A GENEROUS GIFT.

Andrew Carnegie has offered Port Jervis $20,000 for a new Library building, provided the town will furnish a site and pledge $3,000 s year for its maintenance. This places our neighbor in a very envi able position and already steps have been taken to secure the munificen donation. Under the act of 189 school directors are authorized to es tablish free public libraries in school districts, to set aside buildings fo that purpose and to levy a tax to to maintain it, and to receive gifts The third in the series of Lenten endowments etc., free from tax for services will be held on Wednesday these purposes.
