STATE NORMAL SCHOOL
East Stroudsburg, Pa.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS POPULAR INSTITUTE OPENS SEPT. 1, 1901.
This Practical Training School for teachers is situated on the main line of the D.
L. & W. R. R. in East Stroudsburg, in the middle of the great resort of Monroe county.
Seven departments and courses. Excellent facilities, strong faculty, high standard maintained. Pupils coached free.
Classes not overcrowded. No extra charge made. It costs you $20 less per year. We paid all the state aid to pupils, the only school that did this for the spring term.
In seven years we have not had a serious case of sickness. Recitation, College Preparatory Sewing, Clay Modeling, Flatter, etc., without extra charges. We secure positions for our graduates.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SANDYSTON.

Sportsmen say there are more quail this spring than usual and their merry whistle is very much in evidence. These birds are protected by law, but the law should be stretched until it protected them from the ravages of the hunter from Jan. 1 to Jan. 1 and stop every form of trapping.

Comrades Hursb and Caton on Memorial Day visited the four cemeteries in this town and put a flag on each one of the 21 graves found in them. The veterans are fast passing away, and soon the beautiful tribute annually paid to the mound above the soldier's breast will be forgotten.

Those interested in the Layton cemetery should visit the yard to see if the monument marking the resting place of the one that was near and dear to them, is in position. Many stones are leaning badly and must soon fall unless attended to soon.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Thoma, youngest daughter of Eben T. Owen, to Frank Coss on Wednesday noon, June 12, at the residence of the bride's parents. The contracting parties are well known and their many friends wish them a happy voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Warren H. Van Stokke is reported as steadily but slowly getting better but as he is so very weak it will be some time before he will be able to get about.

Ground hogs are very numerous in this section and the boys are turning their attention to them in such a way that the "varmints" will soon be fewer in number. Our town congress should pay a bounty for scalps than you would see dead ground hogs in plenty. Ten cents a head will do the trick.

Mrs. Carrie, daughter of Wilson C. Gunn, is visiting her parents for a brief stay. She is married and resides at Perth Amboy, N. J.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

What used to be known as Chuck-town is now more elegantly called Raymondskill Valley, and that beautiful section is making rapid progress to be worthy of its new and more ambitious name. The hills in the roads are disappearing, a post office is being asked for, the marshes are turned into lakelets or rich gardens, a well attended Sunday school with music furnished by home talent, all mark rapid progress. We feel down here that we are losing sight of the procession.
They are talking of a creamery up there and perhaps may soon have a well organized grange or farmers' club.

W. H. Layton has finished his term of school at Barn Timber in Lehman and is now back in his old haunts.

George Raitt is able to be out but is yet weak.

Reader Morgan is fairly recovered from his long illness and his meat wagon in charge of one of his sons has begun its rounds.

Mrs. Jessie Gilmore was recently called to Corry, Pa., by reason of the death of her mother.

Mrs. Theodora Howey was at Easton lately on a visit to her daughter.

G. Y. Crone visited his daughter in Montague, N. J., last week.

Miss Weiss and sister will open their house on Sunset hill for boarders this summer.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Woman suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it.
Satisfaction is guaranteed by all drug stores. Only 50c.

MATAMORAS.

Mrs. Isaac Skellenger and daughter, Martha, returned home Monday after a visit in Newark.

Harry Clark and wife of Hainesville spent Sunday here.

Floyd Maloney is preparing 11 students for regent's examination in geography, grammar and arithmetic.

Mrs. Chaucery Watson of Milford was a recent guest with Mrs. Irving Clifford.

Miss Grace Seybolt, trained nurse, has been home for a brief vacation.
She returned to New York a few days ago.

J. F. Keyes, an old resident of this place, celebrated his 79th birthday June 1st. Many friends tender congratulations and hope for many recurrences of the event.

Miss Agnes Wilkin, one of the graduates, tendered the class of '01 a reception at her home Tuesday evening. Besides the members of her class, Prof. S. A. Johnson, Dr. O.
Wilkin and wife, Frank Wilkin and wife and Mrs. Frank Burns and daughter of Greenville were present.

Mrs. Harry Moore of Jersey city, after spending a few weeks here, has returned home.

Irving Hammond of Jersey city spent Sunday with friends here.

Geo. Buchanan, Miss Etta Decker and Ruth Armstrong of Milford were guests of Mrs. J. O. Ryder Sunday.

Miss Sarah Remy opened her select school Monday with a large attendance.

Rev. S. Morris of Port Jervis is occupying the pulpit of Hope church Sunday mornings.

Children's day will be observed next Sunday evening at Epworth church with a pleasing program.

Rev. J. R. Wright, presiding elder of Jersey city district, visited Epworth church last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Gross will return home this week and services may be expected in Hope church Sunday both morning and evening.

Mrs. J. B. Halsey, mother of Mrs.
D. B. Allen, is visiting relatives in Princeton and Middletown, N. Y., and expects to be absent several weeks.

Miss Lillie Buchanan of Milford visited her sister, Mrs. J. O. Ryder, last Sunday.

Legrand Ball has accepted a position with Loren Langton.

Homer Quiek is in Wilcox's bicycle shop in Port Jervis.

Prof. S. A. Johnson and his estimable wife will leave Matamoras the latter part of this month and will take a post graduate course in higher mathematics and the languages at Mansfield state normal school from which they graduated in 1887. Mr. Johnson has been principal of our schools for the past three years and conducted them to the satisfaction of all. Mrs. Johnson, who is an excellent teacher and a fine disciplinarian, taught one year and then to the regret of her pupils gave up her room. She is president of the C. E. society of Epworth church and always at the head of entertainments given for the church. An efficient worker at the recent rummage sale and at all church socials, and a moving spirit in the prayer meetings, she will be greatly missed in church circles.
Prof. Johnson is superintendent of Epworth Sunday school, chairman of the committee on permanent certificates, and as principal of our schools has evinced marked ability and industry. All their Matamoras friends wish them success and happiness in their new field of labor.

Gray Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turning gray." — Mrs. F. A. Soutz, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor—it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black, look dead and lifeless.
But gradually the old color comes back,—all the rich, dark color it used to have.
The hair stops falling, too.

PAUPAC.

The farmers in this section are much behind in their planting owing to the severe rains of the past week. Rivers and streams were higher than they have been in some time. Roads were under water in some places and all communication, except by boat, was cut off between here and Crosses.

Mrs. Edmund Green of Green Hedge is the guest of her parents, B. F. Killam and wife.

Emil Gumble and Annabern Kimble spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kimble.

Joe Slocum was a visitor in town the greater part of last week.

Miss Hannah Kipp of Greentown spent the past week with friends in this place.

Mrs. Herbert Adams is visiting her mother, Mrs. Augusta Bennet.

Clay Clark spent Memorial day with his parents.

Mr. Wilson and family of Philadelphia moved upon and took possession of the Rowan farm last week.

John Zimmermann is absent on a visit with—Well, we expect him to return this week with a bride; at least that is what rumor says.

The Rev. Sigour of Arlington preached a Memorial sermon to a large congregation, for this place, last Friday evening at the White school house.

Work on our telephone has been indefinitely postponed. A meeting for the election of the new officers of the telephone company will be held next Tuesday at school house No. 4. After the new members take their places on the committee it is thought the work along the line will progress more rapidly.

SUMMER BOARDERS SECURED.

How Judicious and Inexpensive Advertisements Can Be Made to Pay by Using a Selected Medium.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle is the ideal resort medium. It reaches the people you want to reach. Its circulation is the largest in Brooklyn, and goes into the best homes in the entire City of New York. Its name stands for excellence, quality, fairness and an unparalleled advertising reputation. Its resort rates are equitable; its monthly rate so low that you can afford to keep before the public every day.

The Eagle maintains two free Information Bureaus for Resorts—one in Brooklyn and one in the heart of the shopping district of Manhattan.
They distribute your circulars, tell visitors about your house, and in every way further your interests.
An advertisement in the Eagle, supplemented by the free service of its bureaus, is almost a sure investment.

Upon application listing blanks, rate cards and further details will be sent.

To accomplish this end we have adopted a new system.
All our prices are fixed on a basis of cash payment. This obviates the necessity to allow a margin for bad debts and interest. To accommodate responsible parties we cheerfully open monthly accounts, and expect prompt payment monthly, as our prices will not enable us to carry accounts longer.

Statements rendered the first of every month, and if paid within three days from date of bill, a cash discount of 2% is allowed. The same discounts given on all cash purchases exceeding $1.00. Goods sent out will be C. O. D.
