SANDYSTON.

The social and fair combined at the Layton church was prevented by the rain on the evening of the 2d and was adjourned until the evening of the 3rd. The weather was fine and brought out a large crowd comfortably filling the edifice. The sale of articles and proceeds of the supper netted a grand total of $88 and is thought to be nearly enough to paint the building and the purchase of new stoves.

A school trustee is supposed to know the requirements of his office and to do all that he can for the betterment of his school. And yet one trustee refused a teacher the key to her school room, last year, and this year when spoken to about having the school room cleaned remarked that he didn't think there would be any school, so the clerk of the board had to order it done.

On Friday last I was shown through the paper box factory of Mr. Savaco on Spring street, Newton. For any one who has never seen the machinery and the way paper boxes are made it is worth the time to go in and see how it is done.
The rapidity with which boxes are made is astonishing, and the factory has all it can do to keep orders filled.

I saw references made in one of our county papers that a certain person had anarchistic views, whereupon that individual admitted that he was a socialist. I just looked up the socialist platform of 1900 and found much in it that any good American could endorse. In fact, it has many good things in it that I would like to see in force and effect.

The board of education at its meeting on Monday evening appointed Alonzo Dupue to teach the remainder of the term of the Shayton school, Loren Dupue having resigned.

Mahlon M. Transue, a veteran of the civil war, died on Monday last at the residence of his daughter in Branchville aged 82 years. He served in Co. A 27th Regiment and in Battery A 1st N. J. Light Artillery.
He was injured while supporting a battery and was drawing a pension of $22 per month. He leaves two daughters, both married.

The severe frosts of Saturday and Monday mornings were damaging to vegetation, and those not covering their flowers have no occasion to cover them now.

The most important topic of discussion is the merits and demerits of the Roe fish bill. It is pretty certain that this bill will bring out as many voters as a presidential election. Many are arguing that the state should purchase all the lakes large and small and not saddle it all upon Sussex county. There are more lakes in Sussex, of an area of 100 acres and upward, than in any two counties in the state. The law is not intended for any county, only Sussex, and if a bill was before the people for state ownership of the southern and central part of the state would defeat any such bill. It was not intended to be mixed with politics, but those opposed to the bill have succeeded in dragging it in, and voters irrespective of party should eliminate the political (?) part, if there is any, and vote for a bill that insures them their rights.

A great many people would grumble if they should be placed in a front seat in Heaven and just that class claimed that Frankford should put her road leading from Culvers Gap to Branchville in better order, and complain of mud holes, etc. Now, through the kindness and public spirit of Col. Price, cracked stone have been put in the road almost the entire distance, but those howlers can not wait until those stone wear down and the next thing they will want will be macadam and a steam roller. The road will be fine in a short time.

The October examination for teachers' certificates was held in the Newton public school building on Friday and Saturday last. Only 16 applications were present on Friday, the smallest number for an October examination that I remember of in many years.

When a person was heard to say that he could do anything in Sandyston without fear of the law then it is time for people to see if that remark can be carried out. Last spring at town meeting a party openly sold whiskey, and that whiskey caused more drunkenness than I ever saw at a spring election. Many look upon such violation of the law as a common thing and yet it is a direct violation of the law and because of the alleged prominence (?) of the party selling, nothing is said about it. It is time that the above remark be refuted and that those selling intoxicating drinks be compelled to obey the law.

MATAMORAS.

A Port Jervis party took a load of ladders to Branchville on Saturday last and upon his return his team ran away near Centreville spilling things, but when the team was caught it was found that every thing was in good order. A second smashup happened on the same afternoon with the team of Mrs. Mettler, driven by Mr. Mink. While driving along near the residence of Daniel Hevan the bridle came off one of the horses.
They ran into the fence tumbling the driver and a barrel of ether into the gutter. Mr. Mink was badly bruised and the wagon is a complete wreck.

tives in Milford this week.

Alfred Billman on Cookson street.
Fred Van Sickle of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ramago of Montague, N. J., were also guests of Mrs. Billman on Sunday.

The teachers and pupils of the Matamoras high school are desirous of having a nicely framed picture of our late president, William McKinley. A gift of this character from a public-spirited citizen or citizens will be most highly appreciated by the pupils and teachers of the school. Will some one respond to the request?

Miss Nellie Langton, a trained nurse of New York, returned home on Monday night. She visited her sister, Mrs. James Van Dyne, of Waldwick, N. J., before coming to Matamoras.

spending a week with friends at Long Island City, L. I., returned home Tuesday evening.

friends and relatives in Matamoras and Port Jervis.
Fred Hoppy of Matamoras died suddenly at the Marine hospital, Irvington, Va., on September 25.
Mr. Hoppy was employed by the Hughes Transportation company.
He was on a trip when to Virginia taken ill. He leaves a widow, Mrs.
Caroline Hoppy, and two sons, Fred and Willie, both at home.

The Epworth church Bible class met this week on Thursday evening at the parsonage.

this village.

City returned home Saturday after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Laforgue Nyon.

Hope church were conducted by Secretary Harry Heim of the Y. M.
C. A. of Port Jervis. In the evening he was assisted by Messrs Hector and Smith of Port Jervis.
The services were of a very interesting nature.

On Monday evening the U. E. S. of the Baptist church, Port Jervis, had a reunion of all the societies.
Hope and Epworth churches were invited and took part in the night at the home of Misses Maggie street. A social was held after the meeting.

DELAWARE.

We are experiencing some very cold nights.

Most of the farmers of this vicinity are through with their fall work, with the exception of husking corn.

Many different stories are being told about the Delaware township shooting affair. No reliable news can be obtained as yet.

Rev. Victor A. Wood has been holding revival services at the Meadow Brook school house this week.

Buckwheat cakes and cider are now in vogue, but the latter is rather scarce.

There is an unusual amount of game this fall, with the exception of pheasants which are quite scarce.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bensley of Danmore, Pa., are visiting their numerous friends and relatives in Lehman and Delaware townships.
Mr. Bensley met with a serious accident on July 17th which might have resulted fatally. While working about a coal train he was caught between the bumpers of two loaded cars and the calf of his left leg was crushed to a jelly. He is now able to be about, however.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Titman, on Oct. 2, a girl. F. L. L.

Is Life Worth Living?

Then don't neglect a cough or cold, especially when only twenty-five cents will buy a bottle of Mexican Syrup. It is so soothing, and so many consumptives have been made well by its use. Read some of the testimonials on the wrapper around each bottle that prove this remedy more sure for deep-seated colds, habitual coughing and even consumption, than any other remedy known to physicians, many of whom recommend and prescribe it where less efficacious remedies fail.

Pale, Puny Children.

If a child has a bad smelling breath, if it habitually picks its nose, if it is cross and nervous, if it is hollow-eyed, if it has a pale, bloodless complexion, if it is growing thin and lifeless, give it Mother's Worm Syrup and you will remove the cause of its distress quickly. Then will its little cheeks get red and rosy, its appetite and digestion improve, and its health be better. Price only 25 cents. No other worm-killer so effective.

Be Not Deceived.

Don't think you can neglect your health and reach old age. The way to longevity is to be kind to nature and then nature will be kind to you.
Constipation, inactive liver, etc., are foes to nature. Mexican Root Pills help nature. Try them. They cure by cleansing and strengthening.

or external pain, so quickly and so effectively as Gooch's Quick Relief.
