SANDYSTON.

The hill by Centerville church has been lowered over one half by digging away the bank in front of the church and scraping the dirt into the hollow. The appearance of the grounds about the church are much improved, and more solid to do so, and may be, later on.

For sometime some of our scholars have been out of coal and had to fall back on wood, but coal is being delivered much to the delight of the teachers.

I was wrongly informed as to the dance on Friday last. It was at the residence of Charles Bensley, at Beavans, and although not largely attended all voted it a good time. The one to be given on this Friday night will at Mrs. Little's and if all attend that are in receipt of an invitation it will be a hummer.

While our Board of Education are supplying our schools with new books, will the Board take a look at the school grounds. Every school house in this town sits within a few feet of the road, and if the children wish to play they have to play in the road. A patron of the Layton school will give 25 dollars at any time toward the removal of the school house, (say 200 feet back) and grading of the grounds. This will look much better, and give the pupils more room for play. Will the Board take action in this matter?

Eston O. Van Sickle, of this place departed this (Monday) morning for Philadelphia. He may stay a fortnight or longer.

An election for Trustees for the M. E. church at Layton will be held in the church on Thursday afternoon December 6th.

Two cows of Alfred Ellett were attacked by a neighbors hog and so badly hurt that one of them may die. Both were gored by the tusks of the hog. An animal of that kind should not be allowed to run at large.

The game of checkers is attracting the attention of several of our young men and one party has learned the game so well that his opponent must be wide-awake to reach the king row.

Our mills are at a stand still, so far as steady grinding goes, and it is hoped that this steady drizzle of today (Sunday) may develop into a good soaking rain.

I do not hear of any great bags of game being taken, but almost every hunter gets some game, and quite often it is a very small some, too. As much game is caught in traps as there is shot of the rabbits.

Little Edith Carhoff, daughter of Ellis Carhoff, has been brought home from the hospital in New York. While she is not well there is hope of ultimate recovery.

J. V. Major, the veteran sharp shooter of this town, has decided to raffle off his rifle. The tickets are about sold and every holder of a ticket is earnestly hoping that his will take the gun and I am hoping the same for my ticket.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. Kate Irvin, of Brooklyn, is a visitor with the family of G. H. Langton.

J. O. Ryder and family passed last Sunday with his brother at Pond Eddy.

A phanton social under the auspices of Epworth church took place Tuesday evening at the home of Robert Skinner.

The L. A. S. of Epworth church met this week with Mrs. Chas. Lord on Cookson street.

Mrs. A. J. Demorest and daughter Jennie, of Paterson, are guests of Mrs. Alfred Billman.

The L. C. U. of Hope church met this week at Mrs. H. Soybois on Adams street.

Mrs. J. L. Wilkin, son, Donald, and daughter Silvia, returned from Otisville Thursday after a weeks visit at that place.

Loren Langton, of New York is at home here for a few days.

Calvin Langton, who is in the insurance business in New York, will remove his wife to the city for the winter. His home here is now being occupied by Mrs. Westfall and family.

Miss Hattie Allen returned home Saturday after a visit at Middletown N. Y.

The ladies of St. Josephs church are busy this week making preparations for the fair to be held this week at Lackawaxen. There will be an entertainment also and the boy orator Jerome Guerin will recite.
The high school closed this week for two days on account of Thanksgiving.

S. Krauter and wife, of Owego, arrived Thursday evening and are guests with ex-sheriff H. I. Corright's family. Mr. Krauter was formerly with Carley and Terwilliger, of Port Jervis and his wife is a sister of Mrs. Corright.

Wedding bells rang Wednesday at the home of E. Shay when his son, in was married.

KIMBLES.

Minnie Daniels, of Singing N. Y., returned home after spending a week with her parents Lot Daniels and wife.

Foley Edwards, of Broba, and Asa Tyler, of Rowlands, have moved here and will occupy two of Miles Rowland houses.

El. Malone and Irvin Dawitt have returned from a ten days hunt about Shohola Falls, the former, and party got six and the latter and party got four deer.

Mrs. George Kimble and Lizzie Calkins spent last Friday at Honesdale.

Dellie Pierson has returned from a two weeks visit at Scranton.

Rev. C. E. Scudder is drilling a large class on a sacred cantata which it is expected will be given some time during the holidays. These meetings afford an excellent opportunity for musical culture of a high order and are of great benefit to the community in improving a taste for a class of music which has, to some extent at least, been sadly encroached on by the frivolous and nonsensical songs which are quite notaly in vogue.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes, "I am using kodol dyspepsia cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of kodol dyspepsia cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

OBITUARY.

DANIEL D. ROSENCRANS.
After an illness of one week of pneumonia, Mr. Rosencrans died at his home in Delaware township last Sunday evening. He was a son of Simon and Mary (Van Etten) Rosencrans and was born on the farm on which he always lived and where he died Jan. 23, 1830. He was well known in that as well as this community and was a man of energetic purpose, industrious in habits, careful and prudent in business and of congenial spirit making many friends. He was a devoted admirer of good horses and during his lifetime owned several of value. Nov. 11 1862 he enlisted in the 18 Penna. Cavalry and was sergeant of Co. M and participated in several battles, notably those of Winchester and Gettysburg. He was captured at Hagerstown and after three months incarceration at Belle Isle was exchanged and rejoined his regiment, serving until honorably discharged at the close of the war. He had some narrow escapes having had several horses shot from under him but fortunately was never wounded. He was estranged by his fellow citizens with several local offices all of which he filled with credit and satisfaction. Jan. 17 1866 he married Abby H. Nichols of Newark, N. J., who with four daughters, Ida, of New York, Mary wife of Arthur Gaung, of Rock Island Co. Ill., Clara wife of Henry J. Stanley, of Newark and Phoebe, and two sons Frank and Solomon at home survive. One sister Cornelia, widow of Major William J. Schoonover of Bushkill, of a large family of brothers and sisters also survives.

The funeral took place Wednesday from the Reformed church at Dingmans and interment in the cemetery there.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their expressions of sympathy and many acts of kindness during the late illness and at the death of our husband and father, Daniel D. Rosencrans.

Mrs. Abby H. Rosencrans and family.

JOHN CHURCH CORNELIUS.
As briefly announced in the Press last week Mr. Cornelius died at Kansas city, Mo., early last Friday morning. He had been for some weeks in a hospital there suffering with typhoid fever, from which he was apparently recovering, when pneumonia developed, added to this was a heart difficulty with which he had for some time been affected and the end came swiftly.

Encouraging reports had been received of his condition which allayed the fears of his family and they did not start for his bedside until last Wednesday night when his wife and sister left but unfortunately too late.

He was born in Milford December 8, 1871 and was a son of William and Maggie Church, Cornelius. He grew up in this place and several years ago became connected with a school of instruction for railroad men since which time he has been traveling over the country in that employment. He developed an aptness for the business and was very successful in its pursuit. In 1894 he married Mrs. Amy Payne, of Texas, who with an infant son survives him. He is also survived by his mother and two sisters, Bettie, of this Borough, and Annie wife of Frank Hallert. The remains were brought here Monday and the funeral held Wednesday afternoon from the Sawkill House. Interment in Milford cemetery.

MRS. MARGERY HISSAM.
After an illness of some months Mrs. Hissam relict of the late John C., who she married July 4, 1860, died at the home of her son Lucian B. on Water street last Saturday morning aged nearly sixty-three years. She was a daughter of James J. and Melissa Barnhardt VanAnken who were residents of Shohola township, this county.

She is survived by three daughters, Grace wife of Clovis Leroaux, of Flatbush, L. I., Lizzie wife of Lafayette Lettimore, Kate wife of Wm. McCown and two sons Lucian B. and John C., all of this Borough and two brothers, Samuel L., of Lackawaxen, and Abraham of Goddefroy, N. Y. The funeral was held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon and interment in the Milford cemetery.

MRS. WARREN C. RAUB.
Died Nov. 22 at her home in St. Louis Mrs. Lizzie J. wife of Warren C. Raub formerly of this place. She was eldest daughter of Hon. George Geyer, now of Matamoras, and was born in Dingmans township in 1863. She married Mr. Raub in 1882 and two years later removed to St. Louis where they have since resided.

Besides her husband she is survived by three children, Alice M., Warren C. and Florence J. her parents and one sister, Mrs. Fred J. Sawyer, of Matamoras, one brother, George J. and a sister, Mrs. George Rudolph, of Newark, N. J.
