CORRESPONDENCE.

SANDYSTON.

The surest indication of spring is in hearing the familiar clink of the quills on the village green. Many signs are apt to fail, but you can gamble on the fact that spring is surely here when that "clink, clink" is heard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tisdell, wife of Richard Tisdell of Sparrowbush, died at that place on the 18th inst. She was a daughter of Nicholas Tillman, deceased, of this town, and of his family of nine children this is the second death, Albert dying at Port Jervis on Jan. 2 and Elizabeth as above stated. One of her brothers, Alfred, resides in this town and another, Nicholas, resides in Walpack. Deceased was 72 years of age.

Dr. Hughes drives over about as many miles of road as any man in the Delaware valley, and it is no more than natural that he should be a lover of good roads. He has had the road near his residence filled in with stone, thus raising the road quite two feet, the township agreeing to cover the stone with gravel, and when completed will be a good job. Would that there were more men in this township as public-spirited as the doctor.

Rambler, in last week's Press, asks, "Will Sandyston ever get quieted down?" I rise to remark that Sandyston should not think of quiet or security as long as she has men within her borders who burn buildings, poison stock and girdle trees, and also contains persons who, tacitly, if not openly, uphold such dastardly crimes. Does Rambler agree with me so far?

In the New Jersey weather report for March I find an article which is highly interesting. On the third page of the report is a full description of the solar motor. This motor is in successful operation, working a 15-horse power engine, at the Ostrich farm at Pasadena, Cal., and it is used to pump water. It lifts 1400 gallons a minute. The power for this machine is obtained from the sun's rays by means of a great reflector containing 1800 glass mirrors each 3 inches by 24. All you have to do when the sun shines is to start it; then you can go about your business. This is a great age of invention, and it is only a question of time how soon aerial navigation will be an assured fact, for submarine navigation is a success and travel through the air is bound to come and that soon.

Last week was a dreary one for the sun was hardly visible at any time. On Saturday afternoon and evening it began to rain in earnest and by Sunday noon 2.46 inches of water had fallen. This must certainly replenish the springs and wells that have been dry so long.

The town committee met on Saturday last to sell the contract for hauling dirt and gravel on our roads. After much argument it was decided to make three districts of the main roads and appointed overseers for each: John W. Johnson to have the road from Layton to the Montague line; Henry Steffen the road from Layton to the Frankford line, and W. H. Van Sickle the road from Layton to the Walpack line. All are good men and we shall have good roads, for which let us be thankful.

The Andover correspondent of the Sussex Record seems to have an objection to the editor's placing the names of correspondents along with their items, and says something about the surreptitious taking of chickens on the part of the correspondent. Well, I won't argue the question, but correspondents, as a rule, will eat chicken; but steal? No, sir!

Miss Rosetta Courson, daughter of John E. Courson of this town, died on Saturday last aged about 38 years. Deceased had been very ill for some time and her sufferings were terrible, and death came as a happy release from pain. Her father is quite sick and is confined to his bed.

The iron bridge at Layton has recently been repainted and presents a neat appearance in its coat of white. There are others in this town badly in need of a coat of paint—and plank.

I am glad to note that at the recent examination for diplomas at the Newton business college the Misses Emma and Estella Hurch of this town were graduated, the former with a percentage of nearly 97% and the latter with nearly 85%. Miss Emma at once steps into the Morrison shoe factory as stenographer and typewriter, while Miss Estella has the preference of two positions. When this institution was started a few years ago it was thought Newton would not support it enough to make it a success, but under the bustling manager, Prof. Hopkins, its list of pupils has increased, and many of its graduates are now holding first class positions. Its success as a school of instruction is no longer doubted and for which Prof. Hopkins is to be congratulated.

Bert Rosenkrans of Norfolk, Va., spent a few days visiting friends and relatives in this town. He returned to his southern home where he is engaged in business, on Tuesday.

The Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo promises to be the grandest exhibition of American productions and inventions ever held in this country. It is only 883 miles from Port Jervis by the Erie, so the cost of going will not be great, but the cost of living at Buffalo may be on the Waldorf-Astoria rate, and then if your pocketbook can stand the strain, see the whole thing.

In looking over the different school buildings in this town, I find that every one, without exception, needs repainting, besides other repairs. Now that vacation is not far away, why can't the Board of Education get things in shape for a thorough overhauling and have it done during the vacation so that everything will be in order when the schools reopen in September next. An inspection will bear out the facts above stated.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

L. W. Howay has mounted his steam sawmill at Deep Hollow and is busy doing custom work.

Several of our young men have secured positions for the summer in Jersey which makes a scarcity of help here to finish up the tie jobs.

Cow buyers are appearing. $30 is offered and $35 and $40 asked, the supply being limited.

The Jersey legislature and the 9 o'clock fish law is a case of not knowing what to do. The members are sent there to make laws and they think they must do something to earn their wages.

We see that our Representative voted in favor of the liquor law, which is all right because that is what the people elected him for. When citizens desire to bring up their children under more sober and elevating surroundings they will vote for another class of men to make their laws.

It is said that Laf. Crone is so much improved as to be able to go back home.

George Raitt, who had the misfortune to be ruptured, is now able to sit up and make out his road duplicate.

Charles Simpson had one of his fingers cut off by a careless teamster throwing a rock from his wagon while Simpson was laying stones in a culvert.

Depae Titman while assisting in loading telephons poles had two of his fingers badly mashed.

Some having business to Newton recently complained of dusty roads, but they have a liquid over there which prevents choking.

Geo. W. Donaldson has sold his large team.

Charles Person has a model house where he can hatch and raise chicks in the coldest weather.

From recent reports Mrs. Caroline Smith is recovering and we hope to see her out again soon.

Batter yet 21 cents a pound and eggs 13 cents a dozen. Potatoes are scarce and command a good price with few to be had.

Some people have an idea if they advertise their cattle, sheep or other property in the paper they will not be able to get so good a price for them, because if advertised it looks as if they were compelled to sell at any price. Fanny why the same rule won't apply to other advertisers.

Milford seems to be expanding—a growth of a mile in one season is rapid work.

George Warner drove over the hills down here last Sunday. We seldom have the pleasure of seeing him down this way.

All the girls and boys seeking situations for the summer here have found employment.

The job on eye bank is a good one by whoever done. There is no stint to the width of the road thanks to H. L. D. CARLAR.

When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Koolid dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food.

Doris Watts and wife are house-keeping in the place on Cunningham street lately occupied by Floyd Kilpatrick.

Mrs. R. S. Danjoy has a fine collection of begonias and other house-plants, and has recently purchased a new piano.

Alex. Riley and wife of Frankford, N. J., are visiting relatives here.

Chas. H. Wood, daughter Blanche of Milford and Miss Jennie Goble of Port Jervis called on friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Trainer, who contemplated opening a millinery store here, is now located at Callicoon, N. Y., and is doing a large business. Mrs. Ed. Lord is her agent here.

Wm. Shay will in future continue his milk route Sundays.

J. H. Gordon of Port Jervis is now occupying with his family a house on River street. He recently united with Epworth church.

The ten-cent tea given by the L. A. S. of Epworth church Monday evening was well attended and a pleasant social affair.

The Sunday school children of St. Joseph's church gave an entertainment Wednesday evening.

Reckwell Heidental has accepted a position as traveling salesman with J. W. Crosby Bros. of Danville, Va., tobacco manufacturers.

E. J. Lord and wife celebrated the 5th anniversary of their marriage Thursday evening. Choice refreshments were served.

Easter services were celebrated at Epworth church Thursday evening. The tables were nicely decorated and a fine supper was served. A very pleasant entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Frank Corwin was given. The proceeds were $22.90.
