CORRESPONDENCE.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

When the writer last heard of her condition of Mrs. James C.
Hanna of Long Meadow was very little, if in any wise, improved. It is to be hoped, however, this estimable old lady will eventually regain her usual health.

Robinson Shepherd of Silver Lake is rebuilding his barn and the framework of the new structure was raised last week.

Speaking of building, the new school building at Dingman's is being rapidly pushed towards completion and is being well done. Messrs.
Joseph and Wallace Bensley, with their corps of assistants, are driving the work as fast as practicable, and it will not be a great while until the building is ready for occupancy.

Harvey Frazier, who formerly lived near Dingman's but who has been for a long period at Altautic Highland, has suffered a broken leg, the result of a fall some weeks since.

It has been suggested that since the ferry has been dispensed with, the bridge having superseded it, the original name of the village ought to be restored, and hereafter both the village and post office be termed "Dingman's Choices."

The Delaware township school board since its reorganization is as follows: President, William J.
Hanna; treasurer, H. B. Van Anten; secretary, R. Shepherd.
The other members are Daniel B.
Middleagh, Harry Bieser and Joseph G. Carlow. After all the expenditures of the past school year were paid there is a balance of $159 in the treasury. A two mills school tax was levied for the current year. For disbursing school money the treasurer will receive, as usual, two per cent. during the current year, as he will also on the disbursement of building money, but it was decided to allow no percentage on the paying out of insurance money. The board will meet at Dingman's on the afternoon of the 22nd inst. to employ teachers and receive bids for the furnishing of wood for the different schools.

Joseph V. Carhoff is still in very feeble health and has been a sufferer for many months past. It is the hope of Mr. Carhoff's many friends that he will regain his health and be with us many years yet.

It is said by many that the apple yield this way will be light this year.

John Baitt of Brooklyn visited his aged mother and invalid brother a short time ago. He is employed in a watch case factory in the City of Churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Why lost their only child, Raymond, week before last. The bereavement is a sorrowful one for these young parents.

The dwelling house of John Gould near Schuyler's in Lehman burned on the afternoon of the 5th inst. The roof took fire and but little furniture was saved before the flames had made such progress that nothing more could be done. Mrs.
Gould, only, was at the house when the fire was discovered. We are also informed there was no insurance on either building or contents.
It is a heavy blow to Mr. Gould, whose circumstances are moderate.

It is reported that young Bradshaw, who went to Nebraska with John Brodhead two or three years ago, has been very successful and is now owner of considerable stock himself. He was formerly of Lehman and in the west he is in the ranching business. W. H. L.

Wednesday. Committee reported progress and that the line was nearing completion. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: S. R. Hazleton, president; P. R. Cross, secretary; T. N. Cross, treasurer; Walter Vetterlein, C. E.
Williams, A. K. Killam, C. A. Pellett, M. T. Snyder, Alva Quick, F.
B. Simons and F. F. Frisby; auditors, C. J. Schlager, G. N. Killam and Chas. Killam.

Upon the return of John Zimmerman with his bride the young folks of the neighborhood tendered them a serenade, which while it may not have been very musical was certainly somewhat considerable. The family, who are judges of music, endured the discord as long as possible when in order to restore harmony they promised the serenaders a party with better music and unlimited refreshments, which promise was fulfilled to the letter a few evenings later. A great crowd was in attendance and they all claimed to have greatly enjoyed the occasion. DEFACTO.

St. Joseph's church Sunday school had a picnic at High Point Wednesday.

Children's day was observed at Epworth church last Sabbath evening, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The children appeared beautifully and gave their recitations in a very creditable manner, and the choir rendered some very fine selections. Mrs.
Johnson, Mrs. Ryder and Miss Cora Billman were among those who aided in the singing, which was much enjoyed by the large audience. S.
