SANDYSTON.
 The splendid fair of Monday last was just what was needed and at this writing more is falling.
 The Children's Day exercises at Layton on Sunday evening brought out a large audience. The pieces were splendidly rendered and everything passed off without a hitch.
 Some rascal stole the whip from the wagon of Floyd Major on Sunday evening while attending Children's Day at Layton and as Floyd knows the chap he will hear something drop if that whip is not returned.
 J. J. Van Bieckle returned home on Sunday and will commence his labors as assessor of this town at once.

I was handed the annual report of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company by one of its agents in Newark one day last week. I find two statements that astonish a person as to the immensity of insurance companies: 931,914 policies were paid in 1901, averaging one for every 14 minutes of each business day of 8 hours and amount paid on above policies was $10,738,192.17, or nearly $75 per minute each business day of 8 hours each! This is only one company and there are a score of other companies nearly as large.
 Frank Hough, representing the Newton Record, passed Friday and Saturday in this town in the interest of his paper.
 Legal Action will be taken against the over-seer of the road leading from Culver's Gap to the residence of Cal. Price if that piece of road is not repaired. As it is one might as well drive over a stone wall.

From appearances this Tuesday morning the special election for member of congress will be very light as there is no opposition.

The high waters last spring, washed the road along the Big Flatbrook so as to make it almost impassable.
 Overseer Steffau has about finished the repairs on this piece of road and it is now passable.
 The prospect of a full or an average hay crop does not look promising at this time. Most of the low meadows are mere pastures and the upland is but little better. Corn is coming on nicely and promises well.
 Miss Alice Gunn of Layton left on Thursday last for an extended visit to her sister in Chicago. Her many friends extend best wishes for a pleasant trip.

Notes from E. S. B. Normal.
 Prof. Kemp delivered an address at Minsi last Sunday and held an unusually interesting Bible class in the chapel Sunday evening. The young folks at the Normal know how to appreciate Prof. Kemp's Bible talks.
 The senior class is unusually large this term, there being one hundred and forty-eight besides quite a number taking post graduate work.
 There are forty-five new students taking the junior and middle year work.
 The examinations under the state board were held Wednesday and Thursday of this week.
 The baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Normal chapel Sunday evening, June 22, by Dr. C. F.
 Gehlin of Scranton.
 Tuesday June 24 will be class day.
 A. H. Howell of Waymart will give the class oration.
 Eugene Van Why is president of the senior class.

The State board of examiners are as follows: J. Q. Stewart, deputy superintendent public instruction, G. M. D. Eckles, principal, Shippenburg, J. W. Swocks, superintendent Lebanon county, Benjamin Apple, superintendent Northumberland county, Hucio S. Walter, superintendent Monroe county, J. C. Taylor, superintendent Lackawanna county, J. W. Cooper, superintendent, Shenandoah.

No Hair?
 "My hair was falling out very fast and I was greatly alarmed. I then tried Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair stopped falling at once." Mrs. C. A. McVay, Alexandria, O.
 The trouble is your hair does not have life enough. Act promptly.
 Save your hair. Feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. If the gray hairs are beginning to show, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore color every time. 25c a bottle. All druggists.

CRITICS OF ORIENTAL RUGS.
 A Difficult and Well-Paid Vocation Aided by the Fads of Millinnaires.
 "To be a critic of oriental rugs," said a dealer, "is as difficult as to be a critic of painting or of music or of wine. I know men who can tell infallibly the province to which a rug was made; it is the knotting of the threads that they go by. Those men earn a good deal of money, for their services are in frequent demand and the fees they get for their expert opinions are high.
 "We have a number of millionaires in this city—and in New York and Chicago there are others—who are anxious rug collectors. They hang their walls with rugs, and certainly those draperies are no less beautiful than costly. The most valuable rug in the world is in the South Kensington museum. I think that it is worth $100,000. Age increases these beautiful things, softening their colors and giving a kind of blur, a kind of atmosphere to their design. Many of the notable ones are hundreds of years old. They did not wear out in the palaces and the mosques where they were laid because no one walked upon them with shoes on; they were prayer rugs and were stepped on reverently with shodless feet, the devotees then kneeling, of course with such gentle usage any sort of rug would last a long time. These, made of the purest wools and dyed with the finest and costliest dyes, became more charming as the years passed.
 "I don't know why it is," continued the dealer, according to the Philadelphia Record, "but moths will not attack a good old Persian rug."

QUICK LUNCH TIPPING.
 An Illustration of its Efficiency in Securing the Favor of the Waiter.
 Two men sat side by side on the high stools of one of those quick lunch places, lined with pale tiles like a bathroom, that abound in this city, says the Philadelphia Record. One of them said to the other: "In a cafe like this few persons tip the waiter behind the counter. They think it would be a waste of money, because the waiter calls their orders down a tube into a kitchen somewhere underground, and they hold that he has no jurisdiction over the portions, and that they are served just the same whether they tip him or not. Well, they are altogether mistaken. I know, for I have made a study of this matter. The waiter here has two tones with which to speak through the tube. One tone is for the patron who tips, the other for him who doesn't. Now, watch a minute." The waiter, in an ordinary voice, now called three orders, and then, in a strange falsetto, called that of the man who had been speaking. "You see?" said he to his companion. "I tip, and those other fellows don't."
 A moment later he added, triumphantly: "Look at the difference between my order of roast beef and our friend's over there. I've got a big cut out of the heart of the roast, and he's got two or three little chunks of 'em." Oh, yes, it pays to tip in these places as well as it does anywhere.

NEW VOGUE IN POSTAL CARDS.
 Now Used for Personal Messages Bearing Picture of Sender's Residence.
 Postal cards are coming to be considered good form. Whereas they were formerly admissible only as a means for dispatching an order to a tradesman, they may now be used for the transmission of personal messages. The stipulation, however, is that they must bear a reproduction of one's house, says the New York World.
 This promises to make the fashion an exclusive one. Anybody can consult a heraldic expert and have his family insignia discovered and transferred to his note paper. But not everybody lives in a mansion that would form a desirable decoration for a postal card. In any case the suburban resident will, it is plain, have the advantage.
 Now that the use of the camera has become universal, nothing is easier than to secure a pretty country view, and any stationer can have such a view reproduced at a trifling cost on cards of a size suitable to be sent by post.
 It will be no uncommon thing for Jones, who has taken a house in New Jersey, to acquaint his friends with its charms, not by lengthy descriptions, but by sending them post cards adorned with its picture.
 The size of the picture need only be restricted by that of the card. Postal authorities now allow cards of very fair proportions to pass as post cards.

Paris Swindlers' Trick.
 The latest form of the Paris rags-bond is a biting machine—a steel piece—which, when it closes on a man's arm, leaves a mark closely resembling that inflicted by a vicious horse. The way it was worked was for a band of criminals to surround a horse whose driver was temporarily absent. While one pricked the animal and made it savage, the accomplish cried out as if in agony.
 When a crowd had collected he exhibited his arm, which had previously been operated upon by the biting machine. The indignant spectators proceeded to lynch the carter and beat the horse unmercifully. Finally the proprietor of the innocent steed paid the bogus victim anything from $2 to $100 as compensation. But a company for insuring against accident, alarmed by the number of people who claimed indemnity for horse bites, grew suspicious, and the inventors of the biting machine are now in jail.—N. Y. Herald.

MATAMORAS.
 Mrs. Sarah Beach from Milford, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. J. O.
 Ryder on Main street Monday and Tuesday.
 Mrs. William Persival and little daughter, Florence, took in the excursion on Wednesday to New York city.
 The strawberry festival at Eph-raim Shay's on River street was a success both financially and socially.
 Everyone had a very agreeable time and Mrs. Shay and family made it very pleasant for their friends.
 The funeral of the late Anthony McTierney took place Monday at 1 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Ketcham, and was private.
 Rev. Ora J. Shoop, pastor of Epworth church, had charge of the services. The interment was at Otisville.
 There will be an entertainment at St. Joseph's church hall on Tuesday evening, June 24.
 Prof. Honck in company with Messrs. Frank Wheeler and John Kourner went on his wheel Sunday morning to Stroudsburg.
 Mrs. A. P. Hackett of Rutherford, N. J., accompanied by her son, William, were the guests of Mrs. Alfred Billman on Sunday. They returned home on Monday.
 Everett Mead has opened an ice cream parlor on Biddis street.

Mrs. D. Lord from Lordville, Pa., is visiting her son, Ed. Lord.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blakeney of Jersey City are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Ketcham.
 Mrs. A. H. Avey of Brooklyn, who has been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Speers, left for her home Wednesday.
 Mrs. Mary Ryder, who has been ill, is very much better now and is getting along nicely.
 Harry Clawson, who has been home for a short vacation, returned to Jersey City Sunday to resume his work at the Erie office.
 Hope church Sunday school has changed the time of its session from 11.45 a. m. to 12.45 p. m.
 The L. C. U. did not have any meeting this week.
 The Epworth guards met on Monday night at the church. There are now about 25 members.
 Little Minnie Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spence, is very ill.
 Mrs. Halsey of Westtown is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Henry Muhlenbrink, at the Allen House.
 The L. C. U. will serve a supper on the evening of July 4 at Prescott's hall. Supper at 5 o'clock.
 Ice cream and cake will be served also.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Archie Davis Friday evening by about 25 of his friends.
 Everyone had a most enjoyable time.
 When a person has once tried Mexican Cough Syrup they then know how good it is and will not let themselves be fooled by some druggist who has other cough remedies that something else is "just as good." The careful mother always keeps a bottle of this syrup in the house. It tastes good, never fails and only costs 25c a bottle.
 Little Jewels.
 Every mother that has a child has a jewel more precious to her and more valuable than the king of England's entire collection of diamonds, etc. Pity the little one that is rapidly losing its health because its mother does not know it has worms and that a 25c bottle of Mother's Worm Syrup will expel them quickly.
 Good Advice.
 Don't let your bowels become constipated. Keep them clean and healthy by occasionally taking one of Gooch's Mexican Root Pills, the only true tonic laxative made from the active principles of healing herbs that is sold for 25c.
 Learn This by Heart.
 No other remedy known to man gives such sure and quick relief to pairs of every kind, either internal or external, as Gooch's Quick Relief.
 Well worth many times its price.
 25c. Cures cramps and colic.
 Many Suffer.
 Bone ache, tender flesh, deep, ulcerated, slow healing sores, ring worms, symptoms of scrofula, and low or pale complexion, pimply or rough skin, etc., all emanate from ill-conditioned blood resulting from some inherited or contagious source.
 The only true cure for stubborn cases is Gooch's Barysperilla, made of newly discovered ingredients and seemingly miraculous in its curative effect.

Asthma Can
 Be Cured
 Free Treatment. Free Medical Advice. We Have Cured
 7,000 Cases. Why
 Not Yours?
 This dread disease which has caused more untold agonies than words can describe, has at last received its death blow.
 Medical Science in recent years has found a remedy that successfully combats all the aggravated symptoms due to this distressing affliction. After many years of patient study and research, Dr. A. B. Clark, the well known specialist, has discovered a positive remedy that cures the cough, gives immediate relief and eradicates every vestige of the disease. So confident is the doctor that his Asthma Remedy will effect a cure in all cases that he has instructed the Clark Medical Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., to forward a complete treatment in every sufferer of Asthma who writes for exemption blank. This is a very liberal offer and shows the confidence the Clark Medical Co. have in the merits of this preparation. If any of our readers are afflicted with Asthma they should write the Clark Co. at once for exemption blank. Why suffer when a cure is within reach?
