State Normal School

EAST STROUDSBURG, PA.
LOCATION
This popular State Institution is located in the midst of the Delaware Water Gap and Mt. Pennsylvanian Resort Region, the most healthful and picturesque in the state, and one that is visited by thousands of tourists annually.

COURSES OF STUDY
In addition to the departments of the regular Normal Course, we have special Departments of Music, Education, Art, Drawing and Water Color, and a full college preparatory department. You can have an entire year in your college preparatory work by coming here.

FREE TUITION
Tuition is absolutely free to those completing with the new state law. This gives a rare opportunity to those desiring a complete education and should be taken advantage of at once, as this law may be repealed by the next Legislature.

COST OF BOARDING
Boarding expenses are $1.50 per week, which includes fully furnished and equipped room, heat, electric light and laundry. The additional expense is less with us than at most any other school.

IMPROVEMENTS
Among these are a new Gymnasium, a fine Electric Light Plant, and a new Recreation Hall now being erected, which will contain fifteen large and fully equipped recreation rooms. In addition, all new rooms will be replastered and fitted up and various other changes made in the dormitories for the further comfort and convenience of the pupils of the school.

NEW CATALOGUE
Catalogue for 1922, gives full information as to free tuition, expenses, courses of study, and other facts of interest and will be mailed without charge to those desiring it. Full Terms open September 24th, 1922.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to section, ten of article one of the Constitution, so that a discharge of a jury for failure to agree or other necessary cause shall not work an acquittal.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution; that is to say, that section ten of article one, which reads as follows:

"No person shall, for any indictable offense, be proceeded against criminally by information, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger, or by leave of the court for oppression or misdemeanor in office. No person shall, for the same offense, be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall private property be taken or applied to public use, without authority of law and without just compensation being first made or secured," be amended so as to read as follows:

No person shall, for any indictable offense, be proceeded against criminally by information, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger, or by leave of the court for oppression or misdemeanor in office. No person shall, for the same offense, be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; but a discharge of the jury for failure to agree, or other necessary cause, shall not work an acquittal. Nor shall private property be taken or applied to public use, without authority of law and without just compensation being first made or secured.

They Were Attentive.

A clergyman preaching in a country church for the first time, was delighted to find the congregation very attentive, and told the verger so after the service.

The verger replied: "Lor' bless you, sir, we was all looking for you to disappear!"

"Why, what do you mean?" said the clergyman.

"Well, sir, you see the pulpit is rotten and hasn't been preached in this ten year or more."—Parson's Weekly.

or money refunded. Contains remedies recognized by eminent physicians as the best for Kidney and Bladder troubles. PRICE 50c. and $1.00.

Dizzy?

Then your liver isn't acting well. You suffer from biliousness, constipation. Ayer's Pills act directly on the liver. For 60 years they have been the Standard Family Pill. Small doses cure. All druggists.

Want your mouth or throat a beautiful snowy white? Use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE OF THE WHISKERS. Price, 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Solving the Problem.

Delight (four years old)—I'm sick and tired of these stupid dolls. Don't you wish we had a real meat baby brother?
Margaret (six years old)—No! If we have any more children I want either an older sister or a pair of twins.—Brooklyn Life.

Her Reason.

"Why do you insist on Mr. Dawler staying?"
"It's a choice between two evils," answered Miss Cayenne. "If he doesn't sing he'll talk. And the words of any song are infinitely preferable to his original remarks."—Washington Star.

A Gentle Call-Down.

Wife—If anyone else told me such a story as that, I shouldn't believe a word of it.
Husband—Shouldn't you?
Wife—No. And moreover, I don't see why I should make an exception in your case, either.—Brooklyn Life.

Not Busy.

Wife—How did Mr. Billkins manage to pass that civil service examination which you failed in?
Husband—Billkins took his little boys with him, and the boys coached him. They had only been out of school a few weeks.—N. Y. Weekly.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Some prominent republican politicians who have been examining the recently issued democratic text book consider that it is an almost equally good republican campaign book.

Feet Swollen to immense Size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad," says J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "that I could not work, my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Viable Proof.

Ping—What reason have you for thinking De Jones married an intellectual woman?
Pong—Because most of his suspenders buttons are safety pins.—Chicago Daily News.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial.

M. T. Lynch, editor of the Phillipsburg Daily Post, writes, "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Not Anxious to Leave.

"Poor man," said the sympathetic lady visitor, "I expect you'll be glad when your time is up, won't you?"
"No man, not particularly," replied the prisoner, "I'm here for life."—Tit-Bits.

Used for Pneumonia.

Dr. J. C. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., says, "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

Thoughtful Girl.

Madge—Dolly is going somewhere with that young man this evening.
Marjorie—Yes, going to sit with him in the hammock. Right after dinner she went upstairs and put on a dark shirt waist.—N. Y. Sun.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for chronic throat troubles and will positively cure bronchitis, hoarseness and all bronchial diseases. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Armstrong's drug store.

The Point of Attention.

"But what can you see in him? He isn't in the least attractive."
"Oh, yes, dear; he has a very prepossessing bank account."—Tit-Bits.

He—Don't you think Miss Prettie has a very bright face?

She—Yes, indeed, especially when she is overheat.—N. Y. Weekly.
