Henry Cause has secured the contract to complete the borough building for $253.
 W. J. Coon, superintendent of the Blooming Grove park association, was in town yesterday. He reports that the season there is not so prosperous as usual.
 Oliver Wendell Holmes of Massachusetts has been appointed a justice of the United States supreme court.
 Richard Nilis will leave the store of A. Q. Wallace tomorrow and his place will be taken by Ed. Wolf.
 A recent letter from Julio M. Foster of Chile to Mr. Wallace evidences that he is well despite his eighty years.
 Miss Frances Ratcliffe expects to sail Aug. 30th for London.
 Mrs. Phillip Orben, whose husband is a prosperous manufacturer of Newark, is with her children and mother, Mrs. Jane Fleet, occupying the house corner Broad and George streets for a few weeks.
 The fair and festival in the Presbyterian church last evening was very successful and netted about $150.
 Dr. Bears of Bushkill will be starter. A. D. Brown and M. L. Stanton judges, and P. N. Bourne and Dr. W. B. Kenworthy timers at the race tomorrow.
 There will be a meeting of the republican state committee at Philadelphia Sept. 3.
 Ex-Judge Pennypacker has declined to meet Ex-Governor Pattison and Dr. Siles C. Swallow by discussion of the campaign issues at the Mt. Gretna exposition next week. The tables were filled until it was impossible to supply them any longer. We are sorry we did not anticipate such a large crowd and prepare accordingly to serve them. The receipts are about $200 and the ladies deserve this crowning success to their year's faithful work. Mrs. Letimora has made a good president and she deserves great credit.
 We are very glad to announce in this column the gift of 100 volumes of the children's books to the Home-stand library by Mrs. Jas. W. Pinchot. This is a very thoughtful addition. Teach the children to read good books and they never will care for trashy ones. We hope to stimulate the children from time to time to take these books and read them.
 If Senator Quay can keep harmony in the adjacent state committee he recently appointed he will really be as Charles Sam says, very like Shakespeare and greater than Webster and Clay.

In a Glass of Water.
 Put a handful of glazed coffee in a glass of water, wash off the coating, look at it; smell it; is it fit to drink? Give LION COFFEE the same test. It leaves the water bright and clear, because it's just pure coffee.
 The small package contains nothing but quality and freshness.

Presbyterian Choralists
 (By Rev. E. M. Sneed.)
 The topics for next Lord's day are withheld this week with the assurance to our friends that they are just as interesting and will be just as instructive as usual. Let us not neglect the assembling of ourselves together. Come then with us and we will do them good.

The missionary meeting one week ago today was a grand success in every way. It is a landmark in the history of the year's work. The spirit of the speaker was most beautiful. Her manner was charming and we could but realize that she had laid much on the altar when she decided to leave home, friends, all that was near and dear and go to the foreign field. God, however, should have the best and we are glad that Persia has had such a noble woman representing us and the Lord's cause and again we are glad that now she is among her own people to inspire and foster their missionary spirit. We owe much to Mrs. Tibbis for her kind words and for her example as she has sojourned among us this summer. May God bless and use her always as a chosen and honored laborer in his vineyard.

It was a great oversight last week not to have mentioned Miss Biddis singing a week ago Sunday. She sang a most commendable solo as those who were present and heard it will testify. Many who have the right to judge say that she improves very rapidly each year. We beg pardon for this oversight and now record our appreciation both of Miss Biddis and her singing. We shall hope to hear her again before she returns to Washington.

Mr. Crisman was the soloist last Sunday and a most excellent song it was. Some people please everyone when they do themselves justice. Mr. Crisman has a rare voice and it is always a treat to hear him. We never heard him sing better and the effect was noticeable throughout the service. We thank him.

Mrs. Recht, the popular soloist of the Bluff House, will sing next Sabbath. Those who heard her speak in the highest terms of her ability and we are glad that she has consented to favor us.

The Sunday school picnic was arranged for next Thursday but that date will have to be changed to next Wednesday, a day earlier. Please do not forget this date. Next Wednesday all should meet at the church promptly at 9.30 a. m. to start. Children should be sent early to avoid unnecessary hurry and confusion. Let all come. We go to the Raymondskill. The boys' brigade is invited to join the scholars of our school. The arrangements are similar to other years.

At last the annual fair has come and gone. Last night the church looked its prettiest, and, in a good sense, we may say its gayest. Everyone present seemed to be in the best of scorable spirits and a general good time was enjoyed. The young ladies of the colonial room were special favorites. They were dressed in the old style colonial costume and the room was filled with old-fashioned furniture and relics. The Misses Cross, Mott, Bull and Haight were in charge while Master Armstrong attended the door. The fancy table was under the direction of Miss Baker and Miss Bull and was thronged all the evening. The tables were filled until it was impossible to supply them any longer. We are sorry we did not anticipate such a large crowd and prepare accordingly to serve them. The receipts are about $200 and the ladies deserve this crowning success to their year's faithful work. Mrs. Letimora has made a good president and she deserves great credit.

We are very glad to announce in this column the gift of 100 volumes of the children's books to the Home-stand library by Mrs. Jas. W. Pinchot. This is a very thoughtful addition. Teach the children to read good books and they never will care for trashy ones. We hope to stimulate the children from time to time to take these books and read them.

If Senator Quay can keep harmony in the adjacent state committee he recently appointed he will really be as Charles Sam says, very like Shakespeare and greater than Webster and Clay.

Methodist Church Jottings.
 (By Rev. C. R. Seebach.)
 The topic for next Sabbath morning is, "The Christian After Election," and for the evening, "The Standfast Man."
 At the Union service last Sabbath afternoon a large number were present and a deep interest taken in the new library books. An interesting part of the service was a concert solo by the sister of Mrs. Albert Gavotilla.
 At the Sabbath school session it was decided to hold the annual picnic at Raymondskill on the 21st, next Thursday.

A friend of the writer, Rev. Frank MacDaniel of Orange, N. J., will come to Milford next week and may preach at one of the services on the 24th. Mr. MacDaniel is one of the young men of the conference who has been highly appreciated and now is pastor of the strong church at Orange. He has been a wonder in the matter of raising money, removing a large, long-standing debt, and now has a building enterprise on hand that will succeed as does all that he undertakes.

Next Sabbath morning Miss Brandeis of New York, who is a member of the Musical Art society, and who for several years has sung in the leading churches of the city, will sing for us.

The date for our Epworth rally has been fixed for September 3rd. Group No. 7, of which Milford is a part, and of which the writer is leader, is invited to the Epworth church at Matamoras for its annual rally. Dr. Wright, our most loved and very able presiding elder, will make the evening address. Several short addresses will be made in the afternoon and a free discussion will follow. We hope to make this rally a success. It is the first of its kind in this part of the conference and ought to be largely attended.

Let everybody remember the fair to be given next Thursday evening at the M. E. church from 6 to 10. This promises to be a rare treat for all who desire to procure fancy and useful articles well made. Chicken salad, cake and cream will be served. Remember the date, Aug. 21st.

"Oh!" says it won't be senator until after Jimmy of Carbon has had four years of speech making.

 "Yes, indeed," answered the motherly landlady.
 "Too bad! That's what I came here to get away from!"—Washington Star.

Immortal.
 "Why do you refer to Shakespeare as the immortal bard?" asked the friend.
 "Because," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "so many actors whom I might mention have vainly tried to kill his works."—Washington Star.

The Artificial Figure.
 "She's frightfully deformed," said the girl in blue.
 "Really?" asked the girl in gray.
 "Yes; she's built so that her dressmaker doesn't have to use a bit of padding to give her the fashionable shape."—Chicago Post.

 Acts with the most direct, beneficial effect on the kidneys. It contains the best and safest substances for correcting and toning these organs.
 Made in Heaven.
 Little Ethel, a Columbus five-year-old, recently told her mamma that she had washed "a match in the house." That night when the mother heard Ethel's prayers, the little girl concluded by saying: "And please, God, send us a box of matches, Amen."
 "Why do you ask God for matches," Ethel's mother asked the next morning.
 "God" replied Ethel, "didn't Aunt Ruth say that matches were made in Heaven?"—Ohio State Journal.

A Soft Answer? Etc.

Breaks of Genius.
 "I have asked you the old, old question, Miss Arthrop, and you have answered no," said the rejected author, picking up his hat and gloves, "but I call your particular attention to the fact that I have not asked you the still older one, whether or not you could learn to love me."
 Whereupon she impulsively called him back.—Chicago Tribune.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum
 "Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker of Bookwater, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given us all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered and is now, nearly a year since, a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by A. W. Balch & Son, Matamoras, all drug and general stores in Pike county.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington county, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was so much pleased with the prompt cure which it effected that he wrote the manufacturers a letter in praise of their medicine. BARRELS OF SAMPLES.
 Over Two Hundred Thousand Trial Bottles Sent Free by Mail—
 By special arrangement with the manufacturers of that justly famous Kidney medicine, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, the readers of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS are enabled to obtain a trial bottle and pamphlet of valuable medical advice absolutely free, by simply sending their full name and postoffice address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mentioning this paper, the publisher of which guarantees the genuineness of this liberal offer.
 Of course this involves enormous expense to the manufacturers, but they have received so many grateful letters from those who have been benefited and cured of the various diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation and all weaknesses peculiar to women, that they willingly send trial bottles to all sufferers.

Upon investigation it was found that 91 per cent. of those who had used the trial bottle had received such benefit from it that they purchased large sized bottles of their druggists.
 It matters not how sick you are or how many physicians have failed to help you, send for a trial bottle of this great medicine, it costs you but a postal card, and benefit and cure will most certainly be the result.
 Favorite Remedy is the only Kidney medicine that acts as a laxative—all others constipate.
 Put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or if it is pale or discolored, milky or cloudy, stringy orropy, your Kidneys or Bladder are in a bad condition. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, inability to hold urine, a burning, scalding pain in passing it, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, the staining of linen by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects on the system produced by the use of whiskey, wine or beer.
 All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the new 50 cent size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

"The Hound of the Baskervilles."
 Sherlock Holmes greatest piece of detective work is done in the new story by Dr. A. Conan Doyle, "The Hound of the Baskervilles." Holmes himself says to Watson, his co-worker, "Here at last is a foeman worthy of our steel." The result is a story which, for thrilling interest, stands by itself. From the first discovery of the hound's trail, when the dried up young doctor brings to Sherlock Holmes the ancient manuscript, to the final scene where the great detective is brought face to face with the monster of the moorland, there is not a sentence that does not carry the reader breathlessly forward. It is a great novel, with a great subject, by a master of the craft. This thrilling story begins in "The Philadelphia Press" Sunday, July 6. Be sure not to miss it. 9-1-02

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED
 At Panama, Columbia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy
 Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Columbia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she couldn't turn over in bed. What to do in this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by A. W. Balch & Son, Matamoras, all drug and general stores in Pike county.
