AS TO MOSQUITOES. Although we have none here and can return thanks for the absence of the buzzing pests which destroy peace of mind and comfort of body, they abound in many places; in fact there are very few where they do not, and a little knowledge of some of the peculiarities of the insect may be of interest.

ly to methods of carrying animals. However, no ignorant or careless man would be likely to inflict an injury in this manner wantonly because it would injure the sale of the creature and thereby cause him loss. His cupidity would doubtless outweigh his want of humanity unless, as is often the case, he becomes intoxicated and loses his sense of cunning in his recklessness.

The leaves on a number of maples in town are slowly withering and falling. Investigation shows them to be infested with a small green louse similar to those often found on house plants. How far this depredation may continue or whether it will proceed until the trees are to any great extent denuded and so seriously injured of course we do not know, but if there is a probability of this being the case it might be well to take steps to prevent it. Probably spraying might be efficacious. Some one versed in the habits and with knowledge of the character of the little pest which might throw light on the question as to how long they will live and multiply. They may disappear soon as a number were seen to have developed tiny wings and they may all soon mature and fly away.

PAUPAC. Dr. and Mrs. Greene of Green Ridge were visitors at B. F. Killam's last week. Ed. Bittenbender and wife of Scranton were guests at A. J. Kimble's over Sunday. Lafayette Killam spent Sunday with his parents, G. N. Killam and wife. H. Clay Killam, wife and daughter, Cora, of Rahway, N. J., were the guests of C. E. Williams and family last week. Mrs. Mary Eaton, formerly Miss James of Big Pond, spent the past week with Mrs. Ruth Sheridan. Mrs. Chas. Killam and children of Brooklyn are spending the summer with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Killam. Lightning is playing havoc with the telephone poles along our new line. Report says that three have been struck in the neighborhood of "Lafon. One pole was struck just as Henry Gumble was passing with his team on his way to Hawley. The horses became frightened, broke from the wagon and ran some distance before they were stopped. Beyond breaking the wagon little damage was done. The excessive heat has made the city people long for the balmy breezes of the country. Paupac is fast becoming filled with them. One family arrived last week who have spent every summer, for the past eighteen years, in this place.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. Under an act of assembly it is a misdemeanor to wantonly and cruelly beat, torture, kill or maim any horse or other domestic animal. Wantonly or cruelly ill treating, overloading, beating or otherwise abusing any animal is a misdemeanor. It is also unlawful to engage or assist in fighting or baiting any bull, bear, dog, cock or other creature. Carrying animals in vehicles in a cruel manner, and abandoning any maimed, sick, infirm or disabled creature to die in a public place are likewise offenses. Killing pigeons at a shooting match where needless suffering is imposed is a violation of law. It might be difficult in every case to draw the exact line where indiscretion ends and wantonness begins, because the judgment or feeling of sensitiveness is so variant in individuals, but generally the act would indicate in itself the spirit of the person and whether he was acting in ignorance or with a determination to inflict injury. Where the act is of itself cruel probably it would be considered wanton even though done purely in ignorance, and this would apply more especial-

THE CHURCH COLUMN. (By Rev. C. E. Scudder.)

Remember the fair August 8th. Next Sabbath morning Mr. Ogden will play for us again on the cornet. Many complimentary things have been said about the service that he rendered last Sabbath.

The topics for next Sabbath are "The Message of Illumination" and "Jeroboam, Who Made Israel to Sin."

Next Sabbath afternoon the camp meeting services will begin in the grove back of the Union school house. All our friends in town as well as out of town are invited to attend.

We desire to express our thanks to Mr. Wood for his kind offer of the use of camp stools for the outdoor meetings. This will add much to the comfort of those who attend.

Through the kindness of a friend four dozen palm leaf fans have been placed in the pews of the church. We are glad for everything that adds comfort to the hour of worship.

During the hot weather the services at the church will not exceed an hour. This will give ample time for meditation and devotion if we come to God's house in a worshipful spirit. If it is necessary for us to do what we do quickly, let us do it with our might, with that concentration of spirit that shall result in the largest soul life.

Additional Local Matter. Frank Wells and wife of Columbia, S. C., arrived in town last evening for a visit.

Mrs. Adele Berthoud has been granted a widow's pension of $8 a month with back pay.

Sheriff Vandermark sold the real estate of Josiah Conklin at Matamoras, being lot 631, last Monday to John Conklin for $700.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held a very enjoyable social last evening. Ice cream, cake and candy were furnished. The proceeds were over $35.

The will of the late Daniel W. Fisher of Dingman township has been probated. He gives all his property to Samuel A. Detrick and names him sole executor.

The Milford nine won out against the Matamoras nine last Saturday by a score of 11 to 4. There will be a game at the driving park tomorrow between Milford and Port Jervis.

Fresh Enough. Pimoff—Waiter bring me poached eggs on toast. And mind they're fresh laid! Waiter—Yes, sir! Shall I have the hen lay 'em on the toast, sir?—Detroit Free Press.

The Intricacies of It. "Why didn't you study the timetable, and then you wouldn't have missed your train?" "That was the trouble. While I was trying to translate the timetable the train pulled out."—N. Y. World.

An Awful Thought. Edith—I should hate to be the president. Jack—And why? Edith—Oh, one has to be over forty, you know.—Judge.

A Bad Breath. A bad breath means a bad stomach, a bad digestion, a bad liver. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache.

DOCTORS say "Consumption can be cured." Nature alone won't do it. It needs help. Doctors say "Scott's Emulsion is the best help." But you must continue its use even in hot weather.

Competition. "Mr. Huffercamp, we'd like to have you come to our church supper next Tuesday night." "I'd like to, but I've got to go to a lodge supper that night." "Can't Mrs. Huffercamp come?" "I'm afraid not. She belongs to the Daughters of Something-or-Other, and they have a banquet at the same time." "Well, let your daughter come." "I don't see how she can. She's got to stay at home to cook supper for the children."—Chicago Tribune.

Making It Easy for Him. Hank Medders (proprietor of Meadswallow house)—It's mighty lucky we had Prof. Leggit boardin' with us last fall when he was trainin' for his walkin'-match, ain't it, mother? Mrs. Medders—Why so? Mr. Medders—Well, I kin advertise that our place is only ten minutes' walk from the station an' it won't be quite so much of a strain on my susinence as it used to be.—Judge.

Candid Confession. "I confess to being a very poor judge of matrimony," said the mild-mannered person. "Can't you recognize fluent speaking when you hear it?" "No, it depends on my personal feelings. If a friend is making the speech it is eloquence. If it is not a friend it is mere garrulity."—Washington Star.

Philanthropy. "It seems to me fishing is cruel from beginning to end. Look at the angle-worms you eat in two with your spade when you are digging for bait." "Yes, ma'am; but that doesn't kill them, and it is not a benefactor who causes two angleworms to grow where only one grew before?"—Chicago Tribune.

The Figures. Young Man—How much a year does it require to support a wife now-a-days? Old Man—Oh, anywhere from $500 to $50,000 or so.

Young Man—Isn't that rather indefinite? Old Man—No. It always takes all a man has.—N. Y. Weekly.

Logical Remonstrance. Mrs. Spratt (vigorously shaking her sleeping spouse)—John! John! There's a burglar in the house.

Mr. Spratt (protesting)—Look here, Jane, if, instead of shaking the life out of me, you'd go and shake that burglar, you'd be doing some good.—Tit-Bits.

Irresistible. Miss Dykermeadows—They had not known each other half an hour before he proposed.

Miss Bensonhurst—Well, he heard her say that if a house was kept ordinarily clean she saw no reason why it should be cleaned every spring.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Their Name is Legion. "Didn't I hear your husband quarrel with you, this morning?" said the woman in the next flat. "Yes; he didn't like my first biscuits."

"Well, some people would rather fight than eat."—Yonkers Statesman.

Offering Her a Bargain. "Lady, won't you kindly give a pore man nine cents?" "Nine cents? Why, don't you ask for a dime, and be done with it?" "Oh, no, lady; I know the sex too well. I was once a married man."—Detroit Free Press.

His Advantage. In stars and moon and midnight sky The poet, with his naked eye, Finds things proud Science cannot hope To find, 'en with her telescope.—Puck.

HER PARTING SHOT.

Teaty Editor—Not the slightest use, madam; we're all full up in this office. Lady Journalist—Are you, indeed? Then I'll call again when you're sober.—Ailly Sloper.

The Vagaries of Love. "That little widow seems to have become completely fascinated by me." "Well, I should say so. Why, he's actually buying her flowers to put on her first husband's grave."—Town Topics.

Enough is a Feast. "De millionaires don't have no better time in life dan what de po' man does," says Brother Dickey. "What is de use er a man havin' two turkeys on Christmas w'en he kin only eat one?"—Atlanta Constitution.

Almost an Antique. Mrs. Pyles—Oh, there goes Mrs. Ryles with a new bonnet! Mrs. Styles—Oh, do you call that a new bonnet? She had that two weeks ago!—Yonkers Statesman.

Unable to Estimate. "Who was it she married—a duke or a count?" "Caw'n't say. Don't know whether it cost her $2,000,000 or $10,000,000."—Detroit Free Press.
