MATAMORAS

REINERY—SKINNER

Wednesday evening, January 14, the marriage of Miss May A., eldest daughter of Robert Skinner and wife, and Mr. Madie Reinert, a fireman on the Erie, occurred at the bride's home in this village in the presence of about two hundred guests. At eight the wedding march from Lohengrin, rendered by Miss Edna Westfall, began and the happy couple, preceded by ushers Fred Harding and Byron Gilson, entered the beautifully decorated parlors. Following were Miss Clara Skinner and Miss Louise Reinert, sisters of the bride and groom, as ushers of honor and Henry Billman, groom's man. All took places under a marriage hall adorned with pink and white carnations, white roses, amaranth, evergreens and palms. The Episcopal form of ceremony was performed by Rev. Ora J. Shoop, pastor of Epworth church, and was with a ring borne by Masters Clarence and Russell Skinner.

The bride was gowned in white silk, on train, trimmed with white chiffon and pearl trimmings and she carried white orchids.

The maids dresses were white organdie over pink silk trimmed with pink and white ribbon, each bearing a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom and best man were in full dress. The ceremony over, all repaired to the dining room where an elegant repast was spread and enjoyed—accompanied with music by Miss Westfall. The waitress dressed in white organdie with pink and white trimmings were the Misses Eva Sayer, Millie Wright, Stella V. Lilley, Christine Reinert, Nellie and Dollie Skinner. The floral decorations were arranged and furnished by Col. Quick and were tasty and beautiful.

The bride's traveling dress was blue ladies cloth with hat and gloves to correspond.

The happy couple departed for the west and will visit Chicago and other places and on their return will reside here. They have many friends here and in Port Jervis, both being pleasant and popular young people and they have the best wishes of all. The bride was a member of Epworth church and is a good musician. The presents were numerous, comprising household goods and the groom's present was a solid silver set of twelve pieces.

Out-of-town guests in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skinner, of Jersey City, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balmos and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wood, of Montclair, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. N. Beyen, of New Haven; Mr. and Mrs. W. Guay, of Newburgh; Mr. and Mrs. George Lancaster, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tilson, of Cuddebackville, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weygant and two daughters, Corinne and Blanche, of Westbrookville; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lilley, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lilley, of Montauk; Mr. and Mrs. William Zook, of Guymard; Thomas Quick, Miss Fannie Aldrich and Jacob Westbrook, of Milford.

The Orion club will meet Friday evening at Miss Minnie Hill's.

Miss Edna Puder of Buho, Pa., spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Irene Kimble.

Mr. and Mrs. Madie Reinert returned from their wedding trip on Sunday evening. They will go direct to housekeeping in their newly furnished home on Washington street.

Miss Cora Billman and her sister, Mrs. Ed. Lord, left town Monday to visit at Binghamton for a few days.

William Backett of Butcherford, N. J., spent Sunday with Alfred Billman. He returned home Monday.

J. Allerton Wilkin of New York is home on a visit his parents on Jefferson street.

The Blue Ribbon society will give an entertainment and supper at Prescott's Hall, Friday, Jan. 23.

At Prescott's Hall, Saturday evening, the pupils of the Matamoras schools gave a concert, the proceeds to go towards purchasing a library for the school. All the selections were well rendered. At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served.

Rockwell Henthof of Rotherford, N. J., attended the Edgett Skinner wedding. He returned Thursday morning.

Mrs. Alonso Case of Howells, N. Y., who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Haysner, returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Case was called here on account of the sickness and death of Mrs. Haysner's child.

John Case, father of Mrs. Michael Eisenberger, who has been ill for some time is improving slowly.

Mrs. Oliver D. Squires and little daughter, Hope, of Highland, N. J., spent Friday in Matamoras and Port Jervis calling on relatives.

PAUPAC

Mrs. C. A. Pellatt returned from Brooklyn on Saturday.

Otto Yerke was called to New York to attend the funeral of his aged mother on Monday.

Walter Vesterlein returned from the metropolis last week. During his absence he was present at the obsequies of Mrs. Krul, the lady who was so well known in our community, having spent her summers for the past twenty years in this place.

Katie, a small daughter of Harmon Gumble, who has been confined to the house for the past month, has now come under the care of Dr. Plum, who believes that his little patient is threatened with pneumonia.

Ernest Gumble, while working in the woods at a short distance from his home, met with a very painful accident. Owing to a mis-stroke the ax, with which he was working, slipped and struck his foot severing one of his toes and a large vein. Dr. Rodman closed the wound. We are sorry for our young friend's misfortune and hope to soon see him again as usual.

A large crowd from the Hawley German church enjoyed a sleigh ride and supper at the hospitable home of A. J. Kimble and wife on Saturday.

The home of Edwin Killam and family was the scene of much merriment on Thursday evening of last week. The object was to commemorate the birthday of their son-in-law, Leonard Simons. Music, games, and dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when after refreshments the merry makers returned to their several homes much pleased with the evening's entertainment.

As election time draws near we observe that the would-be politician becomes very anxious to cultivate the acquaintances of his neighbors.

The Tatton school has been closed during the past week, owing to the death by typhoid fever of the teacher's, Miss Wegge, brother.

Why does not Defacto write oftener? We hope we are not trespassing on our old correspondents' rights.

Leonard B. Simons was seen out distributing invitations for a surprise party gotten up by his wife, for himself, which came off Thursday night, January 15th. The presents were very numerous and useful if not expensive.

Yolande Killam and Franc Pellatt were at the fireman's ball in Hawley January 14th. How was it girls, as good as that dance which extended into the Sabbath a couple of weeks ago which some of our young folks attended, or have you compared notes?

It would appear that our Bard of the Wallen Paupac has taken note of our comments upon "Rabbering" at the 'phone and appears in the Hawley Times with a poem in defence of the same. Thank you Mr. Post, we were much interested in your effort, and were much amused—may pleased—with it. We do think that your poetry and that of Longfellow, Whittier and others, will not stand comparison and should not be spoken of in the same breath.

Heard over the 'phone: That our young folks have great times coasting down Cooney's lane these fine nights. ACK.

MIST HOPE

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Percival Davis, who has been seriously ill with neuritis, is recovering. Her daughter, Mrs. Eva Tigus, has returned to her home at Rockland, but her son, William, and wife of Rockland, N. Y., will remain longer.

Miss Howe, who has been home on account of sickness, has again commenced her school here.

Mrs. A. Lehmann has been entertaining her friend, Mrs. Whitmore, of Ryle.

C. A. Dabron and family have returned to their Tioga county home and Miss E. H. Dabron to Binghamton.

Judson Case lost a valuable horse which he purchased last June.

Cyrus Bonnet, formerly owner of the Mapetown property near Narrowsburg, N. Y., died at Smyrna, N. Y., this month aged 80.

Died at the home of Ezra Case Jan. 13th of kidney trouble, Christopher Brinkman aged 75. The funeral sermon conducted by the Lutheran minister in the Lutheran church at Narrowsburg and the remains buried in the cemetery at that place. Mr. Brinkman came from Germany to this country and was always an industrious, honest man. A son, John, resides on the old homestead in Wayne county, Pa. He is also survived by Mrs. E. Case, Mrs. John Hermon, Mrs. J. Bets of Sullivan county, N. Y., and Miss Sophia of Brooklyn.

Rev. Lawton, pastor of the Baptist church here, was obliged to give up his special meetings after holding them one week as he was taken sick. He was assisted by a Mr. Brown, who is a colored gentleman.

Mrs. Wm. Apply and sisters, Miss Addie Barlow, Mrs. Ida Bedford and Mrs. Carrie Williams came to J. Barlows Jan. 8th it being Mr. Barlows 77th birthday. Mrs. Williams, the grand-niece, brought a birthday cake on which were the initials J. B. and as many candies as he was old that day.

Mrs. W. H. Hankins is gaining in health.

Miss Lizzie Laseley has gone to Long Eddy to remain some time with her niece, Mrs. B. Conner.

Mrs. S. S. Crawford has gone to New York.

All men who wish employment have secured it of W. H. Hankins and M. Clark who are getting out mine tops and caps.

The ice bridge which was made by awing a cake of ice is very convenient.

Wille Stampf, operator on the New York Central, has been visiting his uncle, Fred Schoat.

Asthma Can Be Cured

Free Treatment. Free Medical Advice. We Have Cured 7,000 Cases. Why Not Yours?

This dread disease which has caused more untold agonies than words can describe, has at last received its death blow. Medical science in recent years has found a remedy that successfully combats all the aggravated symptoms due to this distressing affliction. After many years of patient study and research, Dr. A. B. Clark, the well known specialist, has discovered a positive remedy that cures the cough, gives immediate relief and eradicates every vestige of the disease. So confident is the doctor that his Asthma Remedy will offer a cure in all stages that he has instructed the Clark Medical Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., to forward a complete treatment to every sufferer of Asthma who writes for symptom blank. This is a very liberal offer and shows the confidence the Clark Medical Co. have in the merits of this preparation. If any of our readers are afflicted with Asthma they should write the Clark Co. at once for symptom blank. Why suffer when a cure is within reach?

REMARKABLE CURE OF COUGH

A Little Boy's Life Saved

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlin's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, in Wood, Iowa. For sale by A. W. Hatch and Son, Matamoras, and drug and general stores in Pike county.
