CORRESPONDENCE.

SANDYSTON.

Mrs. Aurelia Middaugh of Dingman's Ferry was a welcome visitor at "Pine Hill Farm" last week, and also made a brief call at the county seat. Mrs. Middaugh is an exceedingly spry old lady, very well posted on affairs of the day, and a pleasant and entertaining conversationalist.
She returned home on Saturday.

The school board of Delaware township met at the new Academy in Dingman's Choice on Saturday last for the hiring of teachers, and by the way we believe this is the first official use of the new building; Miss Carrie Hornbeck was chosen principal and Miss Ella Westbrook as assistant teacher at the Academy.
W. H. Layton at Long Meadow, J.
Van Sant Hood at Centre, and Miss Ella Hursh at Coles.

E. B. Kintner of Stroudsburg, Pa., was a caller at Mrs. Mary O. Hornbeck on Friday last, while on his way to Newton where he made brief but pleasant calls upon the boys. He reports that he is now engaged in building a dwelling on his Stroudsburg farm in place of the one recently burned, and as having temporarily quit his milk and butcher route in that thriving city.

The regular Sandyston correspondent of the Press is enjoying his trip through the Atlantic coast states, and will no doubt tell the Press readers some of the incidents of the trip, and give them the results of his observations upon his return.
He travels with notebook and pencil handy and will use them both for the benefit of his readers.

Francis Simpson is in the swim to a considerable extent. About two weeks ago his Belgian Doe dropped a litter of twelve young, and Saturday night his bay mare surprised him with twin colts. All are doing well. About 40 visitors called to see them during last Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Fuller of Walpack was joined by her children in quietly celebrating her 66th birthday last Sunday. Mrs. Fuller is very vigorous in mind, and a rare good talker on the events of the day. May she enjoy many returns of the day.

MATAMORAS.

At a meeting of the school directors held Monday Charles S. Honck of Hawley was appointed principal, with Floyd Molony, Minnie Van Akin, Frank Wilkin, Nellie Westfall, Hannah Molony and Sarah Remoy, the latter having charge of the primary department. Miss Leighton was not an applicant.
Miss Flora Heintzel has the Rose-town school. F. Wandell was selected janitor.

Sarah Davoy and son-in-law, Victor Ennis, have returned from Middletown, after a few days visit.

Frank Marvin, wife and son of Covington, Ky., recently arrived at the home of his parents for a few days visit.

Tillie Zahnlocker will teach the school at Roses Switch and Howard Allen at Mill Rift.

Mrs. G. W. Marshall of Frankford, N. J., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Devoc.

Prof. Johnson and wife lately visited at Milford and Thursday left for Mansfield, their new home, to the regret of many friends.

Mrs. Alex. Ball accompanied by Flossie Niles has gone to New York for treatment by a female doctor.

Childrens day will be observed Sunday evening at Hope church when a pleasing program will be rendered.

Miss Marguerite Rose, who has been spending the winter in New York, is at her home again. S.

Milford Hand Laundry.
The undersigned has opened a laundry on Centre Square Milford, Pa., in the store room formerly occupied by Geo. Dauman, and will do all kinds of work pertaining to the business with promptness and in a neat careful manner. A share of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. JOHN L. GOCHLAY.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Henry Winter, formerly a resident at Nicholson Lake, but now of Brooklyn, made a visit to this locality on Saturday and Sunday last.

John Whittaker of Dingman's is ill at the residence of his son-in-law, G. B. Van Aukon, Esq. Mr. Whittaker was very sick last week, but is now much better, we are told.

J. F. Maloney, of Westfall, was in this village on business on Saturday last.

We are informed that George Spencer, of Long Meadow, has lost seven head of cattle from some disease, or from eating some poisonous weed, during the last three weeks.
The animals one after the other sickened and died, notwithstanding treatment was administered them.

The Delaware school board met and employed the following teachers on Saturday afternoon last: Principal of the Dingman Academy, Miss Carrie Hornbeck; Primary Department, Miss Ella Westbrook; Centre, J. Van Sant Hood; Cole's, Miss Ella Hursh; Silver Lake, Miss Anna Madden; Long Meadow, W. H.
Layton. Wages, $25 per month, except the principal of the Academy, which is $30. Term, eight months, with the exception of the primary department of the Academy, which is six months.

A large and appreciative congregation listened to the forcible and eloquent lecture on "Home or the Saloon: Which?" by Mrs. S. Bailey in the M. E. church on Sunday evening last. This versatile lady handles her subject in an impressive manner, and graphically depicts the results of that which she is so earnestly enlisted against.

The Lehman school board employed their teachers on the 18th inst.
The meeting was held at Meadow Brook school house. W. H. L.

The Womanly Element Needed in Government.

What is true civilization? Does it consist in marble palaces, in poetry, painting, statuary? If so, Greece and Rome excelled us; but they went down to death, in spite of their splendid physical and intellectual development, because the right spiritual forces were wanting.
True civilization is to do justly, and to love God with all the heart.
When these principles rule the national life, all the questions that now vex and threaten the commonwealth will be easily settled. I do not say that women will settle them, but I do say that she will help to solve them, and you will never solve them without her help.

The moral forces of the race are in hands of woman; the lack of moral force is what makes weakness in government. "The nations that forget God shall perish." The nation that forgets God, forgets to be just, and this injustice sets out its life with inexorable fatality. That is where America stands today. It is forgetting God in its mad race after wealth and power; it is forgetting the primal law of Eden, when God made man and woman co-equal sovereigns; it is forgetting to be just to one-half its people. I beg of you, in the name of God, for the hope of humanity, stop this fatal forgetting, and do justice to women. For we go down together. And I implore you, do not give up hope in humanity or in our ship of state. I know it is fearfully stern-tossed, but it can be saved if only you will bring out all your crew. Thus far you have kept one-half of the crew fettered beneath the hatches, and the ship is in danger of wreck for lack of their assistance. Bring the women from beneath the hatches, strike off their shackles, and leave the result with God.

We must not write failure against the grand experiment we are making. The hope of the world is in America. We have solved many problems; we shall solve this:
"United we stand, divided we fall." It is the same with men and women. Women without men would be frivolous and vain, and men without women would go back to barbarism.
But if we work together, not in competition, but in co-operation and in harmony, we shall bring the race to its ultimate inheritance.
