SANDYSTON.

Catching rattlers alive is quite the thing and the latest is the catch of two fine specimens by Abram Rutan. They sport 8 and 7 rattles respectively. Chas. Van Buren also has a fine one in a cage.

Saturday night's rain was one of the heaviest we have had in some time. The meeting of the board of education was not held owing to the heavy downpour, and the social at John Solder's was a failure for the same reason. Some of the Montague picnic party passed through here near midnight thoroughly soaked, but they said they had had a good time, soaking included.

The teachers for Sandyston for the ensuing year will be as follows: Shaytown, Loren Dupue; Hainesville, Myra Drake; Flatbrook Valley, Eliza Smith; Tuttle's Corner, Emma Hersh; Bovans, Lena Brown; Fishers, Eaton Bovans; Fallers, Sadis Drake; Layton, Samuel Hasleton. Warren C. Hersh, the veteran teacher, was shut out from getting a school through spite work.

Mrs. Susan D. Myers, who has been ill for the past three months, died early Monday morning aged 82 years. She suffered greatly and death was a glad relief. Interment in the Hainesville cemetery.

The disease that appeared among the hogs of Dayton Dupue and caused the death of eight averaging anywhere from 60 to 150 pounds has ceased and it is hoped that it has stopped its ravages.

Mark Layton, son of John Layton, Jr., returned home on Monday from Paterson, where he has been for the past two months. He was operated on while in Paterson for appendicitis and came home feeling first rate. Junior Layton, his father, is much better and is now around as usual but doesn't make his trips to Port Jervis yet.

It is hoped that the picnic at Culvers on Saturday next will have a better ending than that at Grinnell. The rain towards night caught many on their way home.

A member of our school board and one who has kept the board in turmoil for years endeavored to get in some of his fine work at last Monday night's meeting. The way the board sat down on the troublesome member was a caution and his defeat was so complete that after the vote he had to perambulate into the fresh air in order to know where he was at, and when he came to he quietly got into his wagon and meandered in the direction of Tuttle's Corner.

The last spring's town election will pass into history as the "rum election" and I am not sure that not a little of the "long green" figured in with the rum. Rum was plenty and it was the fighting kind, too, and if the purchaser of some of that rum is correct in what he tells the writer, rum was sold that election day in large quantities. It is time such work was stopped and the sooner some action is taken to suppress such doings the better for the township.

KIMBLES.

Della Pierson of Scranton spent several days in this place on her way home from the Forest Lake club house, where she had been spending the summer.

Mrs. George Cortright visited her son, C. O. Wheeling, and family of Rowlands one day last week.

D. Bingham of Hawley was in town one day last week on business.

Minnie Harrison of Dunmore is visiting her mother, Mrs. Patrick Harrison.

James Logan of Glen Eyre spent one day last week in town on business.

George Daniels, wife and son of Hartford, Ct., are visiting the former's parents, Lot Daniels and wife.

O. L. Rowlands, wife and two children of Honesdale were the guests of the former's brother, Miles Rowland, Sunday.

Improvements in this place are:
A. S. Hazen building a wagon shed;
A. L. Cronk reshingled his barn; Frank Burkhardt moving his barn, will now have underground stable; R. W. Kelly, new roof on wagon shed.

William Shultz, wife and three children of Port Jervis are visiting the former's parents, Henry Shultz and wife.

Rev. W. S. Percy gave us a very interesting sermon last Sunday. He will preach again next Sunday afternoon. Come out and hear him.
Mr. Percy is a very interesting talker.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Geo. N. Jagger of this place has recently sold two small tracts to New York and New Jersey parties from off the Thos. Wilkinson lot.

Mrs. Susan Eschbeck was recently severely injured by falling from a barrel, the head of which gave way.
She is a lady quite advanced in years living near Bushkill and is a widow, her husband having died last spring.

Luke Whitaker of Porter township is suffering greatly from a malignant eruption on one leg, it is said. A few days ago his family undertook to take him to Stroudsburg that he might go to a hospital, but he was unable to bear the ride and was brought back to his home in agony.

The Delaware schools are to open on the 3d of September. Miss Hornbeck and Miss Westbrook at the academy, Van Sant Hood at Centre, Miss Madden at Silver Lake, Miss Ella Hersh at Coles, and W. H.
Layton at Long Meadow will constitute the corps of teachers.

There are very few apples down this way this year, fruit of all kinds being scarce. Most of the orchards are almost entirely destitute of fruit.

Oscar Van Gorden has had a neat new wagon house built on his premises this side of Bushkill this summer.

Quail are very numerous down this way and a person encounters them all around the neighborhood.
The absence of deep snows and stiff crusts the past two winters doubtless accounts for the plentifulness of this social little bird. Partridge, we think, is very scarce.

Miss Ada Brodhead, who has been on a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Brodhead, and other relatives herabouts for some weeks past, started for her home in far-away Nebraska this week. She is a teacher and goes to open her school near Kimball in that state.

W. H. L.

There seems to be quite a large class here either illiterate or disobedient. In one of our stores is a prominent sign saying "please keep off the counter" yet when a customer goes in he or she is confronted by a lot of pedals dangling from them.

The Conashaugh House is now well filled with a lively lot of guests.
Some of our agents for fertilizers when asked for Kaint, German salt, do not know what it is. They should attend the next farmers' institute. Many farmers would experiment with a few bags if they could get it.

We hope the speakers were not so discouraged by the slim attendance at the last farmers' institute that they will not come again.
Several here have expressed an intention to attend the next one.

It is a sorry sight to see a young man who has had careful training by his mother, become a drunkard, a gambler or a general blackguard or perhaps even worse.

It would be a pleasure to many readers to see W. H. L.'s letters appear regularly. They are always very readable and newswy.

The members of the M. E. church have been very busy preparing for their annual fair and they deserve a good purse as the result.

Our liverymen are not doing very well; a new comer has put down prices to secure custom.

John Gould is progressing finely with his new house; nearly all the lumber is on the ground.

Some farmers are rather discouraged over getting their hay. It is not easy to convince them that clearing off the forest causes drouths.

It is said that with a professional jockey the horse of Representative J. B. Westbrook could have beaten everything at the recent races.

David Cron has his threshing machine on the move and is quite busy.

The Stroudsburg and Dingman stage is quite an attraction and very comfortable to ride in.

One or more of our business men complain of a lack of trade and want to lay the blame on Mr. Williams of Port Jervis. They should call at Milford, study the business methods there, and advertise in the Press.
They might see some of their old and good customers trading with the progressive Milford merchants.

The roads are badly washed by recent rains, but the place above Smiths made by John Hood has withstood the storms and is in an excellent condition.

When telephones are $5 instead of $20 a year they will be good to have in the house, but it may be difficult to get a meal on time and not soured. The exchange girl will have a busy time.

Isaac Smith is building an addition to his already spacious house.

Happy Jerseymen who can afford so many picnics on a large scale.

Early potatoes are showing signs of rot; a white fungus is noticed on them when dug.

It is rumored that another of our active young men is preparing to emigrate to Nebraska, where some Pike county people are now successful settlers and we wish him good luck. x x x

A number of young people tendered a surprise party to Master Layton Rutan last Friday afternoon.

The lecture by Rev. Father Craft at St. Joseph's church last Friday was very interesting. He gave some thrilling stories of his adventures on the western frontier and described the modes of living, marriage, customs and religion of the Indians. There were vocal solos by Miss Sadie Wolscheldt and Mrs.
Thos. Gannon and instrumental music by Prof. Fenner and Master Willie Clune in connection with the lecture. Rev. John Koller of New Rochelle, N. Y., a musician of talent and formerly director of the choir in St. Patrick's cathedral, New York, sang a fine selection and responded to an encore with "Ben Bolt." Miss Eva Connelly and Miss Loretta McGovern were accompanists.

Edward Lord has gone to Grand Rapids on his vacation and on his return will stop at the Pan-Am. exposition.

John Myers, wife and two child-

T. J. Ketchum.

Miss Hattie Allen returned from camp Saturday.

Elting Van Sickle of Coleville is Peter Garbrandt and wife of Henry Clauson, formerly with Mr.

daughter of John Clune of this vil-Ephraim Shay and wife returned from a two weeks' trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places Monday.

The Sunday school of Epworth church is picnicking today, Friday, at Cummins' grove.

Mrs. L. J. Baker, Mrs. Thomas Baker, son, Willie, and daughter, Florence, of Dover are guests in the home of J. Hiltfert.

The banar under the auspices of the C. E. S. of Epworth church will be given next Monday and Tuesday evenings at the church. Great preparations are being made and it is hoped the event will be well patroned. S.

"My hair came out by the hand-

Mrs. M. D. Gray, No. Salem, Mass.

It gives to all who use it such satisfaction. The
