DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Calvin Cron's new house is about completed.
John F. Raitt made a business visit to Delaware last Saturday.
A little girl arrived at the home of Charley Hanna last Sunday.
The late frosts did considerable damage down this way.
Miss Sarah E. Layton, once a prominent teacher in this county, is very ill at her home near Center.
The Center school house has been repaired with patent seats, and a new floor laid. Messrs. Joseph Carhuff and William Hanna did the work.
Henry Cron has rented William Gilmore's house and will begin housekeeping therein this week.
Undermaking is the order of the day down here. Barragh's have attached a new cider mill to their grist mill, and Harry Howay has his cider mill at the Deep Hollow in operation.
Gilbert Y. Cron, a well known citizen of this place, is unable to go out of the yard, owing to a serious illness. He has been ailing several weeks.
John H. Vater was recently taken sick and his sufferings became so rapidly distressing that last week he was taken to a city hospital for treatment.
The eldest daughter of Eugene Raitt, the Edgemore mail carrier, has killed nine rattlesnakes this summer and some of them were unusually large reptiles. W.H.L.

GREENTOWN.

The schools of Greens are all open with teachers as follows: Honk-town, Miss Mae Richards; Carlton Hill, Miss Lizzie Switzer; Roemer-ville, Miss Josephine Fields; Kipp-town, Miss Mary Cross; Simons-town, Byron Cross; Kramer's, Arthur Kramer; Beinktown, Miss Wall. Miss Lizzie Wolf has the new school.
Myrten Ansley, son of John Ansley, died Friday night and was buried Monday, Sept. 15.
The "Broken Heart" social at Dave Lehor's last Thursday evening was a success both socially and financially.
Members of the Wallenpanpack lodge I. O. O. F. visited Wengum lodge of Hawley on Wednesday of this week.
Emile Vuille is still working at Pocono.
Maurice Gilpin is doing carpenter work on a barn for S. R. Hazelton.
R. W. Bartleson has purchased a cream separator.
A number of students from Greens are attending the high school at Newfoundland.
F. G. Hames is at work putting in new poles and cross arms on the telephone line from Greentown to South Sterling.

SILVER LAKE

Jacob J. Seeds and wife of Philadelphia spent a few days last week at their cottage.

Mrs. J. A. Nils, who spent last winter with her niece in Chicago, is spending this week in her cottage here. Her granddaughter, Miss Isabella Nils of Milford, Pa., is with her.
Chas. Dulan has returned to Bridgeton, N. J., after spending the summer here.
Rupert P. Nils of Lehman called on Silver Lake friends on Sunday.
Robinson Shepherd made a trip to Bushkill on Monday.
Joseph H. Bromley, Jr., of Philadelphia made a flying trip to this place a few days ago.
A jolly crowd of boys from Dingman's enjoyed a camping trip to Brown's mill this week.

Black Hair

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilbenny, New Portland, Me.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either.
You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

Small bottle, all druggists.
If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. We save you five cents if you send your order direct. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

MATAMORAS.

George Shafer of Jersey City spent Sunday with the family of Theodore Shafer. He was accompanied home by his mother, Mrs. J. Shafer, and Mrs. Ernest Wolf, who will spend a few weeks visiting relatives in the city.
The "Guess Who" social under the auspices of the L. A. S. was held on Tuesday evening at the Epworth parsonage. Miss Nellie Westfall drew the first prize and Master Homer Quick the second. The evening was spent in a very pleasant manner.
John Conking of Matamoras, who has been spending a few days with his daughter in Jersey City, returned home on Monday afternoon.
Miss Loretta McNamery of Jersey City, who has been spending three weeks with friends and relatives in Port Jervis and Matamoras, returned home on Sunday evening. She was accompanied by Master Eddie Shafer of this village, who will spend two weeks in Jersey City.
Miss Isabella Bee of South Orange, N. J., is visiting Mrs. Bert Millsap. Miss Bee spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Irene Kimble.
Misses Angela Orce and Mabelle Walker returned to their respective schools on Sunday night accompanied by Miss Grace Albright of Dingman's Ferry.
The L. C. U. society will hold a Harvest Home supper at Prescott's hall on Tuesday evening, Sept. 23. All friends are welcome.
Miss Ann Harding of Wartsboro, N. Y., visited Mrs. G. H. Langton last Thursday.
Mrs. Wm. Florence of Middletown arrived in town a few days ago and is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Lansing Wright.
Mrs. H. W. Baker returned to her home in Dover, N. J., Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Jennie Hilforty. Mrs. Baker has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hilforty.
Master Ray Hilforty spent his vacation at Dover, N. J., with his sister, Mrs. Barber. He returned home last Saturday.
Mrs. John Williams and daughter and Mrs. James Smith of Mount Hope were the guests of their brother, Horace Day.
Mrs. Laura Moulton of Honesdale and Mrs. Fred Hawkey and daughter, Hazel, also from Honesdale were the guests of Mrs. John Wonnacott.
Miss Katie Burns of Monticello has been spending a few days with her friend, Miss Eva Wonnacott.
Misses Jennie and Louise Ridgway of Rowland, Pa., are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ridgway.
Mrs. May Weaver of Honesdale has been visiting her brother, M. Uch, for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Ryman and daughter, Alice, Harry Armstrong, Miss Kipp, Misses Lillian Buchanan, May Quick and Mr. Ruddle of Milford visited friends in Matamoras on Thursday.
Wm. Price of Carbondale has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Catharine Price, for a few days. She has been ill but is now improving.
Mrs. A. Rowland and little daughter, Catherine, of Rowlands, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Rowland's mother, Mrs. Ridgway.

Maternal Blindness.
Tom's face is covered with freckles. But his mother sees not one. Love's telescope refuses to show a spot upon her own.

Times for All Things.
Asked why he had left hell out of a recent sermon, Brother Dickey answered: "Ever'ing to his season. While I was a preachin' dat sermon de thermometer was in de nineties, an hell spoke for itse'f!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Perfectly Natural Result.
"Money's a curious thing," remarked the man who had struck it rich in the Klondike. "My rich relations used to hate me because I hadn't any of it, and now they hate me because I've got more than they have."—Chicago Tribune.

Comparative Valuation.
"He not like dems drivers cattle!" exclaimed the graduation girl.
"No chance of it!" muttered the cynic in the back row of the auditorium. "I'd like to see the day when I'm worth as much as strychn and pouterhose."—Washington Star.

Safe Reciting.
Mrs. Jones—Here's a man been arrested for having ten wives.
Mr. Jones—I'll bet two boxes of gloves to a shirt button that he didn't try to get away from the officers.—Puck.

Heard at the Picnic.
"Is heat a motive power?" asked the man at the picnic stand.
"Certainly," replied the man at the liquid stand, mopping his brow. "don't you see how it makes the lemonsads go?"—Yankees Statesman.

Rayner.—This fortune-telling business is all humbug. One of those professors of palmistry told me a little while ago to look out for a "short, blond man."
Rhyme—I don't know about its being all humbug. I'm blond, and I'm short. Land me a ten-cent fellow, will you?—Chicago Tribune.

Sure Test.
"How can you tell real cut glass from the imitation?" asked Mrs. Gaswell.
"You can't always," said Mr. Gaswell, "but when anybody offers you a piece of real cut glass for 15 cents don't buy it."—Chicago Tribune.

In a Sorry Flight.
"Why are they not speaking?"
"They quarreled about which loved the other the more."
"Well!"
"And now each is afraid to give in for fear of offending the other."—Brooklyn Life.

Overdone.
"Sorry you failed to gain your point with him. Why didn't you take my advice and strike him after he had had a good dinner?"
"I did; but the dinner was so good it caused him indigestion."—Philadelphia Press.

The Fugacious Burglar.
"Now that I've found what I want," muttered the burglar, softly raising the lid of the family lexicon and flashing his dark lantern at the contents, "I think I'll pull up stakes and go."—Chicago Tribune.

The Campaign Orator.
Trust not the crowd that cheers you when you speak, my brother. It often cheers one man and then votes for another. —Washington Star.

His Line of Work.
Visitor to Jail—Why are you here?
Prisoner (a pickpocket)—I am here as a result of a moment of abstraction. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

Josh Westhafer of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him, from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by A. W. Balch & Son, Matamoras, all drug and general stores in Pike county.

Had No Full Moon.
The month of February, 1886, was in one respect the most remarkable in the world's history. It had no full moon. January had two full moons, and so had March, but February had none. Do you realize what a rare thing it is that it was? It had not occurred since the creation of the world, and it will not occur again, according to the computation of astronomers, for 2,500,000 years.

The Work of Mount Pelée.
Sea soundings near Martinique show that in some places where there was formerly a depth of 200 meters the depth is now in excess of 1,500.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. A. W. Balch & Son, Matamoras, all drug and general stores in Pike county will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. —10-31

In Trade.
Mrs. B. Arlester—So you cleared that poor Mr. Liffen from the charge of stealing that turkey? I'm glad of it, but he's such a worthless character that I don't believe you'll ever get a cent for your services.
B. Arlester (famous criminal lawyer)—Perhaps not, but I've got an all-fired good turkey out in the woodshed, just the same.—N. Y. Times.

A Detective.
Towne—I see there's a new cashier at the bank. I suppose Smugley was discharged?
Brown—Not exactly. They're offering double his old salary to get him back.

The Millennium Coming.
Winks—In every generation the age for marriages gets later. Our grandmothers married at 16, but our daughters do not marry until 25 or 30.
Jinks—Well, that's all right. In the course of time people will put off marriage until too old to marry at all, and then the millennium will begin.—N. Y. Weekly.

Continuing the Stumble.
"All flesh is grass," quoted the religious boarder.
The star boarder frantically tried to force his knife through the product of the beef trust that rested on his plate, and said:
"All flesh is grass? Well, this must be baled hay!"—Baltimore Herald.

Patrimony.
Rayner—This fortune-telling business is all humbug. One of those professors of palmistry told me a little while ago to look out for a "short, blond man."
Rhyme—I don't know about its being all humbug. I'm blond, and I'm short. Land me a ten-cent fellow, will you?—Chicago Tribune.

ASTHMA Can Be Cured

Free Treatment, Free Medical Advice. We Have Cured 7,000 Cases. Why Not Yours?
This dread disease which has caused more untold agonies than words can describe, has at last received its death blow. Medical Science in recent years has found a remedy that successfully combats all the aggravated symptoms due to this distressing affliction. After many years of patient study and research, Dr. A. B. Clark, the well known specialist, has discovered a positive remedy that cures the cough, gives immediate relief and eradicates every vestige of the disease. No condition is the doctor that his Asthma Remedy will effect a cure in all stages that he has instructed the Clark Medical Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., to forward a complete treatment to every sufferer of Asthma who writes for symptom blank. This is a very liberal offer and shows the confidence the Clark Medical Co. have in the merits of this preparation. If any of our readers are afflicted with Asthma they should write the Clark Co. as once for symptom blank. Why suffer when a cure is within reach?
