CASHED HER TRUCK PATCH.

Widow Sullivan's Good Fortune is the Possession of a Piece of Oil Land.

In the early days of Beaumont's history as an oil city columns of stories were sent out in which this person or that one had come into possession of a fortune in a day or night. Some of these stories were without foundation, but, on the other hand, many of them were true, for this was a boom in which the home people and the original owners of the land profited immensely, says a Beaumont (Tex.) correspondent of the St. Louis Republic. In some cases it was a poor colored family owning a little patch of ground within two or three miles of the magic Spindletop Heights that sold out to some prospector who had come to "get in on the ground floor," or a white family trying to wrest a precarious living from the ground by means of a "truck patch" suddenly became the owner of a comfortable bank account through the sale of its garden as "oil land."

New Kind of Fight. Farmers about Cortland, N. Y., a prohibition district, were puzzled to find that their heads got drunk with out any visible liquor supply. Applying Her Belief.

They were discussing the labor question. "I believe in shorter hours," said Mr. Linger. "So do I," replied Miss Kerdick, earnestly. "I think an hour and a half is plenty long enough for an evening call."

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.

Daniel Banta of Otterville, Iowa, writes, "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Was Wasting Away.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts of Salem, Mo., is instructive. "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Ten Years in Bed.

R. A. Gray, J. P., Oakville, Ind., writes, "For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of the kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

THE PIGEONS' PRECAUTION.

Seeing a Baby Bird Fall They Built a Gate to Keep Their Own In.

Her Belief.

A woman believes that she is "liberal" in her religious views if she makes a cake for a saint at the other church.—Abolition Globe.

Now the parents in the other dovecote were at home when this happened, and it seemed as if they said to themselves: "One of our babies might fall in just that way. We must do something to make the dovecote safer." And then the wise and careful father and mother went to work. They flew about until they found some small sticks. These they carried to their own dovecote and here in the doorway they built a cunning little fence of sticks. Not so high but that the little pigeons could look over it, but high enough to keep them from ever falling out of the dovecote, as their little neighbor had done. The owner of the pigeons, who had seen the birding fall and had put it back into its dovecote, watched the birds the whole time as they gathered the sticks and built the fence around the doorway.
