THE NEXT GOVERNOR

Republicans Looking Anxiously to the State Convention.

A TIME FOR WISE ACTION

Senator Quay's Return to Washington Causes Increased Interest—How a Factional Candidate Would Affect the United States Senatorship, Democratic Hopes For Republican Mistakes.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—The recent return of United States Senator Quay from the overland of Florida, with a fresh stock of health and the promise of renewed activity in public life, delights his friends at Harrisburg and elsewhere.

Among Republicans, who are more concerned for the success of the party than for the view of a faction, the impression prevails that when Colonel Quay's health is good and his hand is on the helm, the party is more likely to prevail than when men of small calibre and subordinate rank undertake to speak the language of statesmanship and to frame platforms in accordance with their own insular notions of things.

A striking example in this line was furnished in the construction of the Republican state platform built by the party journeyman during Quay's absence from the last state convention. That pronouncement was so "fearfully and wonderfully made" that it excited the indignation of the reverent throughout the state, and even the orthodox were moved to mirth by its idiosyncrasies. It was full of those "things that were best unsaid" from beginning to end, and when, some days after the convention, it came under the notice of Master Workman Quay, the atmosphere was so electric that for a few seconds and it was well for the craftmen who put it together that he was not within hailing distance.

No such accident will befall the party platform this year, judging by the flattering reports concerning Colonel Quay's health which are sent out from Washington, and it is even more to be desired that there be no blunder in the nomination of a candidate for governor. Colonel Quay is credited with two brief statements since his return to the national capital. One of these is that he does not intend to resign his seat in the senate, and the other that he has not declared his preference for any particular candidate for governor. I believe both these statements are correct, all interested reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

A WINNING CANDIDATE.
At no time in the history of Pennsylvania has there been greater call for circumspection on the part of the dominant party than there is in this year, and the party managers cannot fail to be aware of the fact. From the end of the campaign to the demand of the Republicans is for gubernatorial nomination that will win all along the line. The opportunity to score a decided success is just as great as is the opportunity to perpetrate a monumental blunder, and either the one or the other hinges on the nomination for governor. If the party managers are wise, they will in their hands use it ruthlessly to force a factional nomination there can be no doubt whatever that such action will have a demoralizing effect and be a source of comfort to the opposition, whose hopes of victory are based on the expectation that such a mistake will be made. With the nomination of such a candidate as Colonel L. A. Watres all danger of defeat in any district of the state would disappear and party harmony would be preserved. This is no guess-work, but a statement founded on fact. Everywhere I find his candidacy regarded with respect and in many counties with enthusiasm. The rank and file of the Republican party take kindly to his simple, straightforward announcement that he is a candidate for governor as a straight Republican, without grievances or grudges and in strict accordance with the principles of the great political organization with which he has been in accord since his boyhood. Up to the present writing the candidacy of Colonel Watres is the only one before the Republicans of the state, and so far as I am able to learn, it is everywhere accepted as that of a man of experience, ability and party fealty, whose nomination would mean harmony and victory.

As I have stated in a previous letter, neither Colonel Watres nor his friends claim that he is the only Republican who can unite the party and lead it to success. That would be an extravagant assumption wholly foreign to his ideas, as well as the purpose of this letter; but the friends of Colonel Watres, and they number a good many, have firm confidence in his ability, his integrity and what may be termed for lack of a better word, his availability. They regard him as a Republican whose nomination would be a creditable one, because it would represent merit and experience; and a prudent one, because it would not injure the party anywhere or threaten its success through dissension in any county or district in the state.

Moreover, the friends of Colonel Watres are convinced that his nomination would be a wise one, because it would leave the Democracy no possible opportunity to expect a victory in the state, or in any Republican county or district thereof.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE PICTURE
Now let us look for a moment at what the far-reaching consequences of an unpopular Republican machine.

Frank Treadwell, Bennett, Pa., was troubled with kidney disease for two years. He writes: "I had taken several kidney remedies, but with little benefit. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and a dollar bottle cured me." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. B'nai Israel, New York, Jan. 8, 1901.

Dr. Tapp Brod's Medicine Co. Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I changed to your medicine on 120th Street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle my wife has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Dr. Tapp Brod's Medicine Co. Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 23 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I read across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased 2 1/2 bottles but he, and I am ever grateful. I have a family of four children, the youngest being only 10 months old. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERNER, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago, my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in the ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for curable, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent one of the city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the best success would be the case, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

Then, after your advertisement appeared in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noise ceased, and today, after six weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain, very truly yours,
