Widely circulated reports concerning the conduct of Russia in Man churia, that province of China which adjoins the Russian frontier, have given rise to the wildest speculation and in some instances grave apprehension. Subsequent advices from more reliable sources, however, discredit the reports first sent out and it is even doubtful if Russia has reoccupied Nia Chwang as was at first reyorted. While accorate imforms. tion regarding the situation in this somewhat remote part of the globe is unattainable, it is the opinion of the state department that gross exaggerations have gained credence and it is suspected that there is an ulterior motive in the attempt to secure from this country cooperation in a joint protest to be made to Russia by Great Britain and Japan. At all events, no move will be made by this government until authentic information has been received and even if the alleged intention of Russia should receive confirmation it is doubtful if the United States would feel called upon to protest Regardless of the sensation cable grams which are likely to appear in the newspapers from now on, the people of this country have every assurance that the United States will not be made the cat's paw of the subjects of nations interested in commercial exploitation,
