State Normal School

EAST STROUDSBURG, PA.

LOCATION

This popular State Institution is located in the midst of the Delaware Water Gap and Mt. Pocono Summer Resorts. Beautiful, the most beautiful and picturesque in the state, and one that is visited by thousands of tourists annually.

COURSES OF STUDY

In addition to the departments of the regular Normal Course, we have special departments of Music, Education, Art, Drawing and Water Color, and a full College preparatory department. You can save an entire year in your college preparatory work by coming here.

FREE TUITION

Tuition is absolutely free to those complying with the new statute. This gives a rare opportunity to those desiring a complete education and should be taken advantage of at once, as this law may be repealed by the next Legislature.

COST OF BOARDING

Boarding expenses are $1.25 per week, which includes fully furnished and equipped room, heat, electric light and laundry. The additional expense is less with us than at most any other school.

IMPROVEMENTS

Among these are a new Gymnasium, a Blue Electric Light Plant, and a new Redaction Hall now being erected, which will contain fifteen large and fully equipped recitation rooms. In addition, all rec rooms will be repapered and fitted up and various other changes made in the dormitories for the further comfort and convenience of the pupils of the school.

NEW CATALOGUE

Catalogue for 1922 gives full information as to free tuition, expenses, courses of study, and other facts of interest and will be mailed without charge to those desiring it. Full form opens September 1st, 1922.

BRINGS SUMMER BOARDERS.

A Large Metropolitan Newspaper Which Is Helping the Summer Resorts.

The Brooklyn Eagle several years ago established a Bureau of Information in Brooklyn, where the public could, free of charge, secure details of hotels and boarding houses for the summer. The idea at once became popular, and branch bureaus were opened in Manhattan and other cities. Country hotels and boarding houses by sending to this Bureau can secure a listing blank, fill it out and return it and then be represented free of cost, and send their circulars and cards for free distribution.

The Brooklyn Eagle has also been considered for years the best medium for summer boarders in New York city.

The Rock Point Inn, in the Adirondacks, said: "We are giving the Eagle a larger share of advertising than most other papers, as experience has demonstrated its value to us in past seasons."

Chauncy B. Noykirk of Wartschorn, Sullivan county, said: "Last season one small ad. brought me five guests."

La Rue Bros., proprietors of the American Hotel of Sharon Springs, N. Y., wrote: "Our house is full and mostly by Brooklyn people. Daily we receive applications for rooms, and all on account of our standing ad in the Eagle."

The Honey-moon.

In sweet content they drift upon the stream As round about the moonlight softly plays. To each fond heart the calm surroundings seem Like symbols of the evening of their days. —Brooklyn Life.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND.

Mr. Bargain Hunter—Say, this pillow gives me a pain. It's as hard as a rock.

Mrs. Bargain Hunter—That's strange! It was marked down.—Philadelphia Press.

Most Touch It. Most boys have superstitious minds. "And yet, we're all percolin'." "Don't touch it." "Fresh Paint." "Hands Off." "One side." "Are signs they don't believe in." —Philadelphia Press.

Didn't Like the Substitute. Mrs. Doyle—My husband is never satisfied.

Mrs. Doyle—Neither is mine; he has always liked because he couldn't find his collar button, and now he has a wart on the back of his neck, but he isn't satisfied with that.—N. Y. Times.

Rebound. Mrs. Blusterly—Mrs. De Bonaster says that no man can be a gentleman unless he has a college education.

Mr. Blusterly—Well, that only proves that women who have college educations are not necessarily ladies. —Puck.

What Johnny Thought. "What does Gabriel think me an, am'le?"

"Gabriel thinks he's a character in one of Dickens' Christmas Stories."

"O, I thought maybe it was another name for angel food cake." —Chicago American.

Hard Luck.

Havell—It's sad about Ornet losing his leg in that railroad accident.

Jewett—Yes; it must be a great disappointment to him; he was always talking about "getting there with both feet." —Brooklyn Life.

Counting Them. "Mr. Woodby White says that there are only eight jokes in the world."

"I should never have suspected from his efforts to amuse," answered Miss Cayenne, indignantly, "that he had found so many." —Washington Star.

Seat of the Trouble. "I'm entirely worn-out, doctor."

The Kind Hobby Wanted. She—I want a new cover for Bella's piano; can you suggest anything, dear?

He—Yes; can't you find one which is hermetically sealed? —Yonkers Statesman.

Appropriately Named. Church—I see that Texas has called his new oil well "The Senator." Wonder why he gave it that name?

Gotham—Because it is such a "spontaneous" success.—Yonkers Statesman.

A Husband's Epigram. She—How many men owe their success in life to their wives?

He—And how many more men owe their wives to their success in life? —N. Y. World.

Classed the Incident. The driver kicked the mule. To make her travel faster. The mule, she kicked one of its kick—AND got spotted madder. —Chicago Tribune.

Not Too Exact. "Ah! professor, if we could adequately express our admiration!"

"I cannot say our admiration, indeed; but I am satisfied you my admirers do so best say so!" —Puck.

The Idea Visited Him. Mrs. de Field—The latest fashion is to have the piano built into the wall.

Mr. de Field (wearily)—Well, that's sensible! Let's wall up ours.—Tit-Bits.

Doubtful. Bluffer—I would challenge that end, who insulted me, to a duel, if I was sure of one thing.

Bluffer—What's that? Bluffer—That he wouldn't accept the challenge. —Ohio State Journal.

Treat Your Kidneys for Rheumatism. When you are suffering from rheumatism the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood.

Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy for this purpose. R. T. Hopkins of Polar, Wis., says: "After unsuccessfully doctoring three years for rheumatism with the best doctors, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Appropriate. Juggles—That actress sued him for trifling with her affections, and the jury gave her a verdict for six cents.

Waggles—So the damages were trifling? —Town Topics.

No False Claims. The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption."

They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced stages, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

To Be Taken on Trust. Waiter (at dairy lunch counter)—What will you have?

Patron—Bring me one of your alleged roast beef sandwiches.—Chicago Tribune.

Two Bottles Cured Him. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Ia., "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure."

Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Classified. Foreman—Where shall I put this item about the retirement of Alderman Souker from public life?

Editor—Put it under "Public Improvements." —Puck.

Bronchitis for Twenty Years. Mrs. Minerva Smith of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar, which is a sure cure."

Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

See-Saw. Piker—What do you do with all the money you make furnishing tips on the races?

Tout—Lose it playing them.—Judge.

When Other Medicines Have Failed. Take Foley's Kidney Cure. It has cured when everything else has disappointed. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Real Aggravating. Jack—Wasn't that a mean scandal about Ethel? There wasn't a word of truth in it.

Edith—Wasn't that mean.—Judge.

A. H. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night and had severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.
