in voting the Democratic ticket of which Westfall township should be especially proud as she gave 49 majority out of 107 votes cast. It is a late hour to remedy this matter but the only hope in so doing lies in electing a man who will be with the majority. Do you want the effort made? Your votes will answer the question.

The stock of Westbrooks is large enough to supply the profitable offices of the county with incumbents for the next fifty years. All they ask is that you keep regular and vote the Democratic tickets and they will furnish the timber to order.

Bryan's electioneering profits do not depend on the success of his canvass.

The Lincoln candidate can now commence to sharpen his pencil and get ready to write "The Second Battle, or How It Happened."

The positive certainty of Republican success is now assured and it is only a question of the size of the majorities that will be given for sound government.

The campaign is over. The long roll has sounded; the bugles have fallen into line, touched elbows and wait with eager impatience to charge the enemy and route them.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions.

What's Your Face Worth. Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin, all signs of Liver Trouble.
