SCARLET FEVER.

It is very regrettable that scarlet fever, after a lapse which seemed to indicate that it had been eradicated in town, should reappear at this time. The schools have just opened and there is therefore greater danger of contagion. It is particularly important that parents exercise unusual care, and use especial precaution at this time to avert a general spread of the disease. The cases reported are of a very mild type, but that does not preclude the possibility of a virulent form being developed. The safety lies in prompt action in cases where there may be suspicion of the malady as well as in adopting safeguards. Whenever children have sore throats or an eruption of the skin even of a mild character they should be separated from the rest of the family until a physician has seen them or these symptoms disappear. It must never be forgotten that the mildest type may communicate the most fatal form of the disease. Exposure must be avoided, especially by children under ten years of age and no child which has not had it should be allowed to enter, or associate with persons who do enter such house or room nor with the cats or dogs from such houses. Beware of any person who has sore throat. Do not kiss or take the breath of such a person nor drink from the same cup nor use any article handled by such person until it is disinfected. Perfect cleanliness in the house and all its surroundings is enjoined, and anything which deteriorates general good health tends to render the system liable, and in this way filth may be considered as a promoter of scarlet fever. Let the house receive all the pure air and sunlight possible.

IS IT RIPPING?

The above question seems very pertinent out in Pittsburg where the bill passed at the last session of the legislature to give the governor power to remove the mayor and appoint a recorder is operative. Recently the appointee has made sundry removals of officials who were assumed to be friends of Senator Flinn and this in view of the supposed harmony desired alleged to have been made by the governor or his supporters with the Flinn party is causing considerable commotion. Of course, no one outside the inner circles can know the true inwardness of these movements but it looks very much as though the so-called "ripper" was doing some of the ripping originally intended. Time only will reveal the effect and who will reap the benefits, if any, of the bill which has been the subject of wide discussion in the state.

Since labor day many boarders have left town and the season is practically closed. Really the pleasant part of the year in the country is yet to come. September is generally a braising month and October with the change in verdure and her golden tints is a splendid time to be here. The roads too are apt to be in a fine condition, the nights are cool and everything is very inviting for rest and recuperation. It is an invigorating season and the wonder is that more people do not come out to enjoy it.

It is always gratifying to feel that one has done something which meets general approval. The article in THE PRESS of last week on village improvement has been generously commended and we will be more than repaid if it bears fruit. It is a matter of public concern and the public should see to it that steps are taken in the right direction. Talk of itself will not accomplish much but talk accompanied with effort and a determination to remedy the existing state of untidiness will do the business. Let us keep it in mind when the time comes, if it is not here now, let us act. Those who will not voluntarily do so should be compelled.

The poem on the first page entitled "Reminiscences" is from the pen of a Miss of thirteen years. It evidences considerable literary ability for one so young and should she persevere a maturer age will doubtless show productions of marked distinction. We invite contributions from any who desire to make the effort to write either prose or poetry for publication. It is an excellent exercise, for young people especially, and their productions are always read with interest.

Let the youths and Misses of Pike demonstrate their capabilities in this direction. Short stories, letters, local items and personals are excellent means to cultivate a habit of thinking and correct expression. We will be pleased to receive such.

The ball game at the driving park Monday was a very successful exhibition on the part of some Milford players of other accomplishments than skillful playing.

THE CHURCH COLUMN.

(By Rev. C. E. Scudder.)

The topic for the morning sermon next Sabbath is, "Head Religion." This will be followed by a sermon on "Heart Religion," to be preached on the following Sabbath morning.

The topic for the evening is, "The Living Word." Christianity is not a religion of dead form; its vital force is not in any external ceremony, but it is in the living word, or the Divine revelation received in the heart and there producing the Christian life.

Programs for the Harvest Home service have been procured entitled "The Goodness of the Lord." The music is exceptionally good and we hope for an increased spirit of thankfulness to Him who is so bounteous in His manifestations of goodness to His creatures.

At our prayer services during this month we will consider the spiritual life as taught in the Epistles of St. John.

There will be preaching at Union next Sabbath. The appreciation of the people at this place, shown by their faithfulness to the services, has been an increasing source of pleasure to their pastor.

Seventy-five dollars have been contributed for our painting fund. We need twenty-five more. Who wishes the honor of a contribution? We are ready to bestow our hearty thanks upon any who give their help.

It is time now to consider more carefully the spiritual work of the church. This work has not been neglected entirely during the summer, but has not had the prominence that it now demands. We have been blessed in material things for which we are thankful; now let us be just as ready to receive the higher blessings. Is there not need that the revival spirit break out in our community? Are we all as saintly as we ought to be? Let us be an advance in the religious life of the community and I am sure that all men good and evil alike will rejoice in heart over it.

Imagination Required. Biting—Your friend Scribbler seems to be always short of funds. If his books don't sell, why don't you try him at office work when you need a new man? Boomer—No use. A man who can't succeed as a novelist hasn't imagination enough for the real estate business.—N. Y. Weekly.

As Ours See Us. Miles—I have my doubts about that assertion of yours. Giles—Well, you certainly have plenty of room for doubt. Miles—How's that? Giles—There is plenty of vacant space under your hat.—Chicago Daily News.

Protected. Tommy (tearfully)—If yer don't gimme back dem marbles yer fobbed, I'll tell me big brudder. Patsy—Owan an' tell him! He hasn't got nothin'. Tommy—He hasn't? Why? Patsy—He goes wit' me sister. See? —Puck.

How He Felt. She (after refusing him)—Er—do you feel very, very uncomfortable? He (miserably)—Uncomfortable? I feel as uncomfortable as one does who asks a store clerk for some certain article and is told: "We don't have any call for that nowadays!"—Brooklyn Eagle.

Even That Falls. "There is only one sure cure for smoking," remarked the physician, "and that is death." "They tell me," rejoined the druggist who attends church occasionally, "even that fails in some cases."—Chicago Daily News.

The Measurement. "Do you think a man in politics is measured by the amount of money he has?" "Certainly not," answered Senator Sorghum. "What counts is the amount of money he spends."—Washington Star.

Overheard in Chicago. Mrs. Plutterly—Did you ever see as fickle a woman as Mrs. Michigan? She was divorced from her husband two months ago, and now she has married him again! Mrs. Kindly—But her second husband was such a failure!—Judge.

NO WONDER. Dark Pedestrian—And the last thing poor John did was to kiss me. Fair Cyclist—Ah! and then he died, I suppose?—Ally Sloger.

Pro and Con. I'd be a hermit; sweet indeed 't would be To dwell where still, starched garb 'd never see; But, oh, at evenside, 'twere dull, I fear, To have no soda fountain squinting near. —Chicago Record-Herald.

A Good Enough Way for Him. "I wouldn't cry like that, my little man." "Well, you can cry any old way you want to; this is my way."—Brooklyn Life.

How To Gain Flesh. Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens. Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Scott's Emulsion. You will find it just as useful in summer as in winter, and if you are thriving you don't stop because the weather is warm.

Constipation. Does your head ache? Pain back of your eyes? Bad taste in your mouth? It's your liver! Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They cure constipation, headache, dyspepsia. 25c. All druggists.

A Steady in Woman. Muggins—A woman can never keep a secret. Buggins—Nonsense! My wife and I had been engaged for four hours before a soul knew anything about it.—Philadelphia Record.

One Was Enough. "Was Gotsang's marriage a success?" "I hardly think so, I heard him say the other day that he would never go to the penitentiary for bigamy."—Brooklyn Life.

All a Mistake. Belle—Do you think the world is growing better? Flora—I thought so, my dear, until I married George to reform him.—Smart Set.

A Postmistress's Pan. "I see that a pearl necklace has just been sold in Paris for $54,330." "Strange how fools with money will throat away."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Couldn't Say. The Patient—Is it true that Welsh rarebits are unhealthy? The Doctor—I can't say. I was never called in to attend one.—N. Y. World.

Something to Remember. When a cough or cold is long neglected consumption almost invariably follows. Remember Mexican Syrup only costs 25 cents a bottle, and yet has proven in many thousands of cases an absolute safe cure for coughs, colds and consumption. Taken in time it cures quickly. Children like it because it tastes so good. Insist on your druggist keeping it for sale. Read the seemingly miraculous cures it has effected, printed on the wrapper around the bottle.

A Pityable Sight. What is more pitiable than to see a puny, delicate little child absolutely dying from neglect. There are many little ones, whose cheeks would grow rosy, whose eyes would grow bright, whose flesh would be plump and pretty if only the worms that are gnawing at their vitals were removed, which is easily effected with Mother's Worm Syrup, so nice to take that children ask for it. Also a cure for tape worm in grown people. Try a 25 cent bottle.

The Secret of Good Health. The secret of beauty and good health is cleanliness. Uncleanliness breeds disease. Internal cleanliness is even of greater importance than external. Keep your liver active and your bowels thoroughly clean by taking a Mexican Root Pill occasionally. Their use does the nerves, kidneys, etc., good also. Only 25 cents a box.

Gooch's Quick Relief. When your joints and bones ache and your flesh feels tender and sore, a 25 cent bottle of Gooch's Quick Relief will give you quick relief. Best cure for colic.

Healthy Blood Makes Healthy Flesh. To have good flesh and good feeling, to look well and feel well take some Gooch's Sarsaparilla. Nothing else so good for pale and sickly women.

File-ine Cures Piles! Money refunded if it ever fails. ANTI-AGE cures Chills and Fever.
