DEED TO 175 PEOPLE. Under the above caption our had I in each of said townships. neighbor, The Dispatch, this week makes some undeserved reflections and misleading statements. Under the law requiring non-residents, not owners of lands, to take out licenses to hunt the game commission technically held that members of park associations holding stock in the letter of the law landowners business in the south, and would be required to take out licenses. The Blooming Grove Park association, owning property percaps with its improvements to the value of a million dollars in this county and paying annually taxes on its wild lands alone to the amount of about $500 and composed of many wealthy non-resident members, comes under this decision. It could have deeded some of its own lands to its members, but Mr. Bull, having, as executor, a piece of land, they preferred, to avoid complications, to make a distinct purchase, view of the law, and in making the the insane, to the institution. deed Mr. Bull acted as other wellmeaning citizens of the county who have made similar deeds for similar perty to his wife and names her purposes. The article referred to is a distinct reflection on all grantcoed out of $1750 each year" in this transaction. This statement must be made either through ignorance or malice for the law distinctly says that one-half the license fees goes to the state treasurer. These deeds need no defence. They are legitimeted to the state treasurer and good books, well bound, as Christman and church privileges and select. The prices are mate transactions under the law and parties to them should not be held at Shamokin next March. maligned or held up to ridicule as "buncoers" and despoilers of the county.
