CORRESPONDENCE.

MATAMORAS.

A letter received from Clarence Daily dated Oct. 17 aboard the U. S.
F. S. Chicago stationed at Leghorn, Italy, was received by his friend, Grafton Crain, in which he states he arrived there from Genoa, Italy, Oct. 15. Clarence is one of our boys and is taking a long voyage.
He will not return in two years.
We wish him well in his new field of labor.

Mrs. J. Fitzhugh and little daughter from Jersey City left for their home Sunday. They have been spending some time in Matamoras visiting Mrs. J. S. Palmatrix's.

There was no school at the high school on Thursday and Friday of this week. The teachers and pupils have two holidays.

The Rev. Mr. Rimansky from New York, the musical revivalist, preached in Epworth church on Monday evening to a large audience.

Married, at the Methodist parsonage, Port Jervis, by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Chadwick, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20, William D. Smith of New York city to Lucy A. Keyes, daughter of the late Josiah and Mrs. Keyes on River street. Miss Keyes' friends tender their congratulations and wish them a long and happy married life. Their home will be in New York.

Miss Ida E. Westbrook, a trained nurse from Columbus, Georgia, and also from Warm Springs, Georgia, arrived in Port Jervis Wednesday evening. She took the steamer from Columbus, came by water to New York and is now at her home near Milford. Miss Westbrook's friends are pleased to see her again.

Revival services will continue through this week at Epworth church. Rev. F. E. Rimansky is here to assist Rev. Mr. Spencer and Rev. C. S. McDowell.

The Bay Bess society of Epworth church meets this Saturday at the home of Miss Nellie Westfall on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Babcock on Washington street were pleasantly surprised Friday evening at their home by about 50 friends, some from Port Jervis and other places.
The guests arrived at about 8 o'clock. It was a complete surprise but Mr. and Mrs. Babcock were equal to the occasion and entertained their friends in a very hospitable manner. Refreshments were served and good music furnished for dancing by Wm. Barnes and Joe Sonner, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

Rev. L. H. Yorgey from Look Haven, Pa., had charge of the morning service at Hope church on Sunday.

Mrs. Justin Chase and child have recovered from their sickness. They have been ill for some time. Mrs.
Chase will resume her baking again.

The funeral of Wm. Rose took place Saturday afternoon at Epworth church at 2.30. Rev. T. G.
Spencer officiated. The funeral was largely attended. The pall bearers were: J. G. Van Gordon, Monroe Strait, Amie Strait, George Strait.
His remains were laid in the Rose-town cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Cole of State Hill were in attendance.

Mrs. Allen of the Allen House, who has been seriously sick, is improving.

John Decker, who drives one of the brewery wagons, is very sick at his home here.

John Shoemaker who is employed in the machine shop and who was taken ill there Friday, is resting comfortably at his home.

Henry Myers has accepted a position in the glass factory in Port Jervis.

Loria Langton, who has been sick for the past week, is able to attend school.

USE FOR THE PEERAGE.

Occupying a place of honor in the affairs of a New York printer is an old copy of "Burke's Peerage," and its presence amid such incongruous surroundings attests the utility of a usual visitor to the other day, says at exchange of the day.

"It isn't so strange as you might think," said the proprietor, by way of explanation. "You see, a considerable part of our business consists of printing labels of various kinds, and Burke is a great help to us. I don't suppose the British aristocracy would be particularly edified to know this, but it's a fact.

"Suppose we take the case of—well, say Robinson, who keeps a little hat store up in Harlem. Robinson comes in here and wants me to get him up some fancy designs—a trade-mark that he can place upon his goods. When I show him our regular stock designs for such purposes the chances are he will turn up his nose. That's where "Burke's Peerage" comes in.

"I take it down and ostentatiously turn to the proud name of Robinson where the crests of that illustrious family are duly pictured forth, together with their Latin mottoes and all the records of their nobility. Robinson, of Harlem, is fascinated and his eyes bulge out of his head. I ask him which branch of the family is his and he makes some sort of a bluff.

"He picks out his crest, with its Latin motto, which is unintelligible to him, and a week later it's reproduced on the hat which he sells up in Harlem. If any of these literary fellows should ask me about books that have helped me I should place "Burke's Peerage" well up at the front."

CATS SPOILED THE HUNTING.
House Pets Take to the Woods in Mistake and Destroy the Small Game.

The experience of trappers at Holbrook's and Edgington's ponds, near Bangor, Me., during the past winter has demonstrated the fact that the common house cat will, when turned loose in the woods and left to its own resources, become as wild in the course of a month or two as any bobcat, says the New York Times.

It is the custom of cottage owners at the ponds to take cats to their places in the spring to drive out the mice that take possession of the cottage during the winter and in the fall, when the cottagers return to town, these cats are usually forgotten and left to shift for themselves.

Trappers just returned from the ponds report that their season has been a failure because the wild house cats have robbed the traps, eating into shreds the mink and muskrats that were daily caught and feasting on their flesh. Every morning around the traps the hunters found evidences of feasting by the cats and of fierce battles between the cats and animals caught in the traps. Recently a dozen of the wild cats have been shot, but the woods are full of them, and so long as they remain there will be no profit in trapping.

Answered Without Hesitation.
"Maria Jane," said a fond mother, the other morning, to her daughter, "did Daniel Johnson kiss you on the steps last night?"
"No, mamma, he did not."
If the fond parent had said "lips" instead of "steps" it would have troubled Maria Jane to reply.—Tribune.

Did You Know This?
Do you know that a neglected cough or cold leads to consumption?
More people die from the effects of coughing cold than from any other known cause. There is one remedy, and remember it only costs twenty-five cents, that has proven a safe, unfailing cure for coughs and colds.
It is called Mexican Syrup. Your druggist has it or will get it for you.
It heals and strengthens the lungs and breathing passages, when nothing else you take seems to do you good; you had better get a bottle today and read the testimonials on the wrapper.

Have You Worms?
Are you growing thin or sickly?
Has your skin a pale or sallow tinge? Do you not occasionally feel a hollow sensation in the pit of your stomach, or a queer distress in your bowels? Do you get easily vexed, nervous or fidgety? Probably you are nourishing some stomach worms, a lengthy tape worm, or else a thousand pin worms, that are debilitating your entire system.
You can expel them by taking Mother's Worm Syrup. Nothing else is so effective.

Better Health.
Better health always follows a use of Mexican Root Pills, simply because they cleanse the system of stomach and effort matter so thoroughly and completely. It is a sin to remain constipated when Mexican Root Pills only cost 25 cents a box.

The Best Pain Cure.
Is one that is absolutely safe and sure and that taken internally will cure cramps and colic, or applied externally will reduce swellings and subdue pain. Gooch's Quick Relief does this and only costs 25 cents a box.

Want to Be Pretty?
Then purify your blood by taking Gooch's Sarsaparilla, the best of all blood medicines.

Pile-les Cures Piles!
Money refunded if it ever fails.

Mrs. A. K. Killam has returned from an extended visit among relatives and friends in New York state.

Miss Helen Killam is the guest of Hawley friends for the greater part of this week.

Miss Fannie Bennett visited among a few of our neighbors last week.
Miss Bennett is one of our missionaries who believes in converting the heathen in foreign countries and will shortly leave for her work among our eastern neighbors.

B. F. Killam and George Ansley each took their guns and went deer hunting last week. After a walk of about an hour in the neighborhood of Big Pond they both brought down a fine deer and returned home with them much pleased with their day's sport.

Several of our young men have taken advantage of this elegant weather and are putting in the week camping at Big Pond and hunting deer between time. At last reports the deer had still neglected to call and pay their respects to them and the chief employment was gathering fuel and sitting around the amoudering logs of their camp fire.

We are much pleased to hear of the improved condition of our young friend, Henri Vetterlin, and hope ere long he will be able to again join in the games of his schoolmates.

Superintendent Geo. Sawyer passed through the place last Monday on the way to visit the schools of Greene township. He called on a few of our schools while on his way.

Force of Habit.
"Drummer, isn't he?"
"Yes, confirmed. Why, he has been on the road so long that when he gets home and his wife hands him the biscuits at the dinner table he immediately begins to flirt with her!"
—Puck.

An Impossibility.
"I don't believe you love me a bit," sobbed his wife.
"But I do, darling. I—" "Don't tell me. It's unnatural you should. No man could love a woman who wears such old hats as I do."
—Philadelphia Times.

Coughs

"My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely."
J. H. Burge, Macon, Col.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones!

The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

There's more strength in an ordinary cough than you think. It's a dangerous sign. Don't neglect it. It's best to buy a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at once. It's the best cough medicine in the world. It's sold everywhere.
