A Man of Business.
"I just can't get John to go to church," complained his wife. "Five years ago he said he would not go because it took the preacher too long to deliver the sermon, and now he says he cannot go because it takes him all the morning to read the Sunday paper."—Baltimore American.

Ought to Have.
Little Ethel—My papa has a whole lot of money.
Little Tommy—Well, he ought to have a lot.
Little Ethel—Why?
Little Tommy—Cos my papa says he never pays any out. — Kansas City Times.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.
Mrs. Ellen Harrison of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Reluctant Reason.
"The trouble with me," remarked the man in the monkey coat, "when it comes to making speeches, is that I can't think on my feet."
"I don't wonder," observed the man in the imitation seal skin cap, looking at their ample proportions. "I'd be awfully embarrassed myself with a pair of feet like that."—Chicago Tribune.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.
"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman of Monticomb, Ind. "I tried all remedies available but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

His Criticism.
"What do you think of our new oil painting?" asked Mrs. Cumrox.
"Well," answered Mr. Cumrox, "it looks right good from the front, but if you turn it around and look at the other side I must say the material seems kind o' cheap."—Washington Star.

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.
Robt J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House drug store of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, "There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

The Rights of Man.
Penhecker—Oh, dear, I wish I was a woman.
Friend—You do? What on earth for?
Penhecker—Why, I'm tired of doing as I'm told, and should like to have my own way for a change.—Ally Sloper.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and will not constipate like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

His Lack of Consideration.
"He is a most inconsiderate man, I understand."
"How?"
"He refuses to give his wife any grounds on which to get a divorce with alimony."—Chicago Post.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes kidneys and bladder right. Don't delay taking. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Evidence.
"Does Mr. Williams know much about horse races?"
"No," answered the man with a faded and experienced look.
"How can you tell?"
"By the fact that he is willing to bet on them."—Washington Star.

Foley's Kidney Cure if taken in time affords security from all kidney and bladder diseases. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Ignorant Little Thing.
Aunt—Well, Ethel, how do you like your new little brother?
Ethel (aged four)—I don't like him at all. He can't even speak English.—Ti-Bits.

The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.
