GREENTOWN.

On account of continued rainy weather farmers are making slow progress haying, and at present there is quite a lot of hay lying out with little prospect of getting it in, but we hope for better weather soon.

Hay is a fair crop. Crops generally are good except corn.

Rev. C. W. Clewett's father, while on his way from Pocono to German Flats, had a narrow escape from being held up by three unknown men who were hiding near the road in a lonely place. As Mr. Clewett drove by on Thursday, July 24, the men came out and fired at him with revolvers but as they missed him and his horse became frightened and ran he got away.

An ice cream social was held at Honokton on the evening of July 29th.

A barn belonging to Mary Cross was struck by lightning and one post shattered.

Rev. Thomas Hooper will hold an entertainment in the West Sterling church for the benefit of the same on the evening of Aug. 6.

Hair Splits

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for thirty years. It is elegant for a hair dressing and for keeping the hair from splitting at the ends."—J. A. Greenleaf, Grandfather, Ill.

Hair-splitting splits friendships. If the hair-splitting is done on your own head, it loses friends for you, for every hair of your head is a friend.

Ayer's Hair Vigor in advance will prevent the splitting. If the splitting has begun, it will stop it.

Examine my stock it will please you. The price too.

HERD OF DRIED CATTLE.

Twenty Thousand Carcasses in the Colorado Desert a Monument of a Man's Folly.

"In crossing the Colorado desert in Arizona one sees a frightful monument to the folly of a man who thought that he could drive cattle across the desert with such speed that water would be unnecessary," said S. T. James, in the Pittsburgh Press. "More than 20,000 carcasses lie at The Pools in that desert, and remind all travelers of the gigantic scheme to drive cattle through a desert country without making any provision for water. It was 30 years ago that an extensive cattleman, who was not familiar with the great desert of the southwest, thought it would be no barrier to his plan of taking cattle across it from the west to the grazing country. When the cattle reached The Pools, which were small lakes of foul alkali water, they were so crazed by thirst that they killed each other in their attempt to get at the water. The air in that country is so dry and the sun so hot that carcasses dry up instead of decomposing. As one approaches that great herd of dead animals the carcasses look as though they were poorly fed and killed, but on closer inspection one finds them to be well and soundly fed, and they have maintained their original shape so well that a man who is not familiar with the desert country might easily mistake them for beasts until he made close examination."

THE ORNAMENT WAS LOADED.

A Hornet's Nest Comes in Life Under the Influence of Warmth in the House.

The residence of Hiram Fulton, of Hartwood, Montgomery county, presented a scene of extermination and dismay several days ago, when a swarm of hornets took possession of the entire house unexpectedly, reports the Philadelphia Telegraph.

Last fall Mr. Fulton found an excellent species of hornet's nest, and finding it perfect and intact, he thought it would make an excellent ornament for his home. Acting on the impulse, he took the nest home and hung it in the parlor. That portion of the house was used very little during the winter, and several days ago, when his wife was preparing the house for visitors, a fire was started in the parlor. The room soon became warm, and their attention was shortly attracted by a loud buzzing, and the next instant the room was filled with hornets that came from the ornamental nest. The heat caused them to come out, and resulted in a rush to escape from the room. Several of the family suffered from coming in contact with the business end of the insects, and over an hour's time was consumed driving them from the house.

ALWAYS SOMETHING TO LEARN.

A Man Who Lived to the Age of 70 Before He Learned to Blow His Nose.

President Elliot was signing in favor of education, one night recently, says the Boston Journal. He said that he was learning something every day by being "shown how."

He illustrated his point by describing the training of medical students and concluded by telling of an old friend of his who had suddenly become deaf in one ear.

"How did this happen?" I asked him.
"Well, I was blowing my nose the other day, when I felt something snap in my ear, followed by an aching and dullness."

"When the doctor came he said the drum had split and asked how I did it."

"I only blew my nose," I told the doctor.

"Well, had you opened your mouth when you blew your nose you would not now have a damaged ear drum," was the doctor's reply.

"You see, my friend had lived 70 years and had never been shown how to blow his nose," concluded President Elliot. The application was appreciated and greeted with a great burst of laughter.

An Early Love Affair.

It is common report in Spain that the king will marry his cousin, Princess Medina-Coall. This may be true or it may not, but it is certain that the two children played together from babyhood, and regarded themselves as betrothed to each other, says Modern Society. "I will never marry you, you nasty boy!" cried the tiny princess when his majesty offended her highness. "Oh, very well!" coolly remarked the somewhat ungallant prospective bridegroom: "please yourself, by all means. I am sure I never asked you to be my wife. I should prefer to marry the pastry cook's daughter; then I could eat all the nicest cakes in the shop without having to pay for them."

Big Berlin Trust.

A relic trust has been organized by the Omaha and Winnebago Indians. The president of this grasping monopoly is Great Thunder, a Winnebago, whose specialty is making bows and arrows. Green Rainbow and Prairie Chickens, makers of snakeskin belts, and John A. Logan, manufacturer of eagle feather headbands, are directors. These leaders will hereafter fix the prices of Indian goods made for white purchasers.

Sentimental Fool.

The Zuni Indians are sentimental in the extreme, and marry at a young age. When a youth is wooing a maiden he will go and sit before her with his back turned to her and untwine his beads cloth. She rejects him by softly stealing a way, or accepts him by running her hands curiously through his loosened locks.

SANDYSTON.

The almost constant rain of the past week has delayed the hay and harvest work and in many cases has caught very many with much of it in shock. Some pieces are reported as growing badly.

I am in receipt of a kind invitation to attend the dinner given by Francis H. Earl of Newton to his friends on August 6th at McKeever's Hotel, New York. Mr. Earl will sail for Ireland on the Celtic at the White Star line on that day and his many friends wish him a safe and pleasant trip.

G. E. Hursh went fishing in the Delaware one day last week and returned home with a fine string of fish. Among them were three suckers each weighing over two pounds.

It is very strange that so many people favor obedience to all laws good or bad and yet tolerate violations of the fish and game laws for fear, as one remarked, "it will make somebody mad!" Then repeat the fish and game laws.

This section was visited by terrific shower on Monday and the thunder and lightning was the worst of the year. Much damage was done to the roads and cornfields as 1.42 inches of water fell.

The survey for the new road from Tuttle's Corner to Culver's Gap is now in progress but the engineer has not finished his surveys as to which route the road will be located, but almost everyone favors following up the stream.

LEDGEDALE.

Eph. Kinable of Scranton, Pa., and his niece, Miss Leila Kinable of Norvell, Mich., are guests of their cousin, J. K. Kellam.

Cora Rollison of Scanton is spending her vacation at her grandfather's, J. H. Becker's.

While looking for a hay rigging that was taken down the river last spring in high water time and landed on the Paupae flats, Friend Simons and Jacob Waltz found a tree which measured 18 feet 11 inches around it. Timber is not all gone from this country.

Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Kellam attended the funeral of M. N. B. Kellam in Paupae on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kimble and granddaughter, Bessie, of Derryberry are guests of Mrs. Friend Simons.

Wonderful Concoction.

Mrs. Crimmonbeak—I see by the paper, John, a new device for use with telephones has been patented in Sydney. It is a clockwork mechanism, with a dial that registers the time occupied in speaking. The hand of the dial works only when the receiver is taken from the hook.

Mr. Crimmonbeak—I wonder if the clock could be attached to a woman's jaw jaw?—Yonkers Statesman.

A Sure Preventive.

It is better to prevent consumption than to afterwards be looking for a cure. Many cases become incurable simply because so long neglected. When you first catch cold, when you first begin to cough, make haste to use Mexican Syrup. It may save your life for it has proven a quick and never failing cure for sore and irritated lungs, tickling in the throat, etc., resulting from a cold accidentally taken. It is only 25c a bottle and is sold at drug stores.

This is Right

There is one good thing about Mother's Worm Syrup and that is, it will never do any one a bit of harm should it fail to do him good. It is a good idea to try this remedy if you feel bad and don't exactly know what ails you. There may be a tape worm a hundred feet long that is causing your loss of health. If so a 25c bottle of Mother's Worm Syrup will kill and remove it from your body.

A Reliable Family Pill

A Mexican Root Pill taken when you begin to feel bilious or when your bowels fail to move as they should may ward off a long spell of illness. Get a 25c box.

Pain Makes Life a Burden

It is wrong to let those you love suffer pain or to be in pain yourself, when Good's Quick Relief costs only 25c a bottle. Best cure for cramps and colic.

A Modern Miracle

Good's Sarsaparilla enters into and changes the composition of the blood lacking sufficient red corpuscles to make it pure. Then the pure blood, circulating with healthful activity, permeates every fibre of flesh and restores better strength and better feeling to every part, completely curing sores and pain.

Pile-free Cures Piles
