T. Armstrong & Co.,

Successors to BROWN & ARMSTRONG.

We offer a line of new Spring Goods, UNSURPASSED AND COMPLETE. Our point is that you need not go away from home to supply all your needs, or to secure bargains. We expect to satisfy you in both particulars. DRY GOODS, new and stylish. GROCERIES, fresh and good. HARDWARE, BOOTS, SHOES, AND CLOTHING. Any thing in any line at bottom prices. To accomplish this end we have adopted a new system. All our prices are fixed on a basis of cash payment. This obviates the necessity to allow a margin for bad debts and interest. To accommodate responsible parties we cheerfully open monthly accounts, and expect prompt payment monthly, as our prices will not enable us to carry accounts longer. Statements rendered the first of every month, and if paid within three days from date of bill, a cash discount of 2% is allowed. The same discounts given on all cash purchases exceeding $1.00. Goods sent out will be C. O. D. unless otherwise previously arranged.

It costs 7 cents in print and mail each copy. We want you to have one. SEND FIFTEEN CENTS to show your good faith, and we'll send you a copy FREE, with all charges prepaid.

POPULAR ISM.

Parson Good—Morain', deacon; I trust I isn't atheism that is keeping you away from church? Deacon Sly—No, parson; it is rheumatism.—Chicago Chronicle.

An Exception. A fool and his money soon parted? That may be the general rule, but what of the grasping old miser? He's surely one kind of a fool.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Still in the Violent Stage. Mrs. Sciddon-Holme—Yes, it's frightful to see how bold the thieves and burglars have become. I understand your husband is mourning the loss of a fine gold watch some fellow stole from him yesterday. Mrs. Gofrequent—No, he hasn't reached the mourning stage yet. He's still swearing.—Chicago Tribune.

Too Eloquent. "That man Wixford, who was injured in a railway accident, sued the company for $20,000 damages and pleaded his own case so ably and powerfully that he lost it." "How was that?" "The injury for which he wanted damages was a broken jaw."—Chicago Tribune.

What Ailed Them. Mrs. Upton—Who are those men staggering along? Mr. Upton—Mr. Richmann and his coachman, Mike. "What is the matter with them?" "Mr. Richmann has evidently been dining, and Mike has been drinking."—N. Y. Weekly.

An Unpleasant Disposition. "I shall not pay any attention to your fault finding," said Mrs. Sline Barker. "I'll take into consideration the fact that you are dyspeptic and forbear." "Very well; but at the same time don't overlook the fact that there's many a true word spoken in indignation."—Washington Star.

Science is Wonderful. "Do you believe there is really anything in phrenology?" "I do. I had my head examined by a phrenologist once, and the moment he came to my first lump he told me that my wife used an old-fashioned rolling-pin."—Tit-Bits.

A Dental Want. "There is just one thing needed to make my business a success," said the painless dentist. "What is that?" asked the interested listener. "A shameless patient."—Baltimore American.

Too Much to Expect. "Poetry," said the editor, "is a drug on the market." "Oh, indeed," exclaimed the poet, hopefully, "am I to infer that you pay drugstore prices for it?"—Philadelphia Press.

He Rises in Her Estimation. Mrs. Newwicks—Did you know that Washington was the richest American of his day? Mrs. Newwicks—Dear me! I'm afraid I didn't fully appreciate him!—Puck.

Values of Masts. Mrs. Maternal—I am sorry you are going back to Germany. Had I not better get another music teacher for my daughter? Prof. Von Note—Id est not necessary. She knows enough music to get married to.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Base Calumny. Mrs. Mannigan—Oh hear that strapping Mrs. O'Rourke riles her husband with a rod of iron. Mrs. Mannigan—She do not; she told me herself that all she uses on him is a rolling-pin.—Brooklyn Life.

Judging by Appearances. Dyer—That is, that is, he is a prissy clerk who undertakes to support a wife on a salary of $5 a week.—Chicago Daily News.

Look for the Warning.

Heart disease kills suddenly, but never without warning. The warnings may be faint and brief, or may be startling and extend over many years, but they are none the less certain and positive. Too often the victim is deceived by the thought, "It will pass away." Alas, it never passes away voluntarily. Once installed, heart disease never gets better of itself. If Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is used in the early stages recovery is absolutely certain in every case where its use is persisted in.

"For many years I was a great sufferer from heart disease before I finally found relief. I was subject to fainting and sinking spells, fullness about the heart, and was unable to attend to my household duties. I tried nearly every remedy that was recommended to me and doctored with the leading physicians of this section but obtained no help until I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took."

Mrs. ANNA HOLLOWAY, Geneva, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee. Write for free advice and booklet to Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
