CORRESPONDENCE.

MATAMORAS.

Christopher Deushur, aged 81 years, died at his home in upper Matamoras recently after a few weeks' illness of dropsy. He was a longtime resident of this village and was well known. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Altman of Matamoras, two sons, August, of Matamoras, and Fred, of Sparrowhush. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Altman, on Mountain street at 1.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Wassmund, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiated.
There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The remains were laid to rest in Laurel Grove cemetery.

E. E. Space, of Matamoras, wishes to deny the story that there is a case of diphtheria in his family. His son, Ray, aged 15, had been ill of quinsy sore throat, from which fact the story of diphtheria arose. The fact is now able to be around the house, and is improving nicely.

At a meeting of the teachers of the Hope church Sunday school held recently the following named officers were elected for the coming year: Superintendent, Ed. Labar; assistant superintendent, Rockwell Heidenthal; secretary, A. W. Balch, Jr.; treasurer, Andrew Van Inwegen; librarian, W. F. Speldel; assistant librarian, Brewer Lockwood; organist, Miss Hattie Wesley.

Mrs. George Londy and little daughter, Luella, are visiting friends and relatives at Lake Como, Pa., for a few days.

Mrs. John Simpson, of Cookson street, is visiting her parents at Passaic, N. J.

J. S. Palmajler, wife and daughter, Hazel, are visiting their daughter in Jersey City and Brooklyn.

Mrs. Dan McPeck and little son, Charlie, have been in Matamoras for a few days, at her old home on Second street.

Misses Emma and Cora Billman are visiting friends in Paterson, Passaic and New York and will be absent about 10 days.

Mrs. Harry Lilley and little son, Alfred, have been visiting at her old home on Cookson street, at Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Billman's.

Benj. Lilley of New York is calling on his old friends in Matamoras. He is looking well.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Heath took place Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock from St. Joseph's church, this village, Rev. Father Treis, pastor of the church, delivering the funeral address. Many flowers were placed on the casket by sorrowing friends.
Her remains were laid to rest in Laurel Grove cemetery.

There were Christmas services in the morning at St. Joseph's church at 6 o'clock with a large attendance.
The choir sang a new mass, with orchestral accompaniment, which was very pleasing and deserves great praise. The decorations in the church were very attractive. Two new designs have been placed upon the high altar in the form of angels bearing the candelabra. They are of very artistic work, and the new light that the church has now makes a very pretty effect. Father Treis delivered a very appropriate address on Christmas. At 4 p. m. Santa Claus visited the pupils of the Sunday school at the church and presented them with Christmas presents.
At 8 o'clock Rev. Father Treis gave a reception at the rectory to the society and members of the choir.

Stanley French, a clerk drug at Hackensack, N. J., spent Sunday with his parents on Adams street.

The L. C. U. held its meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Abe Brink on Pennsylvania avenue.

There was a meeting at Epworth church on Tuesday night.

Hair Falls

"I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling. One-half a bottle cured me." J. C. Baxter, Bridwood, Ill.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way.

It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, make the hair grow, and restore color to gray hair.

Good Thing for Pure Brides.
A curious custom exists in the Prussian family of selecting every July a half dozen young women, too poor to marry and having them wedded in the parish church at Pote-dam on the anniversary of the death of Queen Louise of Prussia. After the ceremony each bride receives a gift of a sum equivalent to about $125 and a handsome family Bible.— Chicago Chronicle.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 10c in gold and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and get the name of your druggist on the wrapper.

GREENTOWN.

Frank Graser and Anna Walls, both of Greentown, were united in marriage on Christmas day by the Rev. C. W. Dowell. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother. Good wishes to the young couple.

We can imagine that we have other wedding bells ringing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Barthman spent Friday and Saturday of last week with the latter's sister, Mrs.
Looy Simons, of Sterling, who has been very sick.

Richard Dawson, who has been ailing for a long time, is no longer.

Samuel Hamilton lost a valuable horse last week.

P. R. Cross is improving again.

Prof. J. C. Watson, principal of the Milford schools, was in Green-town last week.

We took pleasure in reading the poem entitled "Lady Blanche" in last week's Pines.

KIMBLES.

Ady Rowland of Rowlands visited her brother, Miles, and family one day last week.

George Cortright and wife spent Christmas with relatives at Rowlands.

M. C. Rowland made all of his employees a present of a fine box of candy Christmas.

Our Christmas entertainment passed off very nicely. The tree was well laden with presents for the Sunday school scholars and they all took part in the recitations and singing.

The flood of Dec. 15 undermined the dam at Kimbles and M. C. Rowland had the water drawn from the pond last week.

Horton Kimble of Soranton returned home Saturday after spending a week with Edward Malone and family.

Peru's History.

The shortest history on record, probably, has been written by Senor Carlos Escobedo, a Peruvian. It is only 100 words in length. Following is the English translation: "The Asiatic origin of the primitive Peruvians admitted, their rudimentary civilization ended with the appearance of Manco Capeo, founder of the Inca empire.
His 12 successors, continuing his policy, constituted that vast theocratic and communitarian monarchy which astonished the world. Conquered by Pizarro (1532), it became a Spanish colony, whose 14 viceroys kept it in medieval darkness, and whose heavy yoke provoked the independence proclaimed by San Martin (1821), cemented by Bolivar and Sucre at Junin and Ayacucho. The republic established, anarchy supervened, presidents rapidly succeeded, until the disastrous war with Chili, which, chastening minds, has prepared the future."—Detroit

A Dangerous Sign.

You have got a cough and you don't worry. Don't you know cough is something terrible. It leads to consumption and consumption is killing thousands. Better cure that cough, better cure it quickly. Get a 25 cent bottle of Mexican Cough Syrup. No other remedy so slow to take.

Something Good.

So many go to their druggists and merely ask for "something good" for a cough or cold. Now if the druggist has several remedies he certainly will sell the one that does not cost much. When you go to a drug store better know what you want. Ask for Mexican Cough Syrup if you want the nicest and quickest cure twenty-five cents will buy. Take no other.

Nauseating Laxatives.

It is cruel to give your children medicine that tastes nasty to cure them of a cough or cold. A pleasant and effective remedy for sore throat, weak lungs, bronchial affections and coughing spells is Mexican Cough Syrup, and please don't forget that it only costs 25 cents.

Better Health.

Better health always follows a use of Mexican Root Pills, simply because they cleanse the system of sticking and effete matter so thoroughly and completely. It is a sin to remain constipated when Mexican Root Pills only cost 25 cents a box.

It Is a Pity.

The human family are prone to pain. Pain in the joints, in the muscles, headache, backache, rheumatism, cramps, etc., certainly make life miserable. Therefore it is a pity that any such sufferers hesitate to expend 25 cents for Quick Relief, the always sure external as well as internal cure.

Piles.

You ought to thank God you do not suffer from piles. Inward or external, sore or bleeding piles are painful. Tell your friends who suffer that Pile-ine is guaranteed to cure or money refunded.
