SANDYSTON.

Yes, Mr. Rambler, we are pretty good people and thank you for your good opinion, but, it takes all kinds to make a world and I am sorry to say that there are kinds here that we would gladly dispense with and hope they will emigrate to—Milford.

Mr. Jenkins and daughter, Miss Edna, are visiting with Dr. Hogbes. Miss Jenkins will remain here for an indefinite period.

At an adjourned meeting of the trustees on Saturday night a Mr. Allen was engaged to teach the Layton school at a salary of $42 per month. This is quite a range, some teachers are only getting $25 per month.

I have been asked why I said Bevans is the sporting center of this valley. In reply, I would say just ask some of the Hainesville youth, and they can answer the question.

The social in the Reformed church at Bevans Friday evening brought out a large attendance and the neat sum of $5 dollars was added to the treasury.

Mr. Kiteben of Columbia, N. J., has been whipping our streams for trout a few days the past week. He did pretty well, capturing 27 trout, many of good size.

Repairs and painting of our school houses is now on the program. Would it not be a good idea for the trustees to purchase the material for painting and have the work done by the day. They would save cost of brushes and excessive cost of oil. Thirteen dollars will paint any school building in the town, the Layton school house excepted.

Work on the new road is progressing finely since the rainy weather has ceased, and the road will be completed in no doubt by the specified date. What did the Freeholders mean by giving the Montague Freeholders one mile of good road, when the road to be improved is the best road in that township.

Hainesville is making a great noise in telling what a wonderful celebration they will have on July 4th. Racing at Newton and Milford will attract a good many, especially at the latter place, and the Erie excursion to New York for $1 round trip, will claim its share. The work on the farm coming all in a heap will keep many from celebrating only at home.

William Major left on the 23rd ult. for an extended visit in the vicinity of his wife's home near Fairfield, Illinois. Mr. Major started for her home a fortnight ago, and her husband will take a look at many points in the West before returning to Jersey.

Sandyston is having too many bridges built, and in the opinion of the majority of the people some of them are unnecessary. With a tax rate of not less than $20 on a thousand public expenditures should be reduced to the minimum.

Here we are almost the 4th of July, and many fields of corn have been neither plowed or cultivated. Very little of it will be knee high by July 4th unless the leaves are stretched. Grass is coming on finely. A good deal of buckwheat ground is not plowed yet, and from the indications at present the acreage will be limited by the constant wet weather.

Up to this, Monday night, the rain fall is 11.39 inches, the greatest amount in any one month since I have had charge of the Weather Bureau instruments. Suppose this amount had fallen at one time we would have had to swim or drown.

The trustees have found what repairs are to be made upon each of the (8) school houses in this township, and the contract will be let to the lowest bidder. Apply to Geo. E. Harsh, Layton, N. J.

A. L. Wierzen and family are now occupying their cottage which was built recently.

MATAMORAS.

David Walls of Matamoras was struck and instantly killed by the Newark Flyer at Bergen tunnel at 5.40 o'clock Monday afternoon. The remains were brought to Port Jervis in charge of Undertaker Fred Terwilliger. He was born June 6, 1861, at Philadelphia and was a son of the late Henry and Mary H. Walls. He has been a resident of this village for twenty-five years. He resided with his two sisters, Miss Kate Walls and Mrs. L. E. Elston. His death casts a pall of sorrow over his associates and will make a pleasant home desolate.

The business meeting of the L. A. S. of Epworth church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Kimble.

Mrs. A. J. Vosburg of Newark, N. J., and LeForge Nyco and daughter May spent Sunday with Peter Dewitt.

The friends in Matamoras of Miss Katharine Walls and her sister, Mrs. L. E. Elston, tender their sympathy in their sad affliction on the death of their brother David, who was killed by the cars at Bergen tunnel.

John Koerner, a student at the Stroudsburg Normal school, arrived in town Friday evening and will spend his vacation here and in New York City.

Miss Clara Heidenthal, who is employed in a department store in Newark, is home on a vacation at her mother's, Mrs. Frankie Heidenthal on Pennsylvania avenue.

The "Crimson Rambler" at the home of Mrs. Irving Courtright on Main-street is out in full bloom and makes a fine appearance.

Geo. Billman is on the Erie Railroad as a night caller.

Miss Sarah Knapp has arrived in town from Brooklyn, N. Y., where she has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Avery. She was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. S. S. Spoons, on Main street and left for her home in Hawley Monday.

Mrs. E. J. Lord, left town Thursday for Binghamton to attend a wedding anniversary in that city.

Mrs. J. C. Fitzhugh and daughter, Lois, from Washington, D. C., arrived in town a few days ago and are visiting Mrs. Joseph Palmatier.

Master Thornton, son of Mrs. Anna E. Caswell, is spending his vacation with his mother. He attends the Institution for the Blind at Batavia, N. Y., and is a bright fellow despite his infirmity.

Miss Lillian Schlegel of Jersey City, a niece of Miss Sarah Remy, will pass her two weeks' vacation in Matamoras and Port Jervis. She is a stenographer for a wholesale grocery firm of New York City.

Mrs. Robert Skinner, accompanied by her two sons, Claude and Russell, left town to visit relatives at Jersey City, Montclair and Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinert, who have been on a visit to Jersey City, Greenwich and other cities, returned home Thursday evening. They visited at Newark where Mrs. Reinert's sister, Miss Gattie Skinner, is employed in a large department store.

Miss Della Skinner celebrated her 14th birthday Thursday afternoon at her home. Twenty-five of her young friends assembled to pay their respects. Tea was served at 6 o'clock. The young lady received a number of pretty presents. The occasion was enhanced by music, consisting of piano solos by Misses Nellie and Della Skinner, May Corwin and Beatrice Thomas. The tables were decorated with pink and white roses and ferns.

A lawn social and 15-cent tea will be held at the Epworth church on the afternoon and evening of July 4th under the auspices of the L. A. S. connected with the church. Ice cream and cake will be served both afternoon and evening.

Friday was the president's last cabinet meeting for sometime—until the conclusion of his summer vacation at Oyster Bay. There will, however, be more business done at Oyster Bay than is usually the case when a man goes on a vacation. Private Secretary Lueb and a number of stenographers and typewriters accompany the president, a force sufficient to operate a fair sized business.

What Killed Him.

Wife (with newspaper, to husband)—Here is another foolish temperance lecture; (Husband) Young Spillars got into a boat and shoved out into the river, and as he was intoxicated he upset the boat, fell into the river and was drowned. Now, sir, (addressing her husband), if he had not drunk whisky he would not have lost his life.

Husband—Let me see. He fell into the river, didn't he?
Wife—Of course he did.
"Didn't he until he fell in?"
"James, you are positively silly. Of course, he didn't die until he was drowned."

"Then it was the water that killed him."—Stray Stories.

The Conclusion He Reached.
The dog had been chasing his own tail for a quarter of an hour.

"Papa, I ought Willie, 'what kind of a dog is that?"

"A watch dog, my son," responded the parent.

Willie pondered a moment.

"Well," he finally observed, "from the length of time it takes him to wind himself up I think he must be a Waterbury watch dog."—Town and Country.

It Means the Same Thing.
"He's a fool!"
"Oh, I wouldn't put it so brutally as that. There are better ways of expressing your opinion of him."

"How, for instance?"
"Well, you might say that he's the kind of man who's likely to have the simple inscription on his tombstone: 'He blew out the gas.'—Chicago Post.

Early Reformation.
After reproving her eldest son for the offense of cigarette smoking, the mother thought she would improve the occasion still further, and inquired of a younger son of the house, aged nine, if he had been smoking also.

"No, mother," was the reply. "I have given it up."—Tit-Bits.

The Art of Advertising.
Museum Agent—What's wrong with our new midge? He doesn't seem to draw.

Manager—Of course not. See what a mess you've made of the advertisements. You've put his height at three feet. Make it 36 inches, and the people will come with a rush.—N. Y. Weekly.

The Next Move.
"Now, President Roosevelt's letter," commented the "Womanly Woman," "should make us think."

"Yes," replied the self-centered society woman, "I've been thinking how nice it would be if we could only start a movement to make stocks fashionable for hat trimmings."—Philadelphia Post.

Fast, All Right.
"Did you sell Mrs. Stuckgood that piece of goods and guarantee the colors to be fast?"
"Why, ye-ye-yes, sir. Wh-wh-what's the matter?"

"Nothing, only she's developed palpitation of the heart trying to catch me since they started to run."—Baltimore News.

About the Size of It.
"Say, pa," queried little Johnny Bumperstickle, "what's 'sudden riches'?"

"Sudden riches, my son," replied the old man, "is something that keeps a man busy judging the people who formerly tried to dodge him."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mallinson.
"How many handsome pieces of furniture the doctor has!"
"Yes; I suppose they were left him by his patients."—Brooklyn Life.

A Greater Convenience.
"The nearest doctor is miles away, isn't he?"
"Yes; but the cemetery is right handy."—Chicago Post.

Compulsory.
"Are you doing anything for your cold?"
"I sneeze whenever it wants me to."—N. Y. Journal.

A Severe Threat.
"Tramp—if you don't get off my dog I'll hit him!"—Chicago Journal.

Not Under His Control.
"Dear me," said the good-looking female visitor to the superintendent of the lunatic asylum, "what a vicious look that woman has. She just passed in the corridor. Is she dangerous?"

"Yes, at times," replied the superintendent, gravely.
"But why do you allow her such freedom?"
"Can't help it."
"But isn't she an inmate and under your control?"
"No. She is not under my control. She's my wife."—Tit-Bits.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.
"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller of Morgan, Texas.

"I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Balch & Son, Matamoras, all general stores in Pike county.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-a-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely free in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and denunciations and eulogiums alike are obtained in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.
