There has been much discussion over the question and it is now settled so far as the people are concerned, inasmuch as the directors are en tirely responsible for the location. This, however, should receive ample consideration by the board, and as suggestions may not be improper, we Ansley, would call attention to the lots on Harford street at the corner of Fifth. There are four lots making a plot 240x180. They are as nearly centrally located as may be and have trees surrounding them. We do not think a more advantageous location could be selected and perhaps none that would give more general satisfaction in the end. Then, too, the value of these lots Charles F Howell. has practically been fixed at a recent public sale and it is not bayond what is entirely reasonable

The Trust Question

The pastoral visitation has been to expedite trials by the government for government trust presecution cases are looked upon as highly satisfactory trust legislation.

It is a subject of comment that the general trust question has not been debated in the senate. The democrats have evidently recognized the inex-pediency of opposing any of these republican measures. It is stated to be the program of democratic leaders to allow the republicans to enact whatever legislation they want, se-cure in the belief that it will be ineffective and that they will then be able to attack republican legislation.
