LAWLESS ACTS.

The saloon smashing of Mrs. Nation and her allies are lawless acts and as such provoke lawlessness on the part of others. There is no valid reason why the proper authorities of Kansas, and elsewhere, should not suppress illegal traffic in liquor and punish violators of the law.

If the laws of Kansas cannot, because of laxity in those charged with their execution, be enforced the citizens should select as officials men who will do their duty or else repeal the laws and pass others which will be on a level with the general moral sentiment.

A lot of fellows went to bed Tuesday night feeling sore in their bones, just as if they had a touch of grip. In this green spot they were mostly Republicans who took the quinine, while the Democrats took the joyful wash.

take course in engineering and technology here.

The Grangers are protesting against a road law introduced in the Legislature which places the roads under control of the State Board of Agriculture and provides for the appointment of a road engineer in each county.

They are in quite a racket at Harrisburg over various bills which the dominant faction is trying to force through. The ripper is making considerable disturbance and a bitter fight is on over its passage.

The project for a driving park at Milford is being vigorously pushed, notice is now given of application to incorporate. Great oaks from Little acorns grow and this may be the tiny sprout which, in time, may shelter a Pike county agricultural fair.

There is a rather persistent and apparently well founded rumor around the Capitol that, owing to the large total of appropriations for the Fifty-Sixth Congress, no bills providing for public buildings will be allowed to go through at this session.

Arrangements have been made with the Rev. T. H. Mackenzie, pastor of the Reformed church of Port Jervis, to give our young people an address on the religious life of Washington. In connection with the address we will have a half-hour musical. The date fixed for the entertainment is March 12, two weeks from next Tuesday.

There will be preaching at Shocopee next Sabbath afternoon.

The death of Mr. Cortwright has taken from us one of the elder, and most respected citizens. A deep sense of honor and honesty in relation to his fellow men, and the final yielding of himself to the call of the Divine; these are the monitor lights that we will cherish, of him that has gone.

STARVED. Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life. It is starved. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear, then actual baldness. The only good hair food you can buy is—AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table. It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."
