The meat trust is buying up potatoes, onions and other vegetables, also eggs, sheep and fresh meats in the cities. In many towns residents have organized and agreed to eat no meat while the "squeeze" continues and this movement is spreading.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes us as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

April 16 was Pennsylvania day at the Charleston exposition. Governor Stone with his staff and a number of ladies were present and formal exercises were held in the state building.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

The recent imposition of a duty on grain in England has caused an advance of one shilling a sack on flour in that country. This is equivalent to 24 cents on 3 bushels, or 12 pecks, of meal, that being the method of measure in that country.

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.

Robt J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House drug store of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, "There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

The Boer war has driven England from her free trade theories and practices and she will place an import duty on flour and meal and increase the income tax.

Pneumonia is Robbed of its Terrors.

By Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the rattling cough and hoarseness and strengthens the lungs. If taken in time it will prevent an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Greenland has a total population of 11,127 persons.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and will not constitute a danger to nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Letters of administration have been granted on the estate of John Hess, late of Shohola, to his widow, Lona C. Hess.

HAMILTON, an artist of Peckville, N. Y., has rented for the year the house on upper Water street occupied by John Wolf. Real estate agents note the fact that there is an unusual demand by city people for houses here this season and already several have been rented.

Foley's Kidney Cure if taken in time affords security from all kidney and bladder diseases. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

By the two deeds noted in the real estate transfers the widow of the late D. D. Rosencranz of Delaware divides the homestead farm between the two sons. Both are industrious young men and good farmers and that neighborhood may be congratulated on having assurance that the household will be yet further improved and not, as happens in many cases, allowed to fall into decay.

The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.
