OUR SIDEWALKS.

Recently a city guest was so unfortunate as to step in a hole in the sidewalk on upper Broad street and thereby sustain injuries which caused her much pain, necessitated the use of crutches and will probably detain her from her duties for some time.

The complaint is frequently heard that some of the sidewalks, more especially those in the very heart of the town and which are most used, are in a dilapidated and really unsafe condition. That this complaint is well founded and that its cause has long existed every one traveling the sidewalks of either Broad or Harford streets can testify.

In summer the stones project to a degree which makes pedestrianism painful and in winter when there is ice they are at such an angle as to make them dangerous. Our townspeople may stumble over these places at the risk of life and limb, but when we invite guests to come here and spend their money we should not ask them to incur the risk of being made halt or maim by our failure to provide safe walks in the most prominent places in the town. It is not fair, it is not right, and no one should complain if city guests gave such treatment as a valid excuse for leaving us alone in our glory to stumble over our sidewalks and fall into the holes left or allowed to remain in them. The weeds and generally dilapidated appearance along some of the streets are too patent to need any comment.

THE GAME LAWS.

On another page will be found a digest of the acts of assembly relating to game in this state. We do not mean to express an opinion here as to whether the special act for this county is repealed by these later and general enactments, but it may be wise for those who insist that our special law is yet in force to obtain a legal opinion on the matter and not incur the risk of arrest and punishment by simply assuming that it is and will afford them protection. There is no doubt but that the game commission intends to see that violations of the laws are dealt with, and inasmuch as the state lands have been, and will be, open to sportsmen the proper officials will be careful to protect them from unlawful hunting and fishing. Ignorance of the law excuses no one, and it would be unwise to attempt to hide behind either that excuse or the contention that the state laws are not operative here, unless it is fortified with a carefully considered legal conclusion. The digest we print covers all the essential points and contains sufficient information to make the law clear. It would be well to preserve it for future reference.

Joseph Fuller Keyes, a greatly respected citizen of Matamoras, died yesterday morning after an illness of nearly a year. He was born at Windham, Conn., June 1, 1822, and came to Wayne county when a youth. Subsequently he removed to Shohola, this county, where he resided 25 years, and in 1872 moved to Matamoras, which has since been his home. He was vigorous in his old age and an enthusiastic wheelman.

THE CHURCH COLUMN.

(By Rev. C. E. Schuber.)

The congregation that greeted Mr. Neff last Sabbath morning was the largest that he ever saw at a morning service, so he informs us. That is a compliment for the church, for the singing of Mr. Crisman, so greatly enjoyed, and for himself. His very excellent sermon on "Love" will long be remembered.

The outdoor meeting at Union was also well attended last Sabbath afternoon. The singing of the choir was enjoyed by the Union people, and many expressed the desire to have it come again.

Next Sabbath morning the Rev. J. A. Cole of Newark will occupy the pulpit. Last summer Mr. Cole filled the pulpit very acceptably. He is one of the preachers of the Conference always in demand and we are sure that all will be glad to hear him.

At the morning service a male quartet, consisting of Mr. Rogers and Mr. Miller, of the Yale glee club, who are attending the Forestry school, and the Rev. J. W. Ryder, and the writer, will sing. We can assure all our friends that next Sabbath morning the preaching and singing will be good, exceptionally good.

The writer has in his hands a subscription paper on which he desires the names of all who are anxious to help paint the church. He will not feel insulted if you stop him anywhere and hand him your contribution, and if you do not see him he will appreciate any amount you care to send by mail. The church must be painted. $125.00 is needed. If you can not give large sums, give small amounts, and the amount required will soon be raised.

Next Sabbath evening the topic for the sermon will be "Daniel." This is the third in the series on the "Saints of the Bible." These short sermons for the hot weather are appreciated by our friends—that is, the shortness of them. It is the belief of the writer that the words of the great preacher Whitfield, are true during the hot weather of August, and especially in the evening, "After the first half hour more harm is done than good."

Judge Purdy Leaves Us.

At the close of the session of court last Saturday, Judge Purdy, who was legislated out of this county last winter, took the opportunity to part with the members of the bar and court officials and spoke as follows:

"As the new judicial apportionment takes the county of Pike out of my district and places it with Monroe in a new district, this, doubtless, the last session of your court at which I shall have the honor to sit as one of its members, I regret exceedingly that I am not permitted to complete my full official term, as the presiding judge for the district as it formerly existed, but the authorities that make our laws have provided otherwise.

In vacating the position, which I have held for nearly eight years, as a member of this court, I desire to express my sincere thanks to my associates upon the bench for their counsel and valuable assistance in the discharge of the duties of the office during that time. And I also wish to express to the members of the bar my appreciation of, and thanks for, the aid which you have so generously given me, in my way of suggestion, etc., from time to time, regarding the practice and other questions before the court; but for which assistance, through lapse of memory or other cause, embarrassing complications might have arisen. I feel that whatever success may have attended the administration of this court, since I became a member of it, is largely due to the wise counsels of my associate judges and to the loyal support that has been given me by the members of this bar. I assure you all that my official connection with your court will ever be kept in memory as a very green spot in my life's pathway."

Responses were made by Messrs. Baker, Bull and Van Etten, of the Pike county bar. Mr. Baker congratulated Judge Purdy upon the successful administration of his office, which he said was evidenced beyond question by the fact that, as he remembered, there had been but one appeal from his decisions and no reversal. Mr. Bull, following, said he heartily endorsed all of the sentiments expressed by Mr. Baker; and that whatever influences had operated to sever the counties of Wayne and Pike in the new apportionment, he was certain that none of them emanated from Pike county. Mr. Van Etten said that without any disparagement to Judge Craig, with whom he was not acquainted, he regretted that Judge Purdy was not to complete his full term of service for which he was elected in Pike and that he would have been pleased to see him succeed himself for another term.

Court then adjourned to meet Sept. 3d, at which time Judge Craig is expected to preside.
