SANDYSTON.

Those connected with having farmers' Institute meeting in this valley are perfecting the program for the next meeting. Everything pertaining to the farm will be discussed by practical speakers who know whereof they speak. The last meeting held here was a success, and if the state board will do their part, the people here will see to the filling the building to hear the speakers. The date of the meeting will be announced in due season.

Walter Kyte, youngest son of John and Sarah Kyte of Hainesville, died at his parents' home on Thursday last, aged about 31 years. His health had not been good for some years, yet he was about the farm most of the time. He was sober, temperate, obliging to all, and was much respected.

Visiting the Hainesville cemetery a day or two ago I noticed the handsome monument erected to the memory of Jacob B. Carner and Catharine, his wife. Soon after her husband's death Mrs. Carner had the stone erected and I was informed that her remains are interred in the cemetery of the Orange county poor farm. Relatives should see to it that her remains are laid to rest along side of those of her husband, in her beautiful plot in the Hainesville cemetery.

Just because a trustee did not like the teacher engaged to teach his school, he refused to let her have the key of the school room and has it yet, and to cap the climax, he did not have the school room cleaned as did the trustees of other schools, and now because another teacher had been engaged, whom he does not like, he threatens to shut up the school house, but I guess his vaporizings are an empty wind.

I am glad to see that a good many are cutting the brush and weeds along the road adjoining their lands. Here and there is one who does not attend to this duty and when such is the case it is the duty of the road master to do the work and charge the same to the owner of the lands. At least I think that is the law.

The Farmers', Mechanics' and Tradesmen's picnic came off on Saturday last and like many of the picnics wound up in a rainstorm. The attendance was not as large as in former years and almost every one condemned the condition of the grounds. It is pretty safe to predict, that unless those grounds are put in order the people will not attend for the grounds were in a horrible condition, to say nothing about the road getting in and out from the grounds.

I notice in the post office at Layton the time table of trains on the Delaware Valley railroad from Stroudsburg to Bushkill announcing the arrival and departure of trains from those points. Their engineers are surveying a line through this town and it is to be hoped that no difficulty will be encountered in getting right of way. A railroad through this valley can not fail in benefiting the inhabitants, and now that the prospects are bright no obstacles should be thrown in its way.

The Sunday school picnic held on Thursday last in V. E. Bevans' grove was largely attended, and judging from what I hear all had a pleasant time.

The Sussex Record came out in a new dress in its last issue, and its plain print is just the thing. May the Record continue to prosper in the wish of its many readers.

Edward Adams, wife and daughtion with Francis Simpson at Layton.

Mr. Adams is a resident of Bloomfield, N. J.

Some teachers have a habit of making applications for schools in different townships to the annoyance of the boards of education. The 8 schools of this town opened on Tuesday, and with the exception of the school at Bevans all are in operation.
A Miss Brown was chosen by our board for that school, and a day or two ago notice was received that she had a school at the time of hiring here.
It is annoying to school officials and defeated a local teacher from getting that school and applications from such will not be considered by our board in the future.

Weather report for August, taken at Layton: Mean maximum temperature 82.35; mean minimum temperature 59.82; mean temperature 70.53; maximum, 92° on the 21st; minimum, 46° on the 2d; total precipitation, 6.26 inches; days clear, 14; partly cloudy, 7; cloudy, 10; prevailing wind, south.

DOWN THE COUNTY.

Two deplorable accidents happened to two well known residents of Bushkill last Friday, one of which resulted fatally and the other is likely to result in death.

Thomas F. Bennett, a contractor and builder living in Bushkill, was engaged in removing a barn in Middle Smithfield on Wm. F. Over-field's premises for the railway company when a heavy timber, being hoisted by a derrick, loosened and fell, striking Mr. Bennett on the head and injuring him perhaps fatally. When he was picked up he was unconscious and blood was issuing from his nostrils and ears. He was taken home and Dr. Smith was called. His case was pronounced very critical. Tonight, Sunday, we hear Mr. Bennett recognizes no one.
It is a sad, sad case.

Immediately after hearing the sorrowful news reported above we were shocked to hear that Daniel Cole, a son of Mr. James H. Cole, and a brother-in-law of Hon. J. B.
Westbrook, had been killed by a falling tree at Tri-States, where he was employed. Further we can give no particulars, excepting that it is supposed the accident happened on Friday. The remains were expected home at Bushkill on Saturday. In their sudden and terrible bereavement Mr. Cole and his family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Isaac H. Smith of Delaware is having a large addition built to his dwelling house. Messrs. Joseph and Wallace Benesty are doing the carpenter work.

Mrs. Harriet A. Raitt, aged 74, killed a rattlesnake last week while she was on her way to pick huckleberries.

Mrs. Sarah Little of Lehman died at the home of her son, John Little, on Sunday last at the remarkable age of 91 years, 3 months and 30 days. She was a most excellent woman and was highly esteemed.
She is survived by two sons and it is believed she has a brother living in the west. Interment in Swarts-wood cemetery.

The fair of the Dingmans M. E. church was a financial success, notwithstanding the weather part of the time was very unfavorable.
About $100 were realized.

"I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the fall of 1848. Since then I have taken it every spring as a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine."

If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old standard family medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
It's a regular nerve lifter, a perfect blood builder. 25 cts a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this good old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be richer.

Co. of New York, spent Labor day railing on friends here.

Miss Emma Billman has been appointed assistant teacher in the den too great for Miss Sarah Remy, the teacher in charge. Miss Billman has just returned from a visit to Paterson and was accompanied by her friend, Miss Jennie Demor-est of that city.

Lake Wood, Asbury Park and other places of resort, returned home last week.

Mrs. Charles Nichols, on Washington street, is visiting friends and relatives in New York City.

The picnic and reunion of the Courtright family took place on Wednesday, August 28th, at the grove near Greenville. Ten of the children of the Courtright family in Matamoras were in attendance. This reunion has always been held on the 30th of August. Mrs. Margaret Courtright, the old lady in whose honor their reunion was celebrated, has died, and this is the first picnic since her death. About one hundred and twenty-five were served with refreshments. Everyone had a delightful time. Mrs. Charles Quick of Matamoras is a relative of Mrs. Margaret Courtright. She was in attendance at the picnic with Miss Hattie Allen, of the Allen House. Hereafter the reunion will take place on the last Wednesday in August. This was decided upon at the last picnic.

The farmers of this section are quite behind time with their fall work, owing to the wet weather.
The oat crop was a failure and a great many fields were ruined by the rains after being cut. The backwheat promises to be more of a crop.
