J. H. Van Etten, PUBLISHER, Milford, Pike County, Pa.

The bog of militarism has been drowned.

Now let every one feel happy. The country is assured of prosperity.

We have a President in whom the people have confidence and they have said so.

The spot is still green. The compulsory education law has not yet had time to produce its inevitable effect.

Bryan is right in his past election conclusion that there was too much prosperity in the country for him to overcome with his calumny talk.

The fall dinner pail was an irrefutable argument.

Mr. Mitchell may have trouble in carrying out the promises made to secure his nomination and election.

If parties took nothing more substantial than promises they may learn just how invigorating and sustaining hot air is for the system.

The combination, Mc and Bryan, was badly shattered and the divorce will be very unhappy for the broad expecting a share of benefits.

The Quay or anti Quay question did not enter into the contest here.

All good Republicans worked and voted for the straight ticket and in one township only does it appear that there was disaffection.

There the ticket for representative was out and while the total result was not changed it merely shows the ingratitude of a man after being kept in office by the party for nine years.

The election means an endorsement of McKinley's administration by many Democrats as well as Republicans.

The flag will continue to float in the Philippines and the Americans will govern the islands in their own way.

Free coinage of silver is dead. It will never be resurrected.

The trusts are not menaces to public interests but are conditions growing out of industrial conditions.

James Meddlesome Bensley, of Lehman in the recent campaign, turned out it is reported to be an active anti Quay man, and, whenever advisable used the argument that Anglie fleeced would go into the caucus and vote for the Ex-Senator and for this reason he should be defeated.

This is a new departure for the ex-county commissioner but the vote in his township would seem to indicate that some one had a knife out for Mr. Angle and used it freely.

THROAT REST

You can cough yourself into bronchitis, pneumonia, and consumption. Bandaging and bundling your throat will do no good.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Even the cough of early consumption is cured. And, later on, when the disease is firmly fixed, you can bring rest and comfort in every case.

CHURCH NOTES

Revival meetings will be continued at Union next week.

The proceeds of our organ recital were $21. Thanks to all contributors.

We desire also to extend our thanks to Mrs. von der Heyde who so kindly added us and to Mrs. Thomas Armstrong for her help at our rehearsals in preparations for Monday night.

I wish also to extend my personal thanks as pastor to all members of the choir.

The committee appointed to select a Christmas service has chosen "The Dawn of Peace." This reminds us that the year 1900 is fast passing away.

May the new year and the new century be to us all a "Dawn of Peace."

The special services held at Seioeope, laid the foundation for Christian work in the future.

Those who came to the point of a Christian profession did so after deep conviction and thoughtful prayer.

This is as it should be. May the number be large this year who thus find Christ.

The subjects for next Sabbath are as follows. In the morning "Drawing near to God" and in the evening "Seeking the Kingdom."

Let us not forget to pray for divine guidance in our coming revival services.

They will begin Nov. 27, at our home field. This will be thanksgiving week and a good time for the church to show its spirit of thanksgiving by special effort in behalf of the unsaved.

Effort is not to be very becoming for you, who have received all your life and have given nothing in return to give yourselves as a thanksgiving offering.

Millions Given Away. It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern which is not afraid to be generous.

The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of hopeless cases.

Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe and all Throat, Chest and Lung disease are surely cured by it. Call on all Druggists, and get a free trial bottle.

Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes, "I am using kodal dyspepsia or in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy."

Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of kodal dyspepsia cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach.

Gives instant relief and a permanent cure.

SUPPLY OF SHINGLES.

It Comes Largely From New Brunswick and Quebec.

Formerly all shingles made in the East were split from blocks and shaved by hand with a draw-knife.

Those used in Maine, New Hampshire and part of Massachusetts were pine or shaved cedar, sixteen inches long. In other states eighteen inch shingles were used.

In the shingle machines then made the saw struck the bolt at the end, making a lengthwise of the block. This made a rough surface on the shingles, which was said to hold the water and made them rot quickly.

In 1865 there began to come into use machines made in Gardner and Bangor, Me., which cut the block on the side instead of the end.

The shingles sawed in this way had a surface almost as smooth as if shaved, and were of the same thickness.

These machines caused a revolution in the manufacture of shingles. As the demand increased and cedar became scarce in southern Maine, manufacturers began to move toward the great northern forests.

The Phoenix mill, in Fredericton, New Brunswick, was changed from a long lumber mill and sixteen machines were put in that cut 224,000 shingles a day.

In 1888 this mill passed into the hands of an American company from Canada, which erected a mill in Edinboro, New Brunswick, with seven machines.

The logs for the Phoenix mill are cut in Aroostook county, Me., and driven down the St. John River.

In May, 1888, the first shingle mill in northern New Brunswick sawing for the American market began operating at Dalhousie.

The owner now has mills at Cabano and Notre Dame du Lac, in Quebec.

The cedar forests remaining in this part of the continent are in Aroostook county, Me., the northern counties of New Brunswick, and the counties of New Brunswick, Rimouski, Bonaventure and Gaspé, in Quebec.

Here cedar grows large, and there are more trees to the acre than further south.

It is found on the high land as well as in the swamps. In Nova Scotia cedar does not grow.

In southern New Brunswick there is not enough left to supply the for the local roads. The locations named are the last of the cedar forests, and these are being rapidly denuded to supply shingles and railroad ties, and in a few years all will be cut.

Good cedar lands should soon become valuable, as the area is so limited.

The low price of sixteen inch shingles has caused them to be used in New York, where formerly only in Vermont, Connecticut and northern New York, where formerly only eighteen inch ones were sold.

All the large mills near Rimouski, Quebec, except the new one at Cabano, are owned by Americans.—N. Y. Press.

"Long Tom," the now celebrated Beer gun, is capable of throwing a shot a distance of six miles with fair precision.
