MATAMORAS.

Mrs. Ed Lord, who has been spending a few days at Lordville, Pa., returned Monday evening.

The Organ Club of Matamoras will meet on Friday evening at the home of the Misses Emma and Cora Hillman on Cookson street.

There will be no meeting of the L. U. V. society this week.

Prof. Fanner has two young pupils in Matamoras who play the violin very nicely, Master James Welch and Master Bernard Jost who play every Saturday at the Professor's studio and practice for the recitals which are very much enjoyed.

The Blue Ribbon Society of the Hope Church will meet this week Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Simpson on Cookson street.

The L. A. S. of the Epworth Church will meet this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Lord.

Miss Lillian Hackett, of Rutherford, N. J., is the guest of the Misses Cora and Emma Hillman. She will spend a week or ten days with the young ladies.

At Epworth Church on Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Shoop the pastor, had for subject "Mary the Mother of Jesus." This was the ninth in the series on "Men and women You Ought to Know." The text was Luke 1st chapter, 4th verse. Mr. Shoop spoke of the influence Mary had exerted on her son. Also of the mighty power wielded by the mothers of the race. Mothers can not tell what their children will become, and it ought to be their earnest desire to lay for them a firm foundation for their after lives. It was a grand sermon. There was a large audience, notwithstanding the snowstorm.

The C. E. Society of the Hope church will hold a business meeting and social on Friday evening at the home of Frank Wilkin. An election of officers will take place at this meeting. Every member is requested to be present.

Mrs. Thompson Decker, who has been visiting relatives for the past three weeks in New York, Newark, Orange, N. J., has returned home.

Dr. Ralph French, of Pottstown, Pa., is visiting his family on Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and son, Archie, have returned home, after spending a week with relatives in Walton and other places.

The snow plow has been in requisition to make paths on the streets, so the school children and citizens could get through. We hope the gentlemen will be compensated, who had charge of the plow.

Master Lamont Bornbeck, was very pleasantly surprised on Friday evening. About 18 of his young friends wended their way to his home. He was very much pleased and entertained them nicely. Refreshments were served, various games were played, and good music was also enjoyed. The evening was spent very pleasantly.

Michael Uoh, proprietor of the meat market on Pennsylvania avenue, has sold the Hickory Grove Inn to Floyd Bevans, who has been conducting the Half-Way House, owned by Maurice Quin, a resident of Matamoras. Mr. Quin will take possession of his hotel the first of April. Laforge Caskey will vacate the grove at that time, and Mr. Bevans will occupy the Inn. Mr. Caskey has not decided where he will locate in the spring.

Mrs. Helot Seybolt has returned home from New York, where she has been spending a week with her son, George, and daughter, Grace, a trained nurse in that city.

WANTED—Faithful person to travel for well-established house in a few counties, calling on retail merchants and agents. Local retainer, salary $1024 a year and expenses, payable $17.50 a week in cash and expenses advanced. Position permanent. Business successful and rushing. Standard House, 334 Dearborn St., Chicago. 6-1-13

SANDYSTON.

The creamery at Bevans has closed for the season and I understand all milk taken there now is carted to Branchville by Mr. Fulboom.

The donation held in the Layton church on the evening of Dec. 3rd was not largely attended and the receipts were in the same ratio. Receipts $13.

Extra meetings were held in the Layton M. E. church during the past week and will continue another week. This place is so dull that it is impossible to get out a crowd, and yet there are many who should get converted and I hope they will come forward and right away.

Mrs. Campbell has almost recovered from her recent illness and will move to Port Jervis this week to live with her son, George. The old lady is in her eighties and quite feeble.

There is a good deal of discussion going on in the press as to whether the canteen should be abolished from the army or not. General Miles is strongly opposed, while Generals Corbin, Bates and Funston are as strongly in his favor. Any one serving in the army knows the advantages of the canteen and its abolishment means that the soldier will get it somehow, and other excesses as well. It is pretty certain that the canteen will be reinstated.

On Saturday last Clinton Rosenkrans started out fox hunting. While looking about he heard a noise and turned saw a fine red fox going for all he was worth. But Clint was too quick and one shot stopped his foxship and in two hours from the time he left home he was at the Justice having the necessary papers made out for the bounty of three dollars and then sold the pelt for $3.25 more making a good job of his two hours work.

Ford Mering on Monday shot a large gray fox and immediately started on track of another. That fox has got to leave the state or Ford will get him sure.

The shoot at Montross on Saturday last was a lively one from start to finish. No sooner was one match shot off than the scorer called off the names and another was going and eleven matches were shot off in two hours. The shooting was much below the average, as they threw the rocks very swift. The over mountain shooters took nearly all of the turkeys.

We are having winter in earnest. On Dec. 5 the mercury stood at 21° just zero, and on the 8th 8° above zero, and the best part of it is, we are having first rate sleighing.

There is scarcity of coal in the country generally and in many places much suffering. Schools are short and families have a very insufficient supply. The dealers in Port Jervis say the company refuses to accept orders and they are unable to make any promises to patrons. Occasionally cars of coal are furnished and it is eagerly carted away.

MAST HOPE

Winter is here with the snow and the blow.

All hope that Miss Margaret Howe will soon be able to return to her school here.

This place has lately furnished 4 young men for the Erie towers viz: Edgar Tyler, Dell Davis, Will and Josie McMahon.

Mrs. E. A. Tigne and Mrs. A. Lehman have returned home after attending the funeral of Mrs. Annie Ruffer Coleman at Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kierman were much pleased to receive a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Campbell. Miss Katie Campbell accompanied her back to her Lordville home.

Chester Nearing, wife and children have been visiting Mrs. Nearing's father, W. H. Nearing, and Mr. Nearing at Cocheton Centre. Chester returned to Newark Valley, but his wife is still with her parents.

Mrs. Mary Calkin of Ateo spent several days with Miss Maggie Dabron.

KINBLES

John Pierson of Scranton was a caller in town one day last week.

Miss Maria Kollan of Summitville returned home last Saturday after spending two months with relatives in this place, Howlands and Paupack. She will stop and visit her daughters, Mesdames Isaac Edwards and Williams Roberts of Port Jervis, and Mrs. Adams of Matamoras.

Mrs. Alva Anslay and her two sons of Uawick visited her brother, George Cartwright and family of this place one day last week.

Mrs. J. E. Dorian of Lockaville spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. George Daniels, of this place.

PAUPACK.

The snow which fell Friday promises to last well and the merry jingle of the sleigh bells are again heard in our neighborhood.

Bessie Anslay is spending a short time with her parents, George Anslay and wife.

Richard Phillips is rapidly recovering from a severe illness and expects to soon be able to resume his duties. Joseph Slocum spent a few days of last week in this place.

Mrs. G. W. Wilson and daughter, Sadie, returned from their trip to Philadelphia Wednesday.

We find our Paupack store a great convenience. If we are in need of any article at short notice we have only to notify the proprietor, and even if it is out of his line of stock, he will have it for us by return of stage if it is possible to procure it in town. But is it the fair thing to use our store only for convenience sake? Is it just to leave our cash at the stores in town when we have one with us struggling for existence? when we can procure goods right at home at prices as low as we are in the habit of paying elsewhere?

Mr. Wilson is an acquisition to our community. Not only is he a gentleman at heart, but he takes an interest in our welfare, and as we all know has done us good. He is very desirous to remain with us but at present it looks as if his own interests would call him elsewhere.

He don't ask for much, only for that patronage that we can give him without inconvenience or extra expense to ourselves. He fully understands the manner in which we have to do our trading, and does not expect all of our custom. Still he thinks that if the cash we turn over to distant stores was to pass through his hands enough of it would cling to his fingers to make the out look a little brighter. We would be sorry indeed to lose Mr. Wilson. He has become one of us and his loss would be felt. Can not as a Christmas present, give him our assurance that we do appreciate his efforts, and that we will assist him all in our power to make his venture successful? Let us not forget that if in want of anything (no matter what) we can procure it through the Paupack store, and at lowest cost. If in want of a needle you will find it there. A mowing machine? He will get it for you. And if you want to order a steam yacht for the lake that is to be, leave your order with Wilson.

DEFACIO

To the Logical End: They were at a picnic. "Fingers were made before forks," she laughed as she helped herself in democratic fashion. "Yes," he admitted, "and people were made before clothes." She hastily reached for a fork. It is frequently annoying to have to carry an argument to its logical conclusion.—Chicago Post.

Little Wynnie (just returned from Sunday school)—Is it true that even the hairs of our heads are numbered? Mr. Frontenot—The Bible says so, my child.

Safe in His Insurance. Belle—He has money, you know. Emma—Yes, he appreciates that fact, but how am I to live happily with a man who is my inferior? "Don't tell him and he'll never know it."—Modern Society.

Disinterested. The man who had dropped in to see him was smoking a cheap cigar. "I think you will find it more comfortable," said Uncle Allen Sparks, pleasantly, "if you'll sit over there by that open window. There is no draught from it, as you will see from the fact that the smoke from your cigar goes out through it. There, that's better."—Chicago Tribune.

A Good Cough Medicine [From the Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia.] I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. Wookner. This is the opinion of one of the oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wookner. This remedy is sold by A. W. Balch and Son, Matamoras, all drug and general stores in Pike county.
