SANDYSTON.

A Hainesville youth trilled pretty freely of order and then proceeded to do up some of his neighbors, threatening to shoot them, smashing crockery, etc. He will know a good deal more when he goes through with that racket.

Evi Brink, Jr., fell upon a soythe cutting his hand last week, and at present is taking it easy during the member.

There is quite a struggle going on in this county as to who will be the next superintendent of schools. Luther Hill has held the office since 1876 and now there are two aspirants for the position, Ralph Decker, teacher at Deckertown, and A. P. Cope, teacher of Stanhope school. Predictions favor the latter.

Apple picking is in progress and the crop is a fairly good one. The fruit is in excellent condition, much better than in former years, yet one dollar per barrel is the average price paid.

The rain of the past week was a corker and will pass for a regular old fashioned equinoctial. From Wednesday noon to Saturday morning the rainfall was 4.47 inches and yet our streams were not very high.

A resident of this town made out a note for $100 signing the names of two other persons to the note, one as the maker and the other security and he posing as the maker took the note to a party in Frankford and got the money. The Frankford party not getting his interest promptly notified the forged maker of the note to attend to that matter, and the whole thing came out.

Miss Vernie Stoll, daughter of Isaac Stoll, who went to a New York hospital for treatment, has returned home and will return to the hospital some time this week.

Miss Mand Warner of Hainesville departed on Saturday to take up her school duties for another year at Clifton, N. J.

The rainfall for September up to Monday night was 8.94 inches, the greatest of any month in years. Of this amount 7.13 inches fell from the 24th to the 29th, both dates inclusive.

John J. Van Sickle is having his outbuildings on his farms painted and when completed will be white in color. W. C. Hursh and George Heine are the painters.

The new owners of the Hudson River telephone company had a party of men going over the line last week putting it in good working order and trimming the trees where branches interfered with the wires. They were a jolly good natured set of men.

The recent spell of rainy weather has delayed the corn cutting very much and there is a lot of it yet to cut. Scarcely of farm help is one cause of the day. The buckwheat crop is standing in stout and is reported to be growing.

George Campbell, residing near Berans in a tenant house of John Aber, removed to Port Jervis last week and found employment on the Erie.

CONASHAUGH.

The violent thunder shower Sunday afternoon made Wm. T. Struble feel blue. He has just completed his mill dam below Mott street bridge and watered it all night but it stood the pressure all right, and we all sincerely hope he will have the sweet older running soon.

This is very bad weather for threshing buckwheat. The farmers have had hard times in gathering their grain and hay this year.

Jan. P. Van Ethen and family of Conashaugh have moved in the Swopeator cottage in Milford for the coming winter.

Miss Alice Douleary, a guest at Halcyone cottage, returned to her home in New York city Tuesday.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Take name "A. C." on every bottle.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

Farmers may have an opportunity this year to have a little game as the law in general makes the open season begin Oct. 15 and by that time crops can be got out of the way so as to afford them a little time to hunt before the game is all killed.

Last fall the crows did not emigrate and they probably will remain here this winter. The crack of the gun not being heard makes them think it is a safe place.

The farmers who have tried to raise hickory groves are a little disappointed for the squirrels being protected by law amuse themselves eating off the green nuts.

G. Y. Crona, an old resident of this township, died at his home Sept. 25 after a protracted illness. The funeral was held Saturday.

Sarah E. Layton of Centre is not improving in health.

Solinda E. Layton has gone to a hospital in New York for treatment.

The town looked as if a fair was in progress last Saturday. The rain kept the farmers home all the week and they had to turn out to obtain groceries.

Mrs. Mary Smith is visiting her daughter, Susan, in Newton, N. J. Her daughter, Carrie, is at home.

W. H. Layton will soon remove his family to Long Meadow, where he has the school, for the winter.

The school directors had a little racket a few days ago because there were not more than half seats enough at Centre to accommodate the scholars.

The only way to keep boarders and make money is to provide a good table and afford them amusements. Those who cannot pay a fair price for such accommodations are not profitable.

Politics is dull. The question is not who to put in fat offices but how to keep the stock fat this winter in view of the moderate crops.

E. D. Ryder of Ardornish recently had a finger nearly bitten off by one of the vicious donkeys there.

DOWN THE COUNTY.

October 1

Buckwheat that is out, and there is a large amount of it, is damaged by the wet weather.

We see by a neighboring paper that a team belonging to a Mr. Van Vliet was killed by lightning about a week ago while returning home from East Stroudsburg. Mr. Van Vliet and a boy were in the wagon at the time but were not injured.

After a protracted sickness G. Y. Crona, a well known citizen of Delaware, died on Friday morning last. He was the last of the elder Cronas and is survived by four sons and two daughters. Mr. Crona was a kind and ready man in time of sickness and distress and many families of this community remember well his willingness and readiness to render assistance in such time of need. The funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended.

Miss Sarah E. Layton, a well known teacher of this township, is lying hopelessly ill at her home at the present writing. All that medical skill and kind nursing could do has been done for her but despite all this she is surely and rapidly sinking.

Henry L. Schuyler, an excellent citizen of Delaware township, and Miss Bida Fowler of East Stroudsburg were married at Stroudsburg on the 24th of September. They expect to begin housekeeping very soon and have rented the house of Mrs. C. A. Frazier near Centre. They have the best wishes of all the neighborhood.

A rumor is circulated that the D. V. R. Co. intend to extend their line farther up the valley this fall. We hope the story is well founded.
